DENISE BIXLER, Westland's Junior Miss, recently became first runner-up in statewide junior miss competition in Marshall. As first runner-up, she won a $1,000 scholarship. Bixler also won the Revlon Personal Style award in which contestants create a hairstyle of their own and offer beauty tips. That brought her a $300 scholarship. She also won a $75 award for placing second in a Simplicity Sewing contest at the event.

The John Glenn student plans to attend either Northwestern or the University of Michigan.

JUSTINE BARNES, Westland's new state representative, will have a busy schedule this year in the legislature. She has been named a member of the education, public health, consumers, senior citizens and retirement committees. Barnes also will serve as vice-chair of the corrections committee. "I'm very happy with what I got," said Barnes. "The education committee will be a critical one." Indeed, Gov. James Blanchard plans to substantially cut appropriations for all levels of education.

MORE THAN 350 members of Wayne-Westland Community Schools senior adult clubs gathered for a Western-style dinner last week at Marshall Junior High. The seniors donned Western hats and vests for the event, and sang country western songs while Floyd Carter strummed his guitar.

Larry Laing was honored as the oldest octogenarian there at a grand 84 years old.

MELODY PAPIAZIAN of Westland has received a $250 scholarship from the Stephenson Foundation for the 1982-83 academic year at Madonna College in Livonia. Papazian is a senior majoring in business administration.

The Stephenson Foundation, based in Grosse Pointe Woods, awards scholarships to students on the basis of academic excellence.

CANDY MORGAN and her horse, Guy's Carbon Copy, were awarded a champion and two reserve champion honors at the Michigan Horse Show Association's annual awards banquet at the Livonia Holiday.

WESTLAND Chiropractor Dr. James W. O'Dell, 1214 Wayne Road, recently attended a four-day post-graduate seminar in Las Vegas. He joined more than 3,800 other doctors of chiropractic and their staffs discussing the most recent research in patient care and X-ray procedures.

This was the seventh educational seminar of the Parker Foundation that Dr. O'Dell has attended in 13 years. He is a graduate of Logan College of Chiropractic in St. Louis.

FREE HEALTH screenings are available for area senior citizens at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne and at the Whitman Center, sponsored by the Wayne County Health Department. Explaining the services will be Judy Cavell, who will speak at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Whitman Community Center, 28550 Ann Arbor Trail, and at 12:45 p.m. on Feb. 8 at the Senior Friendship Center, 37095 Marquette east of Newburgh.

WANT TO get a little physical? Try Westland's Bailey Recreation Center on Ford Road behind city hall. The exercise room and gym are open to residents and non-residents to work off a few pounds along with the winter doldrums. Fees are $1 resident and $2 non-resident for the exercise room. For basketball and volleyball in the gym, fees are $1.50 for residents, $3 for non-residents and 50 cents for students with identification.

Residents buy fewer handguns

By Maurie Walker
staff writer

There's a lot of firepower in Westland.

Not counting the thousands of rifles and shotguns owned by residents, handguns are popular too.

In the past three years, 1,943 persons have registered handguns with the Westland Police Department.

Lt. Wayne Craft said last year 607 persons received registrations for guns.

"In 1981, our peak year for registrations, we had 725 persons apply for registration. In 1980, there were 611 applications," he said.

"The state law requirements for a license for a registered handgun is what we in Westland go by," Craft added.

UNDER STATE regulations, a person must be at least 18 years of age, a U.S. citizen, a Michigan resident for at least six months, have no felony convictions, have not served jail time during the eight prior years or been judged insane (unless ruled sane again by a court order) in this or any other state.

Federal law prohibits licensing of a handgun to persons who have been convicted of a felony.

According to Sheriff's Department Deputy Sgt. Frank Gasdorf in the Wayne County Identification Bureau in Westland, the federal law takes precedence.

"However, local officials can get

Harmony in glass

Where once there was discord, now there is harmony between Mary Czarnowski of Livonia and the Automobile Club of Michigan. Two years ago the Livonia resident was involved in a class-action suit that charged the auto club with discriminatory practices against women. That's been settled now and the auto club sponsored Czarnowski in a three-week stained glass exhibition at its Dearborn offices which is titled "Harmony in Glass." One of the works on display was this leaded glass art nouveau panel that she completed in 1981 — and was not for sale. Below are two miniature houses, using copper foil leading and opalescent glass. City nears record in home sales

By Maurie Walker
staff writer

The dream of becoming a home owner is apparently turning into a reality for increasingly more persons in the Westland area.

The Western Wayne Oakland County Board of Realtors, which has members in Westland, reports 564 sales by its members in December for a 42.4 percent gain over the 396 recorded a year earlier. The month was the fifth straight to show improvement over 1981.

According to the organization, Westland, with a 32.8 percent increase in the sale of existing homes during the past five months, was one of the most active markets in the area. Only Northville/Northville Township, with a 46.7 rise, exceeded Westland.

Lower mortgage interest rates are seen as the biggest factor in leading home buyers back into the market.

Thomas Duke Jr., WWOBR president, said that "there is no doubt that the reduction in interest rates is the factor bringing buyers back into the market."

'We are getting fewer requests for land contracts. Buyers are turning to mortgages again.'

David Botell,
Community Realtors

"In December, conventional, FHA and VA financing was used in 42.2 percent of sales compared to only 14.4 percent in 1981.

"The use of assumed mortgages and land contracts, which aided 81 percent of sales of our members a year ago, has slipped to 53.4 percent and seemed destined to drip still farther," he said.

WESTLAND REAL ESTATE agents agree there is an upturn in the sales of existing homes. Madeline Leach, manager of ABC

Realty, 8276 Merriman, who has been in the business 20 years, said last December was the best she'd seen.

"No question about it, sales have improved.

"With interest rates of 12 percent on VA loans, 12% on FHA and 12% on conventional, people are getting back into the market," she said.

"Last year land contracts or mortgage assumptions were about 90 percent of our business. Now people are turning to mortgages again. Real estate business, I feel, is on the upswing."

Walter Tobakas, a broker with Camelot Realty Inc., 33018 Warren, said he has seen a noticeable difference in business.

"Sales last month were up, and our activities have increased in January," he said.

"No doubt about it, the lower interest rates have helped. We are getting a lot more inquiries about homes now, too." He said this is the best time for persons interested in a home to buy.

"It's like any product, as the demand grows, the prices rise. Right now, there are people who are forced to sell their homes for one reason or another making some good buys for those seeking a house."

DAVID BOTELL, owner of Community Realtors, 8077 Wayne Road, also credits the lower interest rates for improved business.

"There is a good selection of existing homes in Westland and people are starting to shop again.

"We showed a sharp increase in business last month, and, in just one day last week, we sold four homes," he said.

"We are getting fewer requests for land contracts. Buyers are turning to mortgages again," he added.

The increase in existing home sales is seen as eventually aiding the new home market.

"The year-end report of area home builders indicates sales of existing homes are beginning to spark greater activity in the new home market," Duke said.

"We know many prospective buyers are ready to make a move up but have been forced to wait on the sale of their present residence.

"We think the rising trend in the housing market will continue into 1983 as buyers financially able to move, weigh the advantages of further declines in interest rates.

"Any hope for a market resurgence equal to the need and desire for better housing may remain stymied by high unemployment and the uncertain economy.

"But the new year certainly holds far more promise for both buyers and sellers than the beginning of 1982, as the trends in sales look very good," Duke added.

Wayne County gets tough

Party's over for local drunk drivers

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

The Downriver and Western Wayne County Traffic Officers Association is taking Michigan's new drunk driving laws seriously — and hopes all drivers will do the same.

In recognition of the legislation, which takes effect April 1, the group has planned a drunk driving seminar and demonstration.

The March 16 event in Allen Park will include a dinner, slide and talk presentations on alcohol-related issues and enforcement, and a driving demonstration showing the effects of drinking.

Officers from 37 communities, including Plymouth, Canton, Livonia, Westland, Garden City and Redford, will be taking part in the event and later participating in a saturation patrol for drunk drivers.

The invitation list for the event includes such notables as President Ronald Reagan, Attorney General Frank Kelley, and Secretary of State Richard Austin. District court judges and other local leaders also will be receiving invitations.

Yet, underneath the pomp and frills of the event lies a definite dedication to curbing the drunk driving problem.

"Drunk drivers have become a national problem," says Plymouth officer Robert Henry, event coordinator.

"Even President Reagan calls it a major problem — he listed it as his third priority for 1983," says Henry.

Apparently the Michigan legislature realizes the importance of the problem. It passed the new drunk driving laws and approved passing some $96,000 in federal grant monies to the group.

The new laws provide several stiffer penalties for drunk driving, while making enforcement easier. The changes include:

- Establishing a per se law which makes it illegal for anyone with a blood alcohol concentration (BAC) of .10 percent or greater to operate a motor vehicle.

This change is expected to increase convictions because officers only will have to prove a driver had a .10 BAC instead of proving the driver was "under the influence" of alcohol.

- Allows for the use of preliminary roadside breath testing equipment (PBTs) by law enforcement officers.

This change is expected to increase the number of arrests for drunk driving. While the results of a PBT can't be used as evidence, they can be used for validating an arrest. Refusal to submit to a PBT will result in a civil infraction.

- Increases license suspension penalties for operating under the influence of alcohol (OUIL) convictions and creates such penalties for operating while impaired (OWI) convictions.

In some cases the suspensions have been made mandatory. Many of the suspension-period maximums have been raised.

- Allows for offenders with a previous OUIL conviction to be subject to second or subsequent offense penalties when charged with OWI.

Part of the $96,000 given to the traffic officers association will be used to buy each of the participating communities six PBTs.

"These units cost about $350 a piece. Because of the cost, many of the smaller departments would probably only buy one or two units," says Henry.

"Because of this grant money, we will be providing six of the portable breathalizers to each of the departments. They will go right in the police cars," he says.

The other part of the money will be used for putting on the March 16 seminar.

During the seminar, six subjects will be instructed to drink until they reach

Walking on water

Fishermen (above) appear to be walking on water, but the brilliant winter sun light is actually reflecting off frozen patterns on the surface of Newburgh Lake along Edward Hines Drive in Westland. Bundled up against the cold, fishermen like Jim Ruff (left) of Westland find themselves with plentiful catches of pan fish. The icy sport got a late start this year as unusually balmy winter days delayed area lakes from freezing over.

that federal provision waived if the person has had a clean record for several years prior and the person is not believed to represent a danger to public safety," he said.

Police said registering a handgun can be an important advantage for a gun owner in the event his or her weapon is stolen and later recovered.

According to police reports, handguns and other weapons are among the most popular targets for home burglars because they are such good investments.

"If we have a handgun registration record, we can return the stolen weapon to its owner. Without such a record, it is difficult to prove ownership and we probably couldn't return it," Craft said.

A GUN SHOP owner, Mousa Eadeh, owner of Eadeh's Gun Shop, 27518 Warren, Westland, said handgun sales "are lousy."

"In fact, all gun sales are down. People today are selling, not buying; it's the economy. We are in the same position as any other business; sales have just fallen off."

