Hearing airs dual tax collection

By Sandra Armbruster

A citizens committee studying the dual collection of taxes will make its report at a public hearing at 7 p.m. Monday in the auditorium of John Glenn High School, on Marquette west of Wayne Road.

Chairman Eric Gearns is expected to tell those who attend that, according to the committee report, "although many members of this committee were initially opposed to this idea, after much investigation, review and discussion, the majority of the committee now recommends the establishment of split

Youth held for break-in of house

By Mary Klemic staff writer

Two Westland youths face a Dec. 19 preliminary examination in connection with a break-in in the 34100 block of Decatur Court.

Danny Little and Paul Edward Mallard, both 17, were charged with breaking and entering of a dwelling. They stood mute at their arraignment before 18th District Judge Thomas Smith Friday, and a plea of innocent was entered for them. The two were being held on $2,500 bond as of Friday afternoon.

At 3 a.m. Friday, Westland Police Officers Richard Ringer, Steven Frazer and John Sydenstricker answered a call that suspects were removing items from the home and placing them

POLICE SAID that as Ringer approached, he saw someone leave the home and run across the street, jumping over one fence on the way. The officer ran after and caught the suspect, identified as Little.

Sydenstricker arrested Mallard walking along a fence line at a nearby home, according to police. The teen reportedly said he lived at a home in the same block and was going to a friend's Police followed footprints along a fence line to a brown, two-door Chevy on the same block.

IN THE CAR and along the passenger's side of the vehicle were found a 12-volt battery, two brown paper bags and two boxes of canned food, 29 cans of dog food, three cases of whiskey, 19 cartons of pop and a paper bag containing two sweaters, a pair of tennis shoes, two pairs of gray stockings, a camera and a flash attachment, police said. A razor, 12-volt battery, four bottles of whiskey and four bottles of pop were found outside the home.

A rear window of the home was found broken out. The home had been thoroughly searched, with drawers found open and their contents spilled out, according to police. It appeared that someone unsuccessfully tried to move a safe in an upstairs room.

The home apparently was used as storage, police said. Several cases of pop and foodstuffs were found inside. Neighbors told police they watched

staff writer 🤝

Whether or not the year 1983 will win rave reviews as a whole, Westland officials could applaud at least one area of its performance - new construction of single- and multi-family dwellings in the city.

Westland is experiencing an increase in the amount of that construction this year over 1982. And overall. the total amount of new construction. has risen, including industrial proj-

"It's nice to get the new development, and good to see those existing doing expansion," City Planner Dale Farland said. "We're developing in all directions in a sense.'

"Building is up," Building Director Bob Fritz saide "The interest rate came down. People started borrowing money. If it stays down, they're going to continue to borrow to have money to build."

FIGURES FROM the building department indicate that from January to November 1983 there were a total 968 new construction projects in Westland, compared to 909 in 12 months last year.

Of these projects, the number of residential alterations stands at 555 this year, four more than in 1982. The number of single-family dwellings almost tripled since last year, from 13 in 1982 to 38 this year. There were no multi-family dwelling units built last year, compared to 138 in 1983. The number of industrial projects totals three for 1983, one more than last

-There have been decreases in some areas since 1982. New commercial projects for 1983 total 10, less than last year's total 27. The number of fire repair projects this year is 11, half of the total in 1982, indicating more safety awareness, officials say. Alterations of multi-family dwellings are at five this year, down from 24 the previous year. Demolition projthan this year.

"It has definitely improved from last year, and we were seeing more building going on last year (from 1981)," Farland said.

"WE WERE getting more 'mom and pop' organizations last year, as opposed to giant corporations, people tired of waiting for the economy to turn around," Farland said. "This year, we're seeing the next step, a little bit larger development, people who simply decided to proceed and can't wait any longer.

"Some is from people who see3 & new type of land usage and get in when the market is available."