He said he has people coming into his shop every day trying to sell their guns.

"They just need the money. Many are out of work, maybe need to sell their guns to put food on the table," he added.

"Guns once were a good investment, but not today."

Eadeh, who said he has been in the gun business 40 years, more than eight of them in Westland, said he has found most people buy guns for hunting or target shooting.

TOPICAL ANESTHESIA
The principal objection patients have to local anesthesia is the sensation caused by the entry of the needle. If you have this fear, be open and frank with your dentist. Several techniques have been developed to eliminate this problem.
Most needles used in dental offices today are disposable. They come presterilized, are used only once, and are then disposed of. This means a smoother entry, since needles used more than once may roughen slightly on the edge and make penetration more irritating.
To protect the area being injected, dentists often use a topical anesthetic, frequently in the form of benzocaine or lidocaine in a cream base. The solution is painted on at the point of injection and causes numbness that may help eliminate the sensation associated with the injection.
A recent innovation is the forcing of a drop of anesthetic into the area to be injected via a charge of compressed gas. This rapidly numbs the area and the anesthesia can then be given with no sensation whatsoever.

The open system of stairways and a lighted, glass-enclosed elevator gives the impression of a multi-story shopping area, according to Bill Peterson, center manager.

Bold, neon lighting adds drama to the downstairs shopping area renamed the Emporium at Westland Center. Manager Bill Peterson wants to place chairs and tables in this area to give customers a place to relax and enjoy refreshments.

Center renovation aims at youth In the marketplace

By Sandra Armbruster
editor

"Some weekend days you can't find a place to sit downstairs," said Peterson.

"I estimate there are 10 tenants who have or are in the process of renovating directly related to what we did upstairs," said Peterson.

Most things start their growth cycles in the springtime, but by this spring, Westland Center expects to complete renovation of its downstairs shopping area.

LIKE OTHER businesses, Westland Center has felt the effects of Michigan's slow economy, according to Peterson.

The upstairs renovation amounted to about $900,000. Peterson said the two projects show the extent of the commitment of the Equitable Life Assurance Society to the center.

That's the projection from Bill Peterson, who was promoted to manager of the center when his predecessor left to take over another mall in California also operated by the Equitable Life Assurance Corporation. Westland Center is located at Wayne and Warren roads.

Peterson added that the Christmas season was good for the center. He said there were five or six days during which the parking lot, which holds 4,500 cars, was completely filled during the core hours of 1-5 p.m.

Also being renovated is the center's community room with new floors and lighting.

Since his promotion last fall, Peterson has been guiding the $400,000 renovation, adding three new tenants and 2,000 square feet to the center's basement.

"We're in an economy where we have to do the best job we can," he said. "Being an enclosed center, we have amenities we can build on. We want to use the positive aspects as much as we can and reinforce them."

Peterson said other plans call for again setting up an outdoor garden picnic area for customers and employees "to sit and relax without feeling cooped up." He said that the picnic area was set up last year too late to really promote.

But this isn't just any basement. It's been named the Emporium which is a large marketplace selling a variety of things.

For Peterson, that means remodeling the Emporium to "make it more contemporary without affecting the comfort level of the shoppers. We want to make it easier to shop."

"We want to be community oriented to gear our product to what the customer wants," Peterson said, adding that the target customers are women ages 19 to 54.

PETERSON SAID Westland Center's Emporium will have an appeal to youth-oriented shoppers. Already in place is the Simulation Station, billed as a family entertainment center with video arcade, other games and restaurant area.

"There were glaring weaknesses in the center, like high ceiling, bad lighting and amenities that interfered with traffic patterns," he said.

He said that the center tries to combine community events with merchandizing promotions, such as at the craft shows, fashion shows featuring a variety of shoppers and sidewalk sales.

"The Simulation Station will be for the Emporium what Penney's and Hudson's are for the upstairs," said Peterson.

Pink neon lighting strips along the ceiling now add a dramatic contrast to the muted grey tiles and walls in the Emporium. There are several ways to reach the shopping area. Besides the elevator, there is an escalator and two stairways.

PETERSON said he hopes the post office will return to the Emporium along with a banking operation. Indeed, during a brief tour of the Emporium, three people stopped Peterson to ask the location of the post office, which used to be in the basement. The post office now is located about a half-mile away on Wayne Road north of Ford.

Plans call for three new tenants including a t-shirt business and two fast-food restaurants, such as a delicatessen and Mexican or pizza-oriented shop.

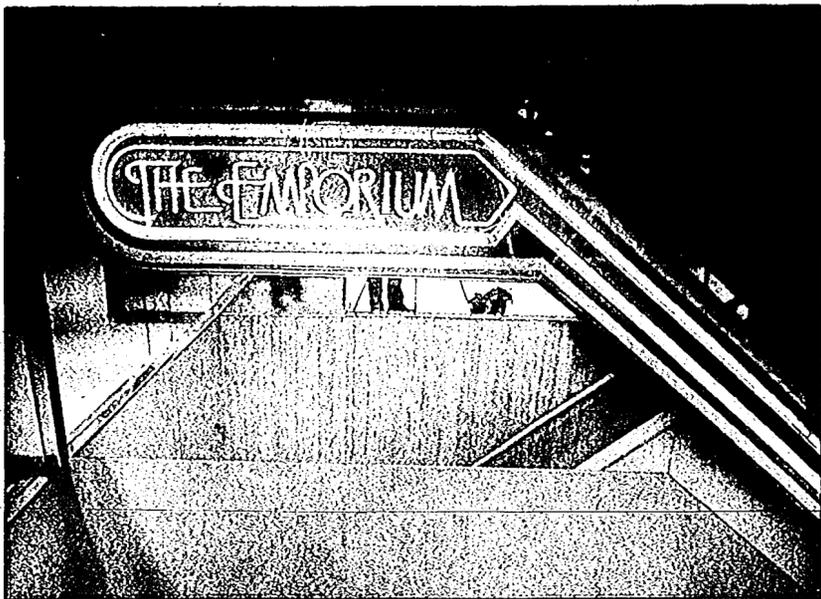

ONE STAIRWAY has a neon sign proclaiming the Emporium. The sign is reflected in a mirror in a corner cut out of the main floor. The sign can be seen as a shopper approaches from any direction.

But shoppers aren't the only ones who ask questions.

Those restaurants will join the pretzel shop, filling in the space hidden by a temporary wall across from the shopper-operated elevator. Peterson said he also hopes to install a grouping of tables and chairs around the elevator to serve 40 to 50 customers of the restaurants.

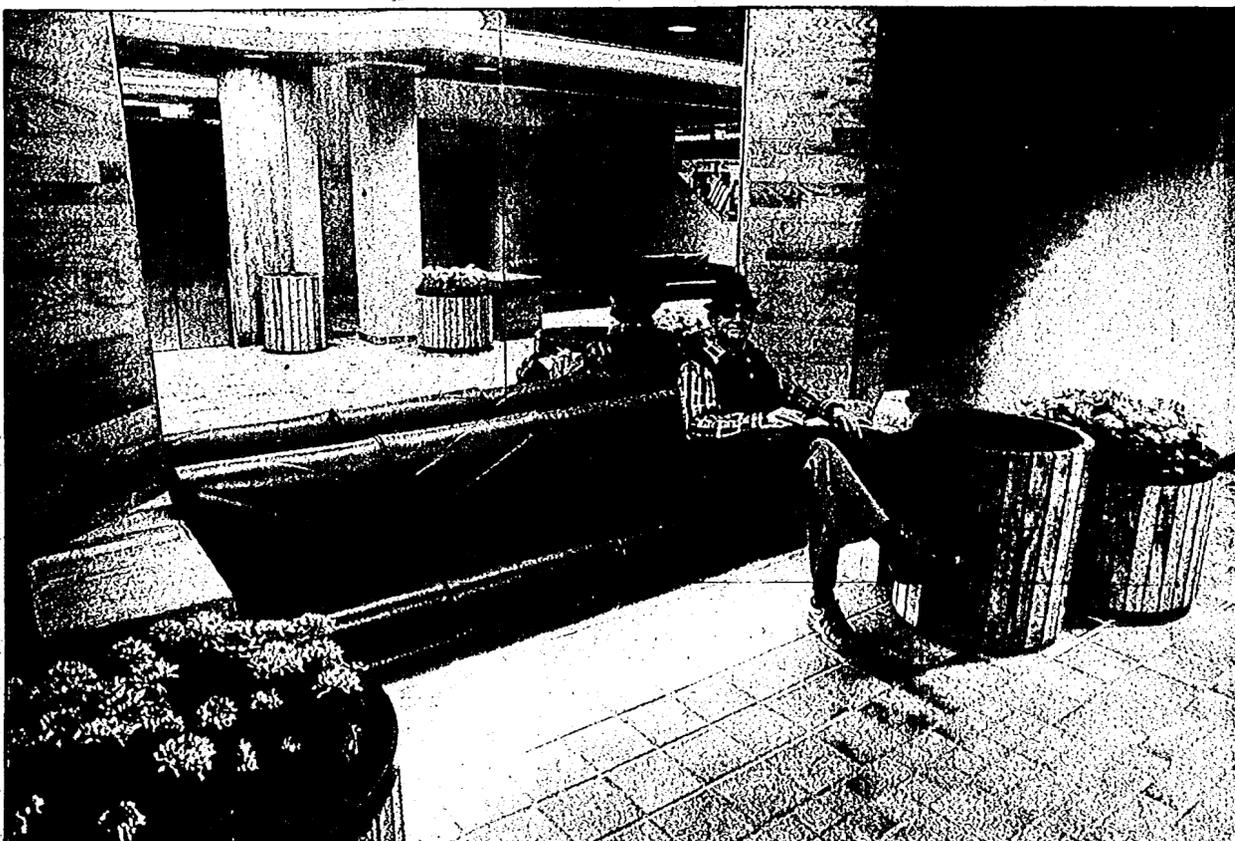

Renovation plans also are being made by tenants in the Emporium area. Many, like Hudson's, are opening up the entrances to their stores and allowing for better traffic flow through the stores.

"I'm forever stopping people to ask what they like and where they're from. I ask them what we can do," Peterson said. "Most say they like the changes."

The Emporium beckons shoppers to a stairway leading from the main floor to the downstairs. The new neon sign can be seen by shoppers approaching from any direction.

Roy A. Gaddey of Plymouth Township rests on the new seating in the Emporium at Westland Center. The temporary wall behind him will be removed to allow for two new restaurants, serving deli or ethnic foods.

Cable TV office tax break advances

Garden City council members took a first step toward approval of a property tax break for Maclean Hunter Cable Television Co.'s office-studio in the downtown section.

The council held required public hearings on the tax break and related change in the Downtown Development Authority plan.

The DDA plan change was routinely approved. State law prohibits council action on the related issue of a development district required for a property tax break at the same meeting. The council is expected to vote on that issue at its Feb. 7 business meeting.

The $500,000 studio-office and equipment will be housed in a 4,450-foot building on the south side of Pardo, east of Middlebelt and the recently-demolished former Garden City school board offices.

Any property tax break would actually go to Sheridan Construction Co. of Garden City which owns the property and the planned building and will lease it to Maclean Hunter for 15 years.

Work got under way on the building Jan. 14 with completion expected in three to four months.

The cable company now operates in a temporary office in the former Radcliff Junior High School. Cable services are expected to start next month.

Under the requested tax break, Sheridan Construction will get a reduction of up to 50 percent and a maximum of 12 years on the building.

The tax break is provided under a state law which encourages new jobs and property tax expansion through commercial developments.

Michele Foster a busy dancer

Michele Foster, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foster of Garden City, performed in the North American Promotions and Productions Inc. All Star Revue '83 Talent Showcase Jan. 30 at Center Stage in Canton.

Michele presented a song-and-dance routine.

She has won two state titles, Mini Miss Michigan 1982 and Michigan's Mini Miss Talent, 1982.

She recently did a fashion show for Easter seals and appeared on cable TV on a telethon for retarded Dearborn residents.

Michele studies at the Robert Lee Dance Studio in Garden City.

A 'right to know'?

TV debates have a familiar ring

ONE OF THE more interesting contributions to television in recent weeks has been the Channel 56 series of forum discussions dealing with the rights and responsibilities of the press in reporting business news and crime news.

The forums, held last year in a historic building next to Independence Hall in Philadelphia where the Constitution was framed, featured a variety of distinguished newspaper, television, business, government, judicial and legal representatives.

Bob Wisler

From what I could glean from the early shows, the only thing that all participants agreed on was that there is a first amendment to the Constitution which guarantees freedom of the press — insofar as Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press."

Beyond that, there seemed to be a variety of opinions as to whether there is indeed a press, or public's "right to know," and how the press, which includes the electronic media, should conduct itself.

THE PARTICIPANTS easily could have been local representatives of business, government, police departments, the judiciary and the legal profession as well as newspapers and television stations.

The disagreement over what constitutes news and what function the press has in reporting the activities of government and the criminal justice system is ongoing and seemingly endless.

One local official I talked to recently told me that when a certain reporter from a certain newspaper calls, he intends to be "out" and unavailable to return calls. As far as this official is concerned, the reporter does not understand government and has no right to ask questions about it.

Another local official complains that while one newspaper seems to treat the local government's activities fairly, another seems interested only in the negative.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS and people who deal with the press on a regular basis in many cases have reason to be apprehensive about dealing with the press.

Reporters have a variety of talents, abilities and interests. Some have more trouble than others in comprehending and relating the significance and details of a story. Reporters are more likely to relish a story involving wrongdoing, intrigue and scandal than a positive story dealing with the routine of good government.

But reporters generally do a competent job in reporting the news and there are many more stories dealing with the routine of efficient government than sensational stories focusing on the aberrations and mistakes.

The Founding Fathers who appropriately guaranteed freedom of the press in the Bill of Rights knew of the inadequacies and shortcomings of the press just as surely as our present-day leaders do.

YET, IT WASN'T incompetent or sensation-seeking newspapers that they feared most — it was government unchecked by a watchful and diligent press, even if that press included among its dedicated workers an assortment of scandal-seeking, inept and uncaring reporters and editors.

One of those who had much to do with the formation of the republic, Thomas Jefferson, put it this way: "If it were left to me to have a government without newspapers or newspapers without a government, I would not hesitate a moment to choose the latter."

Perhaps reporters should be treated warily. But as far as their right to ask questions and to get public information is concerned, there should be no question that the right exists. Over the long run in a free and open society, the public will be intelligent enough to know that the press does make errors and will take this into account in judging the news that is reported.

Blanchard is starting right at ground zero

"POOR JAMIE," said some politics watchers when James J. Blanchard was elected governor of Michigan.

They felt sorry for the guy. Woe is Michigan — 17 percent unemployment, businesses going belly-up, genuine suffering, the highest public college tuitions in the country, reduced public services. How can a governor look good under those circumstances?

More than once, no doubt, someone asked the first Democratic governor in 20 years if he weren't sorry Dick Headlee hadn't won, and whether he didn't think he had reached the end of the political trail at 40.

Tim Richard

Actually, just the opposite is true. The thought occurred to me as I drove home along our typical suburban street and looked at two-year-old "for sale" signs on a vacant colonial dwelling.

Blanchard can't do anything but look good as he starts from ground zero.

And he used his state-of-the-state address last week to start the process of looking good. Read it aloud and listen to the rhetoric.

"We must rescue the state of Michigan from bankruptcy."

"... a devastating spiral of decline that threatens both the health and welfare of our people and the solvency of our state."

"The sheer volume of those on relief is driving our state budget into an ever-deepening deficit."

"We must endure the nation's lowest credit rating."

"This once proud arsenal of democracy must go to the people of Germany for contributions of food to aid our hungry families and to the bankers of Japan to rescue our empty treasury."

"... solve the fiscal crisis that threatens us with bankruptcy."

"The threat of insolvency which hangs over this capital represents a clear and present danger to state government."

"... an inherited state budget with a deficit as high as $900 million — a staggering deficit. If I laid off every single state employee for the next seven months, we would be barely halfway to solving the problem."

"We face an accrued deficit of more than $800 million, created by bookkeeping deviations which date as far back as 1975."

"Our cash-flow problems threaten us with payless paydays."

"... added interest costs. ... missed investment opportunities."

THAT PICTURE is just as black as any photo shot in an unlighted room at 1/1,000th second at f/32 on ASA 10 film.

In part, the governor was building his case for raising the income tax rate. In larger part, he was writing history for 3½ years from now.

When that day comes, Blanchard will address his convention and say: "Consider where we were in those dim, dismal, depression years of 1983 — the threat of payless paydays, hunger, CARE packages from Germany, credit only from Japan, deteriorating colleges —

"But now, my friends, we have pulled ourselves up by our own bootstraps. Double-digit unemployment has become single-digit. Things are better. And they can be better yet if, after four more years."

And pandemonium will break loose. Signs with FDR's profile on one side and his own on the other will be waved. Blanchard will look good.

AH, BUT I'VE had enough fun with the governor's purple prose. Let us get serious at this point.

Anyone who thought we could have gone through last year without a state tax increase was dreaming. If there was any error in Lansing, it was letting the hike expire after a mere six months.

And anyone who thinks we can get out of the current mess without a tax increase isn't thinking very clearly.

By asking for 1.75 percent, Blanchard was putting something on the table — a proposal, a starting point, a "vehicle bill," as the lawmakers phrase it. There will be negotiating. The final figure will probably be less than 1.75 percent.

Blanchard was quite correct in proposing a major tax increase and quite correct in not placing a short-term time limit on it. Like it or not, those of us lucky enough still to be working are going to have to scrape another one-plus percent out of our paychecks to keep the ship of state afloat and retire our just debts.

Newspaper language is colorful

IT MAY COME as a bit of a surprise to learn that the folks who strive to use proper English and make your home town paper enjoyable have a language of their own inside the plant, and the origin of most of it is lost in antiquity.

For instance, what do the terms "bulldog" and "blue streak" edition mean to the average reader? And why do printers of the old school refer to pictures or "cuts" or why do writers signal the end of their stories with "30"? And what is a newspaper "morgue" and a "red ball"?

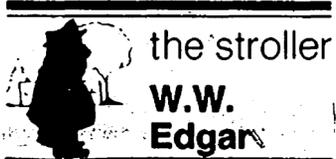

Well, The Stroller has done a bit of research, and he has learned some surprising things.

THE BULLDOG edition had its origin in New York City when the Tribune was fighting with its many rivals for circulation. With the tenacity of a bulldog, the Tribune sent out editions a bit early and beat all rivals to the suburbs. The earliest edition of a paper today is referred to as a "bulldog" edition.

When The Stroller came to work at the Detroit Free Press years ago, a paper called the Canadian Bulldog was a Sunday paper printed on Thursday — in time to have it sent to Canadian outlets to compete with the Canadian Sunday papers.

Years later, The Detroit News, in a circulation battle with the Free Press, issued a later afternoon edition to compete with the early Free Press editions. Because of the speed with which it was put out, it was referred to as the "Blue Streak" — from the expression "he ran like a blue streak."

In the old days, too, pictures that appeared in the papers were printed from zinc plates. These were cut out of the stroller

W.W. Edgar

larger pieces of zinc and naturally were referred to as "cuts."

IN EVERYDAY life, a morgue is a place to store or place dead bodies. So it is with a newspaper. The morgue is a place where old editions, pictures and clippings are kept for future reference.

And the ending of a story with "30" is a throwback to the days of the old Morse code telegraph operators. When they finished sending a story over the wire, they signed off with three dots and seven dashes — 30.

Meanwhile, The Stroller, in his research, was informed the term "red ball," which meant a story was to be rushed into type, came from the red fire out of a cannon. Newspaper delivery trucks used a red ball to symbolize their speed and urgency.

IN THE OLD-TIME composing rooms where the type was set, the word "take" acquired a strange meaning. Today when a story runs more than a sheet of paper, the second sheet is called an "add."

But Hank Witherspoon, boss of the Free Press composing room, discarded the word "add" and substituted "take."

When a story came to him that was rather long, he would cut it into sections and pass it out to several linotype operators, in order that it could be set in type more quickly. And the term "take" became a byword.

So, there are some of the odd terms and how they came about to make your paper more pleasant and entertaining to read.

discover Michigan

DID YOU KNOW that Michigan is the most multi-ethnic state in America and includes more than 100 different nationalities and racial groups? A new directory of all the state's nationalities and ethnic groups has just been published. It fills three volumes and lists more than 3,000 such organizations. This will help Michigan discover its "roots."

There are over ten million recreational boats in America.

This is the last time you'll ever see the thermal storage basin at the University of Michigan Hospital's replacement project.

When it's done, it will do its work — cutting electricity costs 25 percent — under ground.

U-M Hospitals storing electricity under ground

What's half the size of a football field, lives under ground, consumes two million gallons of water and saves millions of dollars?

If you guessed a fat, miserly gnome, you're off. It's the University of Michigan Hospitals' newly constructed thermal storage basin. It's the largest of its kind in a U.S. hospital, according to Gordon Holness, spokesman for the hospitals' architect, Albert Kahn Associates Inc. of Detroit.

The basin is similar to passive solar storage systems used by many homeowners. But instead of storing the sun's energy, the basin will house electrically produced heating and cooling energy.

PART OF the U-M's Replacement Hospital Project, the $1.4 million basin was built primarily to economize on air conditioning, and the savings are substantial.

Engineers predict that when the replacement hospital is completed, the basin will help cut electrical costs by almost 25 percent.

Every 10 hours of basin operation, they said, will supply cooling equivalent to 3,000 half-ton air conditioners.

Despite its immensity — 170 feet long, 72 feet wide and 25 feet deep — the basin is practically hidden from view. The only parts visible to a casual observer are a few vents and the eight manhole covers through which engineers may lower themselves to check basin operation.

UNDERGROUND, reinforced steel and concrete walls two feet thick retain the water, and eight identical chambers stratify the liquid.