An example of this latter type of development is a new health care facility on Warren Road west of Yale, Farland says. The facility, Westland Urgent Care, will provide specialty services and will be staffed by doctors from the medical staff of Wayne County Generaf Hospital. It may be open 12 hours

CITY OFFICIALS are pleased with the propos I development of a mobile home park on 73 acres at Henry Ruff and Van Born roads. The project, estimated to cost $4 million, will build 448 lots featuring a pool, tennis court, shuffleboard and clubhouse.

Officials anticipate that the city will receive $500,000 in water and sewer tap fees and $50,000 per year in property taxes as a result of the project. They say that the construction will provide employment and that the impact from the 1,500 persons living in the park will create additional jobs in the area.

Businesses in Westland that are expanding or revising include Paddy's Pub on Wayne Road, which is undergoing a total revision, and Elias Brothers, which is taking over a former Sambo's Restaurant at Hunter and Wayne roads. A 340-square foot addition will be built on to the present restaurant structure.

In the meantime, Gerver said he has his staff reviewing a proposal that would establish Churchill as a magnet school for certain programs like mathematics and science. ACCORDING to Garver, the magnet school proposal would allow the district to congregate students with the same interests in advanced math and science subjects at Churchill, which has the space and design to accommodate the additional students.

The release of the CTBS scores follows the recent release of the Michigan Education Assessment Program testing results, which indicated Livonia students' continued improvement in their mastery of state objectives.

The MEAP tests, conducted in September, measured individual students' mastery of mathematics and reading objectives while the CTBS program provides a comparison between Livo- Livonia students in grades four, six, 10th and 12th graders between the 65th the country, Domalske sald.

Teachers' suit over seniority still unsettled

By Dan Vecchioni staff writer

Up to three dozen Livonia Public School teachers have been waiting eight years for the courts to decide whether the time they took off in the early '70s to have children can be counted toward their seniority.

: The still unsettled case exemplifies the slow-moving features of the U.S. justice system. But what makes it even more confounding is that it has survived as long as it has when the underlying Issue seems not to be money.

The teachers, represented by the Michigan Education Association (the state organization affiliated with the local teachers' union, the Livonia Education Association), are claiming in their lawsuit that the Livonia School District treated their pregnancy-related disabilities differently than other temporary disabilities.

In other school districts facing the same sult, the potential liability could involve money, such as in those cases where teachers on pregnancy-related disabilities were not paid while teachers on other temporary disabilities were during the period 1972 to 1975 covered by the suit.

However, beginning in 1972, Livonia teachers were paid while on pregnancy-related disabilities. The issue left to be settled, then, is whether the time they spent on pregnancy-related disabilities was treated differently by not being counted toward seniority.

"LIVONIA IS in a funny position," explained LEA Executive Director John Rennels. "We agreed to a seniority list with the district in 1975 to let all the teachers know where they stood in relation to everyone else."

This master list, Rennels added, has remained unchanged over the years despite attempts by individual teachers to have their seniority level - and ranking on the list — changed.

"It (the list) can only change by court. order," Rennels said. The district, be added, may feel that defending. changes, as it appears to be doing with the estimated 30 to 30 Liveria beachers disabilities, is "something they have to

Rennels said the changes could but were not likely to involve economic considerations. "Most of the teachers. affected are currently teaching," he, said. "But this deals with the future," since layoffs and job placement are decided by seniority."

Roland Montambeau, the district's assistant superintendent for personnel, agreed that "what's very important is; that we don't juggle the list. If the court says we have to, then fine."

Montambeau also indicated the outcome of the sult would have little effect on the district. "Could some teachers have lost some seniority? Yes," he said. "Would it make any practical difference? I don't think so. This whole, lawsuit's effect on Livonia schools is. little or none."

ONE REASON the suit has remained in court rather than been dealt. with in a more timely and, perhaps, less expensive manner is that the district's legal and liability costs are covered by an insurance company.

"We're not fighting it (the suit)," Montambeau said. "The insurance company is."