Depending on the season, engineers will manipulate the temperature and the water flow direction to cool or heat the hospital.

Twenty-four probes mounted along the basin's side and immersed in the water, will monitor the temperature with the help of a microprocessor. Engineers will take mean Michigan temperatures over a period of several years, feed them into the computer, and get an estimate of how much cooling is required for the next day.

"Only a 10-degree variation in water temperature between the warm and cool sections is needed for the basin to operate effectively," said Andy Parker, senior engineer for U-M Hospitals. Temperature range is from 55 to 45 degrees Fahrenheit, he said.

"THE BASIN is essentially a holding tank," said Parker.

"Water at ground temperature in the basin is cooled 10 degrees by a chiller, and from there, the water travels to the hospital where it is used to cool the air entering a patient's room."

"In winter, the process is reversed, and the chillers are used as pumps, producing heat much like a heat pump in many homes."

The basin permits the electrically powered chillers to run at night when rates are down, in effect storing energy for use the next day. In addition to saving energy, this capability saves money.

Detroit Edison penalizes commercial users by imposing a 24 percent penalty for electricity used between 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., the peak demand period for commercial use of electricity in Ann Arbor.

Commercial demand for electricity plummets during the late evening and early morning hours, and rates are considerably less.

Solar seminar for homeowners is Thursday

While many Michigan consumers have found relief from high utility costs with a remedy spelled S-O-L-A-R, others are leery of making use of solar technology.

To take the mystery out of solar energy applications, Schoolcraft College will sponsor its first Solar Energy Roundtable at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Waterman Campus Center on the Livonia campus.

Homeowners will receive an update on the feasibility, performance and economics of solar energy options.

Representatives from Encon Corp. of Livonia, Star Pak Solar Systems of Novi, Energy Research of Novi and Energy Craft Homes of Drayton Plains will discuss solar electric, domestic hot water and solar hot air systems and solar home construction.

There will also be a slide presentation and display of the latest solar equipment.

For reservations for the free seminar, call Schoolcraft College at 591-8400, ext. 409.

Under charter mandate sheriff to patrol Hines Park

By Gary Cates
staff writer

While the Wayne County Sheriff tries to quell patrol controversies in Hines Park, one police official isn't satisfied with the plans.

Plymouth Police Chief Carl Berry said the sheriff's patrol will come too late. "My concern is that they're going to be down there after the problems start," Berry said.

Some 19 deputies will patrol Hines Park, from May 16 until Oct. 20, thanks to the new county charter (sec. 4.223), Sheriff Loren Pittman said.

Last year local police were forced to patrol the 17-mile park which runs through seven western Wayne County communities.

Angered local officials went to the county Board of Commissioners requesting the sheriff's department provide the patrol.

Citing a lack of funds and equipment, former Sheriff William Lucas refused to send his men into the park.

Pittman has a $316,000 budget for park patrol this year.

"We're now in the process of gearing up to go into the park," Pittman said.

However, Pittman's plan isn't enough for Berry.

"We're trying to figure out what's going to happen in the time before May 16," he said.

"As soon as warm weather hits, the problems start and that's when we want to put a stop to them."

"The problems are illegal parking, large gatherings of people drinking, shooting dope, or doing whatever comes to their minds that is illegal," he said.

Last summer Berry closed the Plymouth section of the park for one evening. The closing was prompted by large gatherings around the Haggerty field area.

"I don't want to react to the problems. I want to solve them before they start."

"We know what the solutions to the problems are. We will offer any assistance we can to the sheriff's department," Berry said. He wouldn't comment on the solutions.

Pittman is pleased with Berry's offer, but said his "budget says start May 16. Obviously I can't do much other than that."

"However, there are a couple outside chances of getting into the park before then," he said.

"If I sense problems starting in the park, I would not hesitate to ask the county executive to go in early."

The second option centers on using secondary road patrol officers in the park.

"Under state law, the secondary roads program allows those officers to go into the park for traffic enforcement. If problems start early, I can send secondary roads people down there."

After May 16, the secondary road officers will back-up officers assigned to park patrol. The park deputies will be former road patrol deputies now on layoff, he said.

Pittman also hopes to open the Hines Park mini-station at Newburgh Road and revive the mounted patrol.

The mini-station allows deputies more time for patrol since arrested violators can be taken there rather than downtown.

Wayne Road to be repaved

Cadillac Asphalt Paving Co., Novi, was the low bidder — at $836,310 — on a project to reconstruct 1.7 miles of Wayne Road from Cherry Hill to Warren Road in Westland.

The project is scheduled for completion in September, according to the Michigan Department of Transportation.

It's Tax Time

by Charles H. Williams, C.P.A.

CHOOSING AN ACCOUNTANT

Who'll prepare your tax return this year? It's time to start choosing a professional, and to undertake the planning that may help you shelter some of your income from taxes.

If your income is fairly straightforward and deductible expenses minimal, you might satisfactorily use a short-form return and do it yourself or with the help of a tax preparer. But with more income, and more deductions, as the return becomes more complicated, you're going to want a tax professional.

Why? Because it's worth the difference to put your tax return in the hands of someone with the knowledge to find every likely loophole, and the experience to know which are acceptable. And as you reach the higher brackets, you'll get the advice you need on sheltering some income from taxes.

Some free help is available from the IRS. Revenue employees will answer your questions (but the tax court has challenged some of their answers) and prepare the simplest returns. There are also independent and chain tax preparers who pop up at tax season. Their workers may not be experienced enough to catch all legal deductions.

A certified public accountant can handle most complex returns and are familiar with shelters and investing. His or her tax know-how can save you more than the fee.

How do you choose a professional? Recommendations from satisfied clientele are one way, as are referrals from lawyers. Once a relationship is entered, the client will find his accountant helpful in making financial decisions all year round.

THRIFTY TRIO

Classic chicken, piquant pineapple and remarkable rice are a combination to keep in mind when trying to plan meals on an already overextended budget...

Chicken, still one of the best buys at the meat counter, contains all the high quality protein of more expensive red meat. And what's more, chicken is lower in calories and in fat content.

Pineapple, a favorite fruit for salads, entrees, desserts and baking, comes in just the form you need: sliced, crushed, chunks or tidbits. Its tart/sweet accent is a delicious addition to any dish. And pineapple is always available. In fact, a can probably stands in waiting on your kitchen shelf right now.

Rice, it's likely you have this staple on hand as 79 percent of families do. At about four cents per half-cup serving, this great little grain is an unquestionably good buy. Rice has been used for centuries to make meals hearty, while effectively stretching expensive foods into more servings.

Use these three completely different foods often and see how their economy, flavor and nutrition can help you serve interesting and delicious family and party meals...within your budget limitations.

ITALIAN CHICKEN WITH COLORFUL RICE

(Photo)

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| 1/2 cup flour | 1-1/2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms |
| 1 teaspoon salt | 1/2 cup chicken broth |
| 1/4 teaspoon each basil, ground oregano, ground thyme and ground black pepper | 2 tablespoons dry white wine |
| 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in parts | 3 to 4 cups hot cooked rice |
| 3 tablespoons vegetable oil | 2 cups diced tomatoes, OR |
| 3 tablespoons butter or margarine | 12 cherry tomatoes, halved |
| | 1/2 cup chopped fresh spinach |

In plastic bag mix together flour, salt, basil, oregano, thyme and pepper. Add chicken one piece at a time, shaking to coat. In large frypan heat oil and butter. Add chicken and cook, turning, for about 20 minutes, or until brown on all sides. Add mushrooms and cook over medium heat for 3 minutes. Combine broth and wine; add to frypan. Cover, reduce heat and simmer 20 minutes or until fork can be inserted in chicken with ease. Remove chicken and keep warm. Pour off fat, leaving brown particles; return 1 tablespoon to skillet. Stir hot rice into mushrooms and drippings. Add tomatoes and spinach to rice mixture; carefully toss until warm throughout, about 3 minutes. Transfer rice to platter and arrange chicken on rice. Makes 4 to 6 servings. Be careful not to overcook vegetables, causing them to lose color and become watery.

UPSIDE-DOWN PINEAPPLE SPICE CAKE

(Photo)

- | | |
|---|------------------------------|
| 2 cans (8-1/4 ounces each) sliced pineapple | 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon |
| 1/4 cup butter or margarine | 1/4 teaspoon ground mace |
| 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar, divided | 3 large eggs, separated |
| 2 teaspoons light corn syrup | 1/4 cup granulated sugar |
| 8 walnut halves or large pieces | 1/4 cup syrup from pineapple |
| 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour | 1/2 cup finely grated carrot |
| 1 teaspoon baking powder | Maple Cream |
| 1/4 teaspoon salt | |

Turn pineapple into wire strainer and drain well, saving 1/4 cup syrup. Melt butter in upside-down cake pan or skillet (9-inches diameter, 2-inches deep). Combine 1/2 cup brown sugar and corn syrup with butter in bottom of pan. Arrange pineapple slices in mixture, placing walnut pieces in center of each slice. Set aside. Resift flour with baking powder, salt and spices. Beat egg whites in narrow, deep bowl to soft peaks. Gradually beat in granulated sugar, beating to a stiff meringue. With same beater, beat yolks with remaining 1/2 cup brown sugar until thick. Fold sifted dry ingredients into egg yolk mixture alternately with 1/4 cup reserved pineapple syrup. Turn carrots into wire strainer and press out any excess liquid with back of spoon. Stir into batter. Gently fold in meringue. Pour over fruit in pan. Bake below center of oven at 350° for 45 minutes or until cake tests done. Remove from oven and let cake stand in pan 5 minutes. Then, loosen edges with small spatula and invert onto flat serving plate. Serve warm with Maple Cream. Makes 8 servings.

Maple Cream: Beat 1 cup whipping cream with 1 tablespoon sugar and 1/16 teaspoon maple flavoring just until stiff. Makes 2 cups.

(Photo)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 large onion (slice; separate into rings) | 1 can (20 ounces) pineapple chunks (drain; reserve juice) |
| 1 tablespoon vegetable oil | 2 tablespoons cornstarch |
| 2 to 2-1/2 cups boned, cooked chicken pieces | 2 tablespoons soy sauce |
| 1 teaspoon seasoned salt | 1 large green pepper, cut in 3/4-inch squares |
| 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper | 3 to 4 cups hot cooked rice |
| 1 cup catsup | |

In a 10-inch skillet cook onion in oil until tender crisp. Add chicken, salt and black pepper. Blend catsup and pineapple juice with enough water to make 2-1/2 cups liquid. Pour over chicken. Simmer 5 minutes. Dissolve cornstarch in soy sauce; stir into chicken mixture. Add green pepper and pineapple chunks. Cook 5 minutes more. Serve over beds of fluffy rice. Makes 6 servings.

ZESTY CHICKEN, PINEAPPLE AND RICE SALAD

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 whole broiler-fryer chicken, cooked*, boned, skinned and cut in bite-size pieces | 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder |
| 3 cups hot cooked rice | 1/2 teaspoon powdered mustard |
| 3/4 cup vegetable oil | 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper |
| 1/4 cup wine vinegar | 1/2 cup stuffed green olives, sliced |
| 1 teaspoon sugar | 1 can (20 ounces) pineapple chunks, drained |
| 3/4 teaspoon salt | 1 small bunch watercress |
| | 1 red onion, (thinly slice; separate into rings) |

In large bowl, mix together chicken and hot rice. In medium bowl, mix together oil, vinegar, sugar, salt, garlic powder, mustard and pepper; stir well. Add sliced olives. Pour oil mixture over chicken and rice; chill 1 hour. Gently stir in pineapple chunks and chill for 1 hour. At serving time mound salad on bed of watercress. Garnish with onion rings. Makes 8 servings.

*To cook chicken, place chicken in deep saucepan with 2 cups of water; 1 small onion, quartered; 1 rib celery with leaves; 1 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Cover and simmer about 45 minutes or until fork can be inserted in chicken with ease. Separate meat from bones. Discard bones and skin.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 3 cups cooked rice | 1 can (20 ounces) crushed pineapple (drain; reserve juice) |
| 3 cups milk, divided | 1-1/2 teaspoons vanilla extract, divided |
| 1/3 cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar, divided | 1/2 cup flaked coconut |
| 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, divided | 1 tablespoon cornstarch |
| Salt | 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar |
| 3 eggs, separated | |

Combine rice, 2-1/2 cups milk, 1/3 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon butter and 1/2 teaspoon salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until thick and creamy, about 20 minutes. Beat egg yolks and remaining milk together; add to rice mixture and cook an additional minute. Remove from heat and add pineapple and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Cool. Beat egg whites and remaining sugar until peaks are stiff but not dry. Fold into cooled rice and turn into a buttered 9 x 13 x 2-inch baking dish. Sprinkle with coconut. Bake at 325° for 20 to 25 minutes. Meanwhile, combine reserved juice with cornstarch in a 1-quart saucepan. Stir to dissolve cornstarch. Add remaining butter, brown sugar and 1/8 teaspoon salt. Cook, stirring frequently, until clear and thickened. Add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Spoon over warm or chilled pudding. Makes 8 servings.

Winter barbecue

The true test of any recipe is in the tasting. But I'm getting ahead of myself.

Barbecue, in many parts of the country, is a seasonal affair. It doesn't have to be.

Frankly, I am not fond of the outdoor grill for several reasons, especially because the cook is left out in the cold when it comes to other activities.

In the kitchen, a simple two-step operation will produce tasty pork spareribs: simmer the meat in water to remove some fat and brown in the oven with your favorite barbecue sauce.

A zesty barbecue sauce can make or break ribs.

TWICE COOKED PORK SPARERIBS
5 pounds pork spareribs
Alabama barbecue sauce

ALABAMA BARBECUE SAUCE

- 2 tbsp cooking oil
- 1 onion, minced
- 1 large garlic clove, minced
- 1/4 cup catsup
- 1/4 cup cider vinegar
- 1/2 cup honey
- 1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tsp dry mustard
- 1 tsp ground ginger
- 1 tsp salt
- Juice of 1 lemon

Heat oil in medium saucepan over medium low heat, add onion and garlic and saute until onion is limp. Mix catsup, vinegar, honey and Worcestershire and add to pan, stir in remaining ingredients and cook 15 minutes, occasionally stirring.

(Readers are invited to send questions, suggestions or comments about food, cooking and shopping to Pilot Light, Greg Melikov, 650 NW 153rd St., Miami, Fla. 33189. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope for individual replies.)

If weight loss is goal then eat breakfast

Do you habitually skip breakfast in order to keep your weight down? If you do, you might be surprised to learn that those who skip breakfast in order to lose weight often consume as many — if not more — calories during the day as they tried to avoid by not eating breakfast.

Did you know that without breakfast, people may become less efficient in the late morning and that students may show a poorer attitude toward school work? Nutritionists recommend that breakfast should supply about one-quarter of your daily nutrient intake, and include foods from at least three of the Basic Four Food Groups.

Adults say they "know" breakfast is a healthy habit, but as many as 46 percent of Americans are habitual breakfast-skippers. They were "running late, out of milk, had to get to work early or would rather sleep." The excuses people have for not eating breakfast are almost endless.

Why not put creativity to better use by treating yourself to a nutritious and delicious breakfast every morning? For today's eat-on-the-run adults, nothing is easier — or faster — than ready-to-eat cereal with milk. It can be served with milk, juice, toast and tea or coffee to meet the requirements for a nutritious breakfast.

A plan for all seasons.

The Payroll Savings Plan is one of the easiest, safest ways to get started on the saving habit. Even if saving has always seemed too difficult in past seasons. A little is automatically taken out of each paycheck toward the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds. You'll never miss it, so you'll never spend it. It just keeps growing for some coming spring or maybe a warm vacation during a cold winter. It's a plan for all seasons. For all Americans.

When you put part of your savings into U.S. Savings Bonds you're helping to build a brighter future for our country and for yourself.

Tangled lines: say poor plan

Dear Mrs. Green:

I have been reading your column for sometime and decided to submit this letter for an analysis of my handwriting.

I am 24 years of age. I work full-time in public relations and attend night school at a university where I plan to graduate from this June.

Lately, I have found that my ability to discipline myself has become increasingly difficult. Consequently, I am particularly having problems at school, finishing assignments and courses.

Does my handwriting reflect lack of self-discipline? Your response to this letter would be greatly appreciated.

S.Y. Westland

Dear S.Y.,

With your ambitious schedule of a full-time job and university classes in night school, I can appreciate that you are probably experiencing some self-doubts. Can it be that you are attempting to accomplish too much too quickly?

The combination of several graphological signs in your handwriting strongly confirm some absence of self-discipline. And the point I want to emphasize here is that none of these signs taken alone can be interrupted as such. Let us examine these signs.

Some of your T crossings do not go through the stem, and some breaks occur between the first lower-case letter and the ensuing letter, suggesting procrastination.

Many lines of your handwriting tangle with the lines beneath, reflecting poor planning. That can further indicate that you may be involved in more

graphology

Lorene Green

Well, I have found that my ability to discipline myself has become increasingly difficult. Consequently, I am particularly having problems at school, finishing assignments and courses.

activities than you can comfortably handle at this particular time.

Yet another consideration is that several words end up in the air, not returning to the baseline. Indecision and some lack of confidence are suggested. Then the inadequate loops of your small letter f are another significant indicator of poor planning and lack of following through.

Without seeing handwriting samples from prior periods, I cannot ascertain if these are new characteristics or if they have been a part of your personality all along. I strongly suspect they are new.

I can see that when something is bothering you, such as this undoubtedly is, it is not easy for you to discuss it with anyone.

To your credit you do have the ability to rid yourself of the extraneous. You do not waste your time on matters that you consider unimportant.

The beginning of a new year is a great time to analyze your situation and perhaps make some changes. Possibly a reassessment of your goals and priorities is in order. Is that June Deadline putting too much pressure on you?

If you have a question about your handwriting write to Mrs. Lorene Collett Green, a certified graphologist in care of this newspaper. Please use a full sheet of white unlined paper, writing in the first person singular. Black ink reproduces best. Age and handedness are also helpful. Please sign your letter, although only initials are used in the column.

Fish dieter's friend

I am on a reducing diet that requires me to eat fish several times a week. I have never been a fish lover but am determined to stick to this diet. I have found fish to be quite expensive, and I don't really know how to prepare it. Can you recommend cookbooks or recipes that my entire family will enjoy?

Jane K. Troy

Take advantage of the expertise offered by your local fish market. Often they can introduce you to lesser-known varieties of fish at lower prices along with recipes and tips for easy preparation.

Fish can be easily adapted to please any palate. Generous use of herbs and spices will offer flavor variance from bland to highly seasoned without adding calories.

You are not alone with it comes to being a non-fish consumer. For every 100 pounds of meat eaten annually in this country it is estimated that only 12 pounds of fish is consumed. If these statistics were evened out a little, we would be a thinner and perhaps healthier nation.

Fish is a real boon to dieters. At approximately 100 calories per three-ounce serving, compared to about 350 for meat, most types of fish are great additions to low-calorie menu planning.

The following recipe is a good way to introduce fish — family-style:

OVEN-BAKED FISH OMELET:
1 cup cooked flaked fish (scrod, sole, halibut)
1 large cooked potato, diced.
4 eggs, beaten
1/4 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon dill (optional)
salt and pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients and pour into a 9-inch pie pan that has been sprayed with a non-stick vegetable coating or lightly buttered. Bake in 350-degree oven for about 45 minutes or until firm. Let cool 5 minutes before serving.

Add a tossed green salad for a good, nutritious low-calorie meal.

of it was creating designer fashions for herself and friends.

"I've always liked to work with my hands," said Czarnowski.

She took stained glass classes at Greenfield Village where she feels the best instruction in terms of quality is offered. The approach there is more toward professionalism rather than a hobby, she said.

She has gone to teach stained glass classes with the Livonia and Dearborn public schools' adult education departments.

A member of the Michigan Glass Guild, Czarnowski, 32, is also active through the auto club as a consultant to several area public school business programs. She has taught eighth graders to read stock reports and develop good business skills.

SHE ADDED TOUCHES of her own to the exhibition in the areas of old and new. A musician friend attended and provided background baroque music. But Czarnowski showed up wearing the latest fashion — trendy black leather pants topped with a sweater.

She also sold a number of pieces of stained glass at the opening. Normally, even the sold pieces remain in the show until it closes. But Czarnowski made an exception for one customer who bought a leaded glass jewelry box.

"He was leaving for Denmark and had bought it for his 10-year-old daughter," she said with a smile.

In summing up her efforts, Czarnowski said "Harmony in Glass" is her way of expressing "the harmonious mixture of my ideas, new ideas and treasured ideas of the past." Her goal is to try to recreate the quality of workmanship of the master himself, Louis Comfort Tiffany, in her own designs.

It won't be easy, but persistence is something Czarnowski is known to have plenty of.

Momastics classes begin

The Lamaze Childbirth Education Association of Livonia is offering a momastics class for all new mothers. Momastics is a six-week series of classes where new and experienced mothers can exchange information with each other and with the instructor in a support group situation.

Child health and care, nutrition, immunizations and illness are discussed by instructor Pat Hanis, R.N. Also taught and demonstrated are infant exercises and infant massage. A special emphasis is placed on child play and homemade toys as well as child growth and development.

Two series of classes are offered, one on Tuesday and one on Wednesday with a fee of $22 per series, or $40 for both. The fee includes the class and babysitting of the newborns and any older children in the family. For information on times and location for classes, call 464-1215.

THE USE OF HEAT IN TREATING ARTHRITIS-PART 2

In my last column I discussed the value of heat therapy in the treatment of arthritis. Today I will discuss what forms of heat can be used, advantages of heat over other treatments, and finally, the limits of heat therapy.

The two forms of heat are "WET HEAT," AND "dry heat." You are feeling the warmth of wet heat when you use a hot water bottle. Dry heat is what you get from a heating pad. For reasons unknown, wet heat penetrates further than dry and is generally the preferred form.