A second reason for the longstanding existence of the suit is the manner in which the MEA attempted to handle it. While Livonia and seven other school districts were originally identified as defendants, the MEA soon after the suit. was filed in 1975 petitioned to include. all districts in the state and 'totransform the case into a class-action lawsuit.

U.S. District Court, where the case was being heard, granted approval to the class-action certification. However, that action was appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals which reversed the lower court's decision last June.

Now questions remain as to how the suit should continue. Rennels feels the MEA will continue to represent the original eight school districts, including Livonia. Montambeau interprets the appeals court action to mean each individual teacher has to file her own suit.

Both, however, agree that the conditions that led to the suit eight years ago no longer exist in the Livonia district. For example, teachers now draw from their beak of sick days (1888 days) wer

St. Mary's plans year-long celebration

By W.W. Edgar staff writer

Elaborate plans, including monthly meetings throughout the next year, are just a sampling of activities slated to commemorate the silver anniversary of St. Mary Hospital Dec. 8, 1984.

The monthly gatherings will include an open house for special groups including local officials from Livonia, Redford Township, Garden City, Westland, Farmington, Plymouth, Plymouth Tonwship, Northville and Northville Township - the areas which the hospital was originally designed to serve.

The monthly meetings will begin with a mass celebrated by the Rev. Moses Anderson at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 11, in the Our Lady of Czestochowa Chapel. A dinner will follow.

The gatherings are one way of let-its doors Dec. 8, 1959.

Since it opened the hospital has undergone two expansions which increased bed capacity from the original 185 to the present 335. Another expansion is planned to mark the silver anniversary.

THE HOSPITAL complex was proposed more than 40 years ago when the Felician Sisters established themselves on the half-square mile of farm land at Five Mile and Levan roads.

The first approach was made in 1948 by medical groups in the area. In 1949. the newly organized Livonia Chamber of Commerce approached Sister Mary Januaria the head of the order, and promised full support of the newly incorporated city of Livonia in obtaining and residents of the area that the Feli-

In August 1955 the project was buoyed by the appointment of Sister Mary Columbine as hospital administrator and the late Sister Mary Calasantia as her assistant.

Upon assuming the administive duties, Sister Columbine assured doctors cian sisters had not abandoned the project. The administrative board rehewed its efforts to obtain a grant and valter a seris of meetings and correspondence the order was notified in April 1957 that $700,000 had been appropriated for hospital construction.

The 185-bed hospital opened Dec. 8, 1959. Members of the Felician Order from all parts of the workattended. The guest speaker was the late U.S. Sen. Phillip Hart.

Three years later the hospital was expaned to 212 beds and only a few years agoit was expanded again to 335.

From 1973 to 1983 other construction and renovation projects and addition of services have taken place. One of the major projects included the Our Lady of Czestochowa Chapel and auditorium in 1977. A satellite medical facility also has been was established in an existing building on Merriman and Six Mile roads in Livonia.

Meanwhile, Sister Columbine retired and in August 1982 Sister Mary Modesta was appointed president. Sister 'Mary Renneta was named executive vice president.

2 women lose purses to young thieves Two youths ran off with shoppers'

purses in two similar incidents Wednesday night. Police said a 25-year-old Westland woman was in front of the T. J. Maxx store, 6613 Wayne Road, at 8 p.m. when a teenager grabbed her purse and fled. He was described as a thin, black youth, 15 years old and 5 feet 7. He wore a tan, cloth jacket and blue Jeans. Police said the woman's tan zippered shoulder purse contained five cents, identification and miscellaneous pa-

THE SECOND incident took place 10 minutes later at the Westland Shopping Center. A Livonia woman, 39, was walking toward her car in Lot No. 1 when the suspect ran up from behind her, grabbed her purse and knocked her down, police said.

Police said the suspect was described as a who outh, 13 to 15 years old and 6 feet all. He was thin, had light brown hair and a fair complexion, and wore a beige jacket and a beige ski hat with dark brown trim. He fled north, into a wooded area west of Forest City.