The greatest asset of heat is that it can be used at the convenience of the user and be applied repeatedly with no danger. All other therapies carry the risk of toxicity or the possibility of an allergic reaction.

The limits to the use of heat are twofold. One, if proper care isn't taken, burns from its application can occur. Second, there are numerous instances in which heat cannot be applied often enough or penetrate into the joint deep enough to fight inflammation. In such circumstances the use of medication is necessary.

Stained glass show solders a relationship

By Marie McGee
staff writer

MARY CZARNOWSKI titled the three-week stained glass exhibition sponsored by her employer, the Automobile Club of Michigan, as "Harmony in Glass" — blending the old with the new.

She couldn't have picked a better title — for a number of reasons. It took a lot of harmony on both their parts to stage the exhibition that shows 23 items designed and created by Czarnowski in the off-hours from her job as a programmer in the systems development department at AAA.

It is perhaps noteworthy that two years ago their working relationship was less harmonious.

BACK IN 1981, Czarnowski was in the forefront of a class-action suit filed by 4,000 area women who charged the auto club with discriminating against female employees. The suit was settled and the women received $3.75-million. Terms of the settlement called for the implementation of a 10-year hiring program using a new quota system for the number of jobs that will be open to women at various levels.

Czarnowski received about $8,000 as the result of the settlement. At the time of the suit, she was a travel counselor. After an upgrading of skills on her part, she has become a computer programmer.

At the same time, she also got more serious about the art of stained glass. It was also about this time that AAA initiated an arts program involving employees. Each year, the company staged a major art show; all employees were invited to participate.

It was at one of these shows that Czarnowski's works caught the eye of AAA's advertising-art-and-display coordinator Dwight Smith. An artist in the advertising department before his present assignment, Smith is credited with originating the idea of the employee involvement project and then selling it to his superiors.

"I just felt it would be great for employees to relax in a creative environment," said Smith. Subsequently, he was put in charge of arranging for the shows.

After one of the all-employee shows and seeing other things Czarnowski had made at her home, Smith said he knew "she was a cut above the ordinary stained glass artist."

"She does other things with stained glass — beyond that of kits and things," he said. "She expands the horizons of the art." He said he then invited her to exhibit in a one-woman show and she accepted.

The culmination of about nine months of planning came Jan. 20 when the exhibition opened with a public reception from 4-7 p.m. in the AAA employee lobby. The auto club arranged for pictures and the in-house printing of a detailed catalogue of Czarnowski's works and had invitations printed. Light refreshments were also provided at company expense.

Sometimes, Smith said, the exhibits are held in the Dearborn office building's main lobby. Czarnowski's show, he said, was confined to the employee lobby because "her work needed more space" than was available in the main lobby.

On display are hanging and table lamps, jewelry/memento boxes, free form designs and a pelican lamp she created for the Dearborn Pelican Club, who loaned the artistic work of art to her for its inclusion in the show.

THE LIVONIA resident, who has an 8-year-old son, said she took up staped glass after many years of sewing. A lot

Invitational stresses originality

By Marie McGee
staff writer

Originality will be the thrust of the second Livonia art purchase award invitational scheduled for May. Sponsor is the Livonia Cultural League in cooperation with the Livonia Arts Commission.

That means that the hundreds of artists who submit entries in the statewide search will be submitting works that have not been previously exhibited in any Michigan fine arts show.

"We learned our lesson from the first invitational," a committee member said. "This means we will be getting fresh work — not something that may have been shown over and over again. It will be original for our show."

To date, the league has sent out about 4,000 letters to artists locally and across the state, inviting them to submit an entry in the invitational that awards $1,000 to the best of show and $1,000 in additional purchase awards.

IN ART CIRCLES, the Livonia invitational is regarded as one of the more prestigious events in the state because of the size of the monetary awards.

Purchases by the cultural league are turned over to the arts commission and become part of the gallery of public art for which the invitational was established.

The excellence of material submitted at the first invitational two years ago resulted in two awards that now hang in the Livonia City Hall. One was by Madonna art instructor Nelson Smith and the other was by a Grand Rapids artist, Stephen Duren. That first invitational drew 390 entries that were eventually screened to 60.

Competition is open to all artists who are Michigan residents. They need not have a letter from the cultural league to be eligible. Entry forms are available at both Livonia libraries and the City Hall.

ENTRIES MAY BE in oil, acrylic, collage, watercolor, and drawing. Not acceptable are lithograph, woodcuts, silk-screen and other multiple print works. Applications must be accompanied by a $10 entry fee (artists are limited to two entries), and a 35mm color slide of the actual work to be entered. Deadline for entering is Feb. 22.

Jurors will screen entries on Feb. 28. Invited artists will be notified to deliver art works by April 15. All art works will be juried April 30.

The award winners will be announced at a "Meet the Artist" champagne reception Sunday, May 1, in the City Hall. Following the reception, all the art work will be on display until May 20.

The search for public art was initiated by the cultural league in 1980. Not all the purchases have come by way of invitational. Two — including one for 1982 — were selected by an art selection committee composed of cultural league members and art commissioners.

THE FIRST non-invitational award came in 1980 with the purchase of a watercolor by Tom Hale.

The second was a unanimous selection of the Livonia Arts Commission of a brilliant hued watercolor in tones of blue/green/purple by former Livonian Electra Stamelos, entitled "Flower Series 102" or "Mary, Queen of Scots."

Stamelos, who now lives in Hartland, Mich., is a charter member of the arts commission and served as its first chairperson. She is also remembered for spearheading community efforts to save the historic Wilson Barn at Middlebelt and W. Chicago from demolition.

She is listed in Who's Who in American Art, American Artist of Renown, The World Who's Who of Women and Marquis Who's Who of American Women.

Her works are in collections at: Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Ill.; National Watercolor Society, Los Angeles; Kresge Foundation, Troy; Jesse Bessard Museum, Alpena; Battle Creek Art Center, Battle Creek; Brown, Lund and Fitzgerald, Washington, D. C.; Denton Construction Co., Detroit; and the Livonia City Hall.

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Electra Stamelos has this to say about herself: "If art is remembered sensory experiences, I can only paint what I am." This symmetrically perfect watercolor is titled "Flower Series No. 102" and is also known as "Mary, Queen of Scots." In the background (left) is the Hale watercolor purchased in 1980; "Oregon Cafe" by Stephen Duren (center) and "She Saw Him Hesitate, So She Turned and Went Home," by Nelson Smith. The latter two were winners of the first Livonia Invitational in 1981, sponsored by the Livonia Cultural League.

Meryl Streep plays the title role of a Polish immigrant in "Sophie's Choice."

the movies
Louise Snider

'Sophie's Choice' shows brilliance of Meryl Streep

"Sophie's Choice" (R) calls to mind an observation by Sholem Asch: "Not the power to remember, but . . . the power to forget, is a necessary condition of our existence."

Meryl Streep, in a magnificent performance, is Sophie. The Catholic survivor of a Nazi concentration camp, she is a Polish immigrant in the United States (in 1947) engaged in a grand and passionate affair with a dashing Jewish scientist, Nathan Landau (Kevin Kline).

Based on William Syron's novel, the movie brings the characters to life with impressive strength. The excellent acting is complemented by costuming, lighting and photography used in ways that dramatically heighten the impact of events and emotions.

The direction by Alan J. Pakula succeeds in accomplishing a difficult task — holding together an involved tale that unfolds in layers of flashbacks and one that features characters with wildly different temperaments.

STINGO (PETER MAC NICOL), narrator of the story, is an aspiring, naive, young writer who comes to New York from the South to pursue a literary career. He moves into a rooming house in Brooklyn where Sophie and Nathan are tenants.

His first meeting with them is riveting. They are on the stairs engaged in an intense argument. He watches from his doorway as Sophie cries and pleads with Nathan who is vicious in his verbal abuse. Stingo is fascinated by the emotional fireworks and, at once, drawn to Sophie.

Such an introduction might scotch any ordinary overtures of friendship, but Nathan's outbursts are separated by stretches of dazzling charm. That, combined with Sophie's beauty and the couple's interest in Stingo, prove irresistible to the young author.

They take him under their wing and include him in their forays, whether dressing up as Southern gentry or romping at Coney Island. However, this jolie de vivre masks a tortured world of dark secrets. Each period of high spirits is checked by the ashes of memory.

The memories are Sophie's. Highly charged events from her past are uncovered as layer after layer is peeled away. Even so, we are stunned by the impact of the final revelation.

"SOPHIE'S CHOICE" IS NOT a perfect film. It is unduly long and needs to be trimmed by, at least, 15 minutes. The introduction of Nathan's brother is abrupt and melodramatic. Subplots are introduced and left hanging, such as Nathan's obsession with the Nazis and the part that plays in his relation with Sophie.

These shortcomings, however, are overshadowed by the power of the drama, the superbly integrated look of the movie and the bravura performances. MacNicol, as Stingo, beams with youthful ardor. Kline is dashing as the volatile Nathan. He plays the role with ferocious intensity.

And Streep, as Sophie, gives the most sensational performance by an actress this year and the most outstanding of her career. Her face becomes a mesmerizing force demanding our attention.

Her mastery of accents and language, Polish and German, her cadences of speech as an immigrant hesitating and searching for words, her provocative combination of shyness and sensuality (not unlike the young Ingrid Bergman), and her moving expressions of anguish and love, all endow "Sophie's Choice" with luminous eloquence.

what's at the movies

AIDA. Sophia Loren stars in 1954 film version of Verdi's opera "Aida." Sophia's dubbed singing voice is that of opera star Reneta Tebaldi.

BEST FRIENDS (PG). When marriage comes in the door, friendship goes out the window in this romantic comedy with Burt Reynolds and Goldie Hawn as a couple of screenwriters who work well together until they get married.

THE DARK CRYSTAL (PG). An adventure-fantasy by the creators of the Muppets features strange, elf-like creatures caught up in a struggle between the forces of good and evil in a setting that resembles J.R.R. Tolkien's Middle Earth.

EATING RAOUL (R). Deadpan dialogue and tacky surroundings set the tone for this bizarre comedy about a stuffy couple who come up with an outrageous plan for bankrolling a restaurant.

FITZCARRALDO. Klaus Kinski stars as wealthy rubber baron who builds an opera house in the Peruvian jungle. Directed by Werner Herzog.

48 HOURS (R). Action drama with comic flair features Nick Nolte and Eddie Murphy as a white cop and a black con who are forced to work together to track down two killers.

Johnson lifts Franklin '5' by Cougars

Mike Johnson, inserted as a point guard in the fourth quarter, responded to his new role by sinking nine straight free throws to lift Livonia Franklin to a 60-48 triumph Friday at Franklin.

Johnson, normally a shooting guard, pumped in 11 straight from the charity stripe during the game and finished with 31 points. His fourth-quarter accuracy enabled Franklin to hold off Garden City and win going away.

The victory left both teams at 3-3 in the Northwest Suburban League. Garden City fell to 9-4 overall, while Franklin's record rose to 5-7.

Bob Stebbins added 12 points to the Patriot cause. Tom Ferrell, notched 13 to top Garden City, with Paul Krol contributing 12 and Scott McCloskey eight.

REDFORD THURSTON 45
N. FARMINGTON 41

It wasn't easy, and it wasn't artistic, but Redford Thurston managed to hold off North Farmington and hold on to its lead in the NSL with its four-point win Friday at North.

The Eagles' league-leading record is 6-0, with an 11-1 overall mark. North fell to 1-5 in the NSL and 5-7 overall.

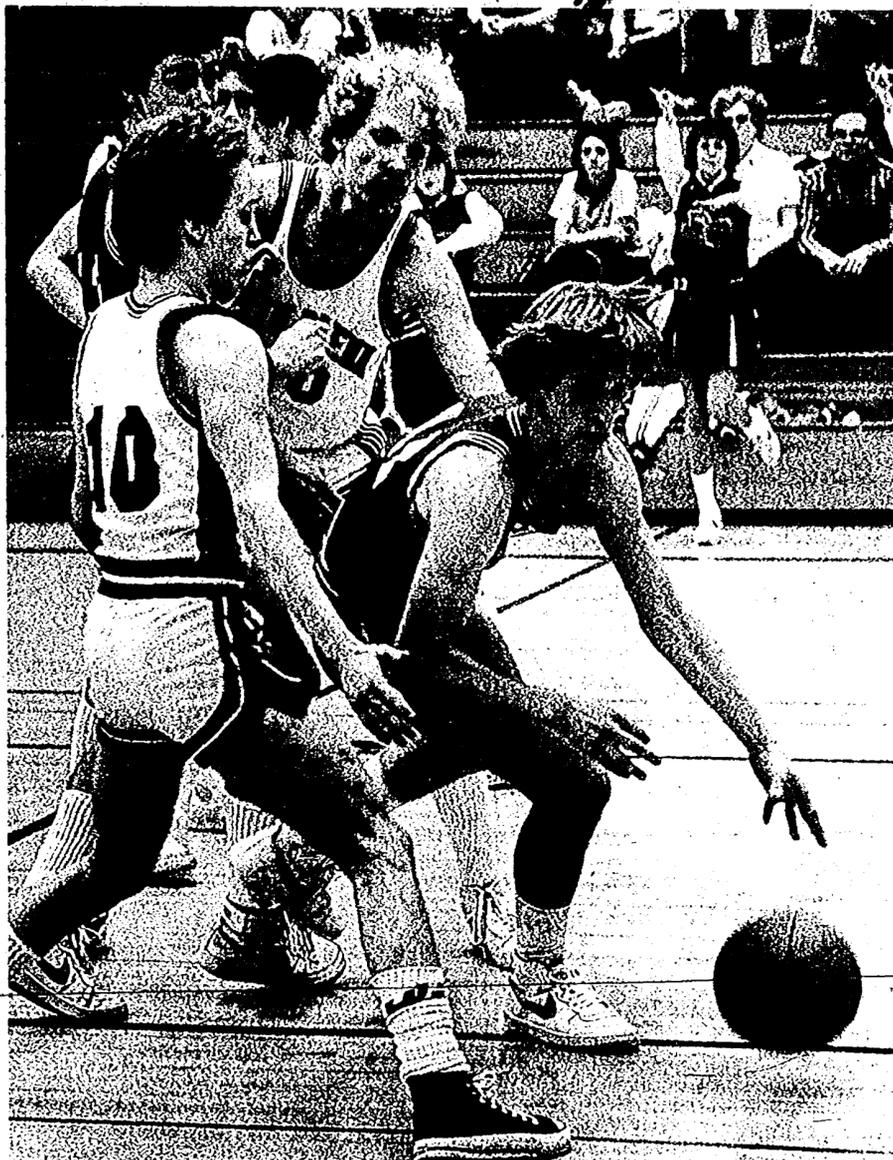

Georgé Sibel's 12 points topped the Eagles, with Steve Smith bagging 10 and Jim Weiss eight with 15 rebounds. Thurston had a 26-24 edge on the boards.

WLSL JOHN GLENN 62
REDFORD UNION 47

Westland John Glenn's continued its hot pursuit of Thurston for the NSL title by posting an easy victory over winless Redford Union Friday at John Glenn.

The Rockets are now 10-3 overall and 5-1 in the league, one game behind Thurston. RU is 0-12 overall and 0-6 in the NSL.

Paul Grazulis' 14 points was high for Glenn. Todd Jennings and Mike Bayerian added 10 each. Richard Williams popped in 11 for RU, with Keith Ruloff knocking in 10.

RU's Keith Ruloff (with ball) dribbles through John Glenn's Greg Gill (10) and Chuck Harvey in the second quarter of Friday's contest. The Panthers couldn't dodge the bullet for long, losing their 12th straight.

CC cooks Rice in laughter, 8-0

By Marty Budner
staff writer

hockey

Catholic Central's ice hockey team knew exactly how to silence a raucous Brother Rice crowd of more than 1,000 people Friday night at the Birmingham Ice Arena.

The Shamrocks skillfully skated to a 4-0 lead after the first period and the defense held Brother Rice in check to post a surprisingly one-sided 8-0 shut-out victory. Most of the Warrior fans, who came expecting to see a bitter battle between the two arch-rivals, left after the second period when CC owned a commanding five-goal lead.

The triumph vaulted CC past Rice and into second place in the Michigan Metro Hockey League's Western Division standings.

The Shamrocks are now 6-4-1 in the league (8-4-1 overall) for 13 points while Rice dropped to 5-3-2 in the league (9-3-2 overall) for 12 points. Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook leads the division with a 7-1 record and 14 points.

"We kept our fingers crossed tonight because we haven't been scoring goals lately," said CC coach John Gumbleton. "It was nice to see this many goals. This is our biggest (scoring) output against a reputable team."

"THIS VICTORY meant a lot because our basketball team lost to Rice a couple weeks ago. It meant a lot for our confidence and it meant a lot to our players to beat Rice."

"Now I think the players can believe in what they're doing," he said. "I enjoy games like this because they executed what we practice all the time."

The CC scoring barrage was paced by junior Joe Hamway who scored a goal in every period to register the three-goal hat trick. He opened the scoring at 1:43 of the first period by beating Rice goalie Pat Henneghan with an easy shot after a nice set up from the corner by teammate Steve Demattos.

Five different players — Dan Michaels, Dave Morse, Brian Peck, Tim Landino and Scott Summers — accounted for CC's remaining goals.

Catholic Central persistently fore-checked Rice in the first period which accounted for Hamway's first goal and Peck's tally. Morse and Summers scored on rebound shots as they were both left wide open in the slot areas.

CC played a defensive game in the second period as the Shamrocks seemed content to sit on their lead. Hamway did, however, provide what could be described as the backbreaker for Rice late in the period when he scored on a rebound with less than a minute to play.

"It was a total team effort for us — our plan was to fore-check and confuse them and that's what we did," said Gumbleton, who has been behind the CC bench for the past five seasons. "I thought (defenseman) Dan Whalen played a great game. He hardly made a mistake out there."

RICE HAD its best scoring opportunities in the opening period.

CC goalie John Bebes, who has a league-leading 1.14 goals-against average and leads the league with three shutouts, stopped Rice's Terry Munson from close range with an excellent glove save. He later thwarted winger Steve Bannasch.

The Warriors never really tested Bebes the remainder of the game.

"They simply outskated us, and, in my opinion the players wanted to please the fans more than listen to the coach," said Rice coach Eddie Giacomini. "We didn't put in any kind of effort at all."

"This kind of beating is good. Maybe it's the best thing that could happen to us going into the state tournament," he said. "The players have to realize you have to play as a team and not as individuals like they were tonight."

Catholic Central and Rice will play their next game Feb. 12 at the Redford Arena.

Stevenson cagers hold off late Churchill charge

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Livonia Churchill proved one thing despite a 45-43 basketball loss Friday night to crosstown rival Livonia Stevenson.

The unpredictable Chargers could make the Western Lakes playoffs more interesting once the tournament rolls around in late February.

Stevenson, the Lakes Division leader, and Plymouth Salem, currently in second place, figure to battle for the title.

But Churchill, the Western Division leaders, must now be considered a threat.

The Spartans, who went into the game favored by as many as nine points, needed two free throws in the final 12 seconds to subdue the stubborn Chargers.

Once again it was 6-foot-7 Tom Domako to the rescue. The junior forward had four points in the nail-biting final quarter and made the offensive play of the game when he fed teammate Bob Sluka for two easy points.

The basket, coming with 1:42 to play, gave Stevenson a 43-38 lead.

CHURCHILL made things interesting when Steve Juodawikis made a three-point play with 1:25 remaining, cutting the deficit to 43-41.

The Chargers then had a chance to tie when they gained possession of the ball with 33 seconds left, but guard Pete Rose pulled the defensive gem. He took the ball right out of Juodawikis' hands with 16 seconds to go and was immediately fouled.

He calmly stepped to the line and made one free throw to put the game out of reach.

Domako finished with 18 points and nine rebounds. Sluka, the 6-5 sophomore, added 14 points and 12 rebounds.

John Merner, Churchill's 6-7 center, battled all night long and tallied 18 points and grabbed 19 rebounds. Juodawikis added nine points.

"That's the most intense game I've ever seen John play," said Churchill coach Don Albertson. "He's a winner." STEVENSON appeared well on its way to an easy victory, jumping out to 31-19 halftime lead as Domako and Sluka combined for 24 points.

"Domako had four baskets in the second quarter and three baskets were because we didn't front him in our zone," said Albertson. "In the second half we let him get a couple more because we didn't box out. The guy we didn't box out in the first half was Sluka."

Churchill, however, patiently worked itself back into the game, outscoring the Spartans 12-4 in the third quarter as Craig Hunter and Merner combined for 10 points.

The Chargers tied it, 35-35, on Juodawikis' rebound basket with 5:56 remaining and the struggle was on.

"We didn't want to play their tempo, but I guess we did," said Stevenson coach George Van Wagoner. "You have to give them (Churchill) credit."

"When we went up by 12, I thought: 'Here we go.' But they stayed in their zone and they wouldn't come out, only if they were forced to do it when they were behind."

Aggie, Spartan spikers win

Redford St. Agatha kept its unbeaten streak intact Thursday with a 15-5, 17-15 volleyball victory over Allen Park Cabrini.

The Aggies are 9-0 overall and 8-0 in C-D Division A-West Bracket play.

Sue DeBeliso served 15 points and setter Paola Picano added eight to key the Agatha win.

Mona Clor, a 6-foot senior, triggered a late Agatha rally in the second game. Clor's aggressive net play enabled the Aggies to break away from a 13-13 deadlock.

LIVONIA STEVENSON also remained unbeaten Wednesday night with a hard-fought 15-17, 15-11, 15-13 victory over Walled Lake Central.

The Spartans are 7-0 in Western Lakes play and 8-0 overall.

Stevenson pulled out the match as reserve Liz Gargaro served three straight points to make it 13-13, and teammate Dhana Ponnors got the final pair to seal the victory.