The woman's purse was recovered later by a Detroit woman, who said her son found it in front of her home. Approximately $125, credit cards and a checkbook had been taken from the purse, according to police.

Recalls don't lower state taxes

TWO STATE senators who voted for an income tax increase have been recalled by voters In the last two weeks, and here are the results:

Our taxes haven't been reduced. Check your pay stub. The state personal income tax deducion is the same this week as it was last week.

Tens of thousands of tax dollars have been ipent on two special elections, Secretary of State office work and the courts. The money had to come from somewhere. Certainly it didn't come out of the welfare budget. Certainly It didn't come out of legislators' salaries. It probably came out of the higher education

The same senators who passed the 38 percent income tax increase (with only two exceptions) have passed a redistricting bill. The effects of tedistricting will be to gerrymander out of office two senators who voted against the tax inprease and to strengthen, at least on paper, the positions of most incumbent senators of both parties. In a nutshell, Democrats are likely to _ pick up one or two seats in the Senate and four to six in the House of Representatives.

Faust suggests a legislator facing recall resign, force a special election to fill his vacancy, then run for the vacancy. It's a variation on what the British and Canadian parliaments do when there's a major, divisive issue. The prime minister dissolves parliament and everyone faces re-election early.

Faust's ploy means that a senator would be able to run against an opponent rather than run against his single unpopular vote on taxes.

It's a fact of life that the recall people except for perennial loser John Lauve - are mostly political neophytes, raw rookies at politics. If they had read the newspapers in 1982 instead of staring at TV commercials, they would have known that Gov. James J. Blanchard and ex-Sen. Philip O. Mastin favored a tax increase and got elected anyway. They didn't betray anyone.

are bright fellows with 10 to 20 years of experience. They know the details of laws, governmental machinery and political rules. A professional gambler would bet on them rather than the recall people, and the gambler would probably collect.

THERE IS ONLY one way to beat taxes in Michigan. We have said it repeatedly, and we will keep it up until folks learn the lesson.

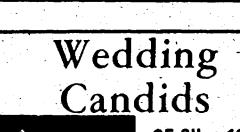

That way is to join the political party of your choice, become active, learn the ropes, support candidates who think the way you do, and perhaps become a candidate yourself - after you gain some experience, of course.

The forces which required a tax increase the recession, the welfare lobby, the education system - won't go away just because Phil Mastin and David Serotkin have been recalled. The process of raising revenue and managing budgets is a continuing one. It will take continuing work from dedicated people, and the only question is: Which people?-The 1984 and 1986 elections will answer that.

There are three fundamental lessons we all can learn from the two recent special elections:

- 1. Recalls haven't lowered taxes. 2. Recalls haven't lowered taxes.
- 3. Recalls haven't lowered taxes.

No action in state Capitol

By Tim Richard

The invocation was given by Sen. Connie Binsfeld (R-Maple City):

As we celebrate this holiday season, let our spirits rise. We pray that the bright lights of Christmas and the candles of Hanukkah will warm us with love, spread love among us, bring peace to this body and to the world — that these lights may give us vision to see beyond today and to do the best for the people of this state for tomorrow. Amen.

That's all that happened Wednesday in the Michigan State Senate, which convened at 10 a.m. and recessed at 19:01 after taking attendance.

In the House of Representatives, the business sessions have run a half-hour or so, covering relatively minor matters. Major issues such as mandatory auto seat belts and homosexual rights have been dodged.

In short, legislative action in Lassing has ground to a halt. Each party blames the

"We should adjourn for the year," said Sen. Richard Fessler, R-Union Lake. "There's nothing that couldn't be dealt with in January."

Senaté "action" consisted mainly of long caucuses by Democrats and Republicans.

TWO TOPICS are under discussion behind closed doors — the state tax rate and legislative reapportionment.

Democrats want to reduce, ahead of schedule, the 38 percent personal income tax increase which inflamed voters into recalling two state senators. Gov. James J. Blanchard is against a reduction because he believes the $25 million state surplus he anticipates is too small to justify a premature cut.