"We expected Central to be good because they always play hard," said Stevenson coach Lee Cagle. "They served very well in the first game."

"There were some soft serves we couldn't handle. I think they had five aces."

Central jumped out to a 10-1 lead in the first game before Stevenson roared back for a 14-14 tie.

"We lost that first game, but the momentum swung back our way," Cagle continued. "We got the breaks at the right time, but we need to work harder on fundamentals — serving and serve reception."

"We got a strong effort from our bench. Nine people played. Our depth paid off."

REDFORD UNION came up with a big Northwest Suburban League win Thursday night.

The Panthers raised their league mark to 4-1 by defeating Garden City, 15-6, 15-10.

Julie Barden and Amy Livsey set the tone offensively for RU with their setting and hitting. Kim Warman and Kathy Storvis also contributed heavily to the win.

"The whole team played well," said RU coach Jim Gibbons, whose team is 8-6-1 overall. "We getting a little roll now."

Area Catholic schools keep pace

Redford St. Agatha took a necessary step in gaining a Catholic League C-D Division playoff berth Friday, securing a 70-52, home-court cage victory against Flint Holy Rosary.

The Aggies, now 3-3 in West Bracket play, need a second-place finish to obtain a post-season berth. Two other teams currently share the second spot with Agatha.

Agatha, 6-6 overall, broke open a tight duel by outscoring Flint 25-12 in the final quarter.

Junior guard Pat Haran paced the winners with 22 points. Joe White, a 6-foot-3 senior forward, added 18 points and 16 rebounds, and 6-6 center Joe Churches chipped in with 16 points and 13 boards.

Joe Hescott led Holy Rosary with 14 points.

ON TUESDAY, Agatha lost to Allen Park Cabrini, 80-78, in overtime.

The Monarchs overcame a 12-point deficit after three quarters by hitting a pair of three-point plays.

Cabrini's Jeff Malasev, who led the 26-14 fourth-quarter rally, finished the night with 25 points.

White and Haran scored 29 and 21, respectively, for the Aggies.

The Shamrocks maintained their Central Division lead with some torrid outside shooting Friday night at home.

Mike Maleske, a 6-6 senior, scored 28 points and grabbed 17 rebounds. Kevin Kral, who sparked a 21-10 CC surge in the second quarter with eight points, finished with 19. Senior Tom Malone, who had six during the assault, added 10 points.

Dave Grupenhoff's 18 were not enough for Gallagher, which slipped to 4-3 and 8-1. CC, meanwhile, is 10-1 and 6-1.

BISHOP BORGESS 71
HARPER WOODS ND 57

The Spartans (7-5 and 4-3) kept pace in the Central Division with the victory Friday at home.

Southfield jolts Spartans

Southfield scored two goals late in the third period to stun Livonia Stevenson in a Suburban Prep Hockey League (SPHL) game, 9-7.

The game was played Thursday at Livonia's Edgar Arena.

Southfield's Chris Fingers broke a 7-7 deadlock with a goal at 12:28. Stevenson appeared to have the game tied up again with 1:09 left, but E.J. Perrault's shot was knocked in with a high stick, thus disallowed.

Ken Chaput then put the game away with an empty-net goal with 10 seconds remaining. On the night, Chaput scored two goals and had four assists.

Stevenson, now 9-3 in SPHL play and 12-3 overall, jumped out to an early 3-0 lead. Scoring first-period goals for the Spartans were Erik Strom (from Perrault), Phil Lann (from Perrault and Erik Strom), and Dave Cox (from Brian Cox and Al Harmon).

Southfield, however, cut the advantage to 3-2 by the end of the period on goals by Karl Maddick and Chaput.

In the second period, Southfield's Jeff Pedwayden scored on a power play at 3:10 to make 3-3. Stevenson followed a minute later to take a 5-3 lead on goals by Brian Cox (unassisted) and Dave Cox (from Brian Cox and Pat Talvalacci).

THE BLUE JAYS came back to tie it up at 5-5 on goals by Matt Hatz and Maddick. Perrault then teamed up with Bill Jordan with 24 seconds left in the second period to make it 6-5.

At 44 seconds of the third period, Jim Mycinski tied it up again, but Mark Kubitkey came back for Stevenson less than two minutes later before Mycinski made it 7-7.

hockey

Southfield outshot Stevenson 40-24.

The improved Blue Jays are 7-7-1 overall and 7-4 in league play.

LIVONIA BENTLEY 3 LIVONIA CHURCHILL 2

Dave Moore scored all three goals as the Bulldogs evened their league record at 7-7-1 overall and 5-5 in SPHL play. The game was part of a double-header Wednesday at Edgar.

Moore, a senior center, scored in each period. He scored a short-handed goal at 4:17 of the first period (from Mark Hennessy), an unassisted goal at 3:49 of the second period followed by the game-winner at 12:31 of the third period on a power play from Scott Boos.

Churchill got a pair of second-period goals from Dave Martzloff (from Nick Talovich) and Rick Robitaille (from Paul Blanchard).

Bentley goalie Scott Clancy stopped 31 shots. His counterpart in the nets, Keith Walk, turned back 37.

LIVONIA FRANKLIN 5 SOUTHFIELD-LATHRUP 3

The Patriots won for the first time since early December as senior defenseman John Chimielewski continued his scoring ways with two goals and an assist.

The game was played Thursday at Southfield's Beech Woods Arena.

Franklin broke a 3-3 tie with a pair of goals in the final period. Ed Zajdel scored the game-winner with 11:19 to go followed by Glenn Bleim's insurance goal with 6:52 remaining.

Scott Williams also got into the scoring act with a goal and two assists.

Franklin netminder Mike Vasilco went all the way, stopping 28 Lathrup shots.

BLOOMFIELD ANDOVER 10 LIVONIA CHURCHILL 4

Andover made it nine straight in league play without a loss as Drexel Kleber scored three goals in a game played Thursday at the Detroit Skating Club.

Bill Blank and Jim Aronovitz each added two goals for the winners.

Paul Blanchard countered with two for Churchill, now 2-11-1 overall and 1-9-1 in league play. Kevin Gagnon and John Bartle rounded out the scoring for the Chargers.

LIVONIA BENTLEY 7 LIVONIA FRANKLIN 1

The Patriots got on the board first, but it was all Bentley for the remainder of the SPHL game played Friday at Edgar.

Paul Maderosian led the Bentley scoring parade with three goals. John LaDuke, Tom Anderson, Scott Boos and Brady added solo shots.

Ken Schmidt tallied three assists, all in the third period. Scott Smith and Moore chipped in with two each.

Rob Bleim had Franklin's lone goal, which came at 1:11 of the first period.

Bentley enjoyed a wide margin in shots, 52-22. Dave Benson was the winning goaltender.

Churchill can't stop Salem swim surge to the top

Plymouth Salem's swimmers streaked to their sixth win in seven dual meets and third straight in the Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) Thursday with a 79-48 dunking of Livonia Churchill at Salem.

Salem, winner of the WLAA Relays Dec. 18, is one of the favorites to capture the WLAA swim championship. The loss dropped Churchill to 4-4 overall.

Seven different swimmers finished first for the Rocks in individual events, and they swept the top two spots four times.

Churchill claimed two firsts: Drew Baird won the 50-yard freestyle (23.9), and brother Eric Baird triumphed in the 100 breaststroke (1:05.4). John Hutchinson gave the Chargers their only sweep by placing second in the 100 breast (1:06.9).

THE ROCKS swept the 200 individual medley, with Tim Harwood first (2:08.9) and Ashley Long second (2:13.3); the 100 butterfly, with Mark Roehrig (59.1) and Tim Harwood (59.2); the 500 free, with Greg Wolff (5:20.9) and Tony Atwell (5:46.5); and the 100 backstroke, with Mike Harwood (1:02.4) and Bill Matthews (1:05.9).

Other Salem swimmers to finish first were Erik Kleinsmith in the 200 free (1:54.8), Todd Riedel in the diving (200.65 points) and Scott Anderson in the 100 free (51.8).

Anderson, Long, Roehrig and Bob Bowling combined to take the 200 medley relay (1:50.6) and Kleinsmith, Tom Shaw, Roehrig and Tim Harwood teamed to capture the 400 free relay (3:33.25).

Taking seconds for Churchill were Brian Comstock in the 200 free (2:00.4), Vic Valente in the diving (161.9 points) and Drew Baird in the 100 free (53.3). Bowling had a second for the Rocks in the 50 free (24.6).

Drew and Eric Baird, John Hutchinson and Valente placed second in the 200 medley relay (1:50.9), and Valente, Vince Forment, Eric Hutchinson and Russ Bergendahl combined for a second in the 400 free relay (3:51.4).

Salem hosts Livonia Bentley Thursday at 7 p.m., while the Chargers entertain Northville Thursday at 7 p.m.

GARDEN CITY 65 REDFORD UNION 59

Garden City's 400-yard freestyle relay team of Cary Even, Chuck Baumgartner, Mike Matich and Bob Duke splashed to victory to break a tie and give the Cougars the win over Redford Union Thursday at RU.

The Garden City foursome captured first in the final event (3:55.1). The Cougars dominated the win column, taking eight of 11 firsts.

Duke and Baumgartner were both double-winners for Garden City. Duke's firsts came in the 200 (2:05.8) and 500 (6:00.5) freestyles, while Baumgartner won the 50 free (25.7) and 100 backstroke (1:11.1).

Other Garden City winners were Even in the 200 individual medley (2:32.2), Brian Rogers in the 100 butterfly (1:13.4) and Matich in the 100 free (56.4).

For the Panthers, Andy Trapp captured the diving (199.1 points) and Pete Martinuzzi triumphed in the 100 breaststroke (1:12.3).

Tell me about your high gas heating bills and I'll tell you how you can save up to 20%* with Ameri-Therm.

For years I've talked with people who are tired of wasting fuel and money. Gas rates keep going up, so they come to me for advice.

Every day, for homeowners like you, I correct the money-wasting problem of gas energy loss with Ameri-Therm® Vent Dampers.

The problem is very common: When a furnace, boiler or water heater shuts off, warm air is quickly lost up the chimney. Energy escapes, but you still end up paying for it.

People want to save as much as they can, so I tell them to keep heat inside with an Ameri-Therm Vent Damper.

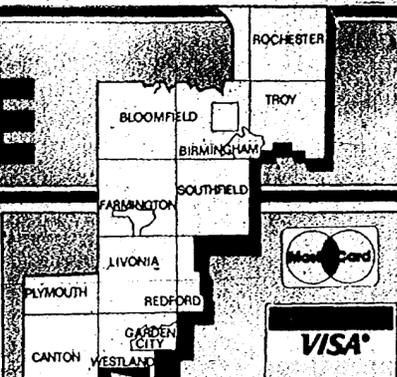

Ameri-Therm is the thermally actuated vent damper that's:

- Proven in millions of locations.
- Saves up to 20%* on fuel bills.
- Popular choice of American homeowners.
- Five year limited warranty.
- Thermally actuated to operate efficiently with no wires, electricity, or other power source.
- Eligible for 15% tax credit.