"If there is a significant surplus in the state treasury, we will have a plan to roll back," House Speaker Gary Owen, D-Ypsilanti, said in an interview. "We would do this, not to please the recallers, but to disprove the myths and assure the people they (treasury) are keeping only the money needed..."

The reapportionment discussion may be hotter than the tax talk.

REPUBLICANS were incensed when 19 Democratic senators approved (with the 18 Republican senators opposed) a plan that will cost at least two Republican senators and six or seven representatives their seats. The vote came the night ex-senator David Serotkin was recalled but before election results were certified.

Democrats insist the districts now vary as much as 16 percent from the statistical mean. They say their plan reduces the variance to 8 percent, The questions are when and if the House Democrats will use their 63-47 majority to push the plan through, and then whether Gov. James J. Blanchard will sign it.

Republicans at first talked of taking the reapportionment plan to the voters via referendum. They found they can't.

"The Democrats put a small amount of money in the bill for publishing," noted Sen. R. Robert Geake, R-Northville. "It therefore becomes an appropriation bill and can't be taken to the voters for a referendum, Check your Constitution."

(It's Art. 2, sec. 9: "The power of referendum does not extend to acts making appropriations for state lastitutions...")

WHAT CAUSED the breakdown in debate, the total distrust of one party for another?

"I trace it all the way back to Nov. 7," said Rep. William Kelth, D-Garden City, now in his sixth term. "Some 40 new members were elected to the House. Almost the first issue they faced was the tax increase.

"Many of them were inexperienced in government at any level. To them, the dirty word is 'compromise.' But compromise is essential to government.

"Not to be facetiously partisan, I really blame the Republican caucus," Keith went on. "Mike Busch (Republican leader from Saginaw) and Gary Owen worked desperately for a compromise. We had a brand new governor with a Democratic Senate and House and a desperate problem.

"NOBODY disagreed we needed revenue. The questions were, how much, how long and where would it go?

"But Busch told us their caucus fell apart. The members were inexperienced in the art of compromise."

Keith didn't let his fellow Democrats off the hook. "Democrats took the arrogant attitude that if they won't help, we'll just pass the thing." His count on inexperienced lawmakers was close. Of the 119 House members, 38 were freshmen; of the 38 senators, 16 were in their first term, although many had had previous service in the House.

Sen. Richard Fessler, R-West Bloomfield, in his first Senate term after eight years in the House, placed the blame on Democrats because "we had a list of things we were willing to negotiate with."

Republicans, he said, sought modifications of the single business tax, changes in workers compensation and changes in the property tax as their price for supporting an income tax increase.

"He (Blanchard) just didn't west to listen. There was a total lack of communication with the Republican cancus. They decided to run roughshod over us."

Feeler saw two problems "over there" on the Democratic side.

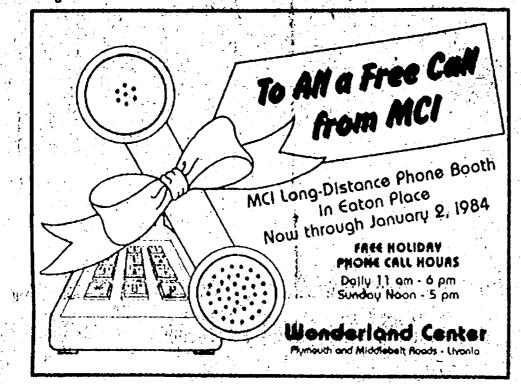

The liberal Democrats are afraid they were dealt a bad hand on (the 1962) reapportionment. And Democrats are afraid, because of the turmoil, the reapportionment will lead to recall," he said.

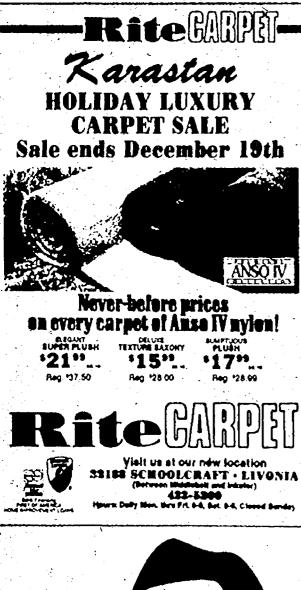

WHEN 1963 opened, Democrate held a 20-18 majority. That has now changed to an 18-17 Republican majority because of the recalls of two Democratic senators and the serious illness of Sen. Joe Mack, D-Iron-wood. Could this Republican majority reconsider the reapportionment bill and defeat it?

"We could send a respectful message to the House asking them to return SB 3 (the reapportionment bill) to the Senate," Fessler replied. "Normally, they would carry the bill back. In this case, I'm not so sure they would."

"We requested a meeting. We want to ask if he (Blanchard) is going to sign the reapportionment bill," said Fessier.

So far, no luck,

Holiday Gifts From Your Kitchen

What do your bachelor brother-in-law, your closest friend and your mailman have in common? More than you may think.

Check your Christmas list. Chances are, their names are scribbled somewhere on the list with question marks after them. But don't despair. Those folks (and plenty of others) have something else in common, too. They all love good things to cat, especially when they come from you.

Homemade gifts from the kitchen feed more than the taste buds. They carry a special nostalgic message of good will, wrapped in the warm and delicious feelings of a childhood Christmas.

A culinary treat that's made to satisfy a close friend's or relative's own personal taste can be the most personal of gifts. In fact, a food gift probably gives more joy per penny than any other kind of present.

A gift from the kitchen can nourish the giver as well as the recipient, as it offers up delicious aromas and memories of simpler times. In fact, some families spend a day together making cookies and other treats for their special friends, thus starting a new tradition—or recapturing an old one.

On a practical note, consider that a gift from the kitchen can be turned into a present that's as simple or fancy as you wish. Let your imagination be your guide.

For example, the fruit cake, perhaps the most traditional of all Christmas desserts, is a nostalgic favorite. This recipe, made with Amaretto liqueur, looks every ounce the classic beauty when baked in a bundt pan. A busy mother's practical alternative: make it into cupcakes for lots of small treats.

A cluster of Cinnamon Crisp Cookies on a decorated holiday plate also makes a simple and inexpensive gift. But a batch of Double Chocolate Mint Puffs in an old-fashioned cookie jar would delight a whole family. Likewise, Festive Tuna Paté may be presented in a simple stoneware crock or a hand-painted china gravy boat.

The mother who counts scout leaders, school teachers. music teachers, kids' coaches, babysitters, carpool partners, school secretaries, butchers, snow shovelers, paper boys and helpful neighbors among the important people in her life can remember them all with an array of simple gifts. from the kitchen.

Here are some good "gift" recipes made with readily available ingredients and created with nutrition in mind.

Caramel Wheat Popcorn Balls have peanuts and wheat cereal in addition to the standard popcorn fare. Bran cereal also adds fiber to good taste in the Cinnamon Crisps, Double Chocolate Mint Puffs and Frosty Cherry Cookies as well as the Easy Almond Fruit Cake and the traditionally popular Chex Party Mix.

The elegant Cucumber Tuna Mousse and Tuna Paté make exotic gifts, especially when given in an unusual dish or container. A suggestion: make the Cucumber Tuna Mousse in a pretty holiday mold, then include the mold as part of the gift.

Traditional ham brings warmth to holiday table

You know the family will be warm , through to a temperature of 130 dewith the feeling of contentment as they enjoy a holiday dinner featuring a tradltional baked ham. There's nothing like the aroma of a ham in the oven to arouse appetites in anticipation.

Fortunately for the holiday cook, there's a ham styled and sized to meet every family's needs. Especially appropriate for a family gathered around the Christmas, table is an impressive smoked half ham. You can take your pick of a rump (butt) or shank half. If you wish a smaller bone-in ham choose either a rump or shank portion. If your guests are many, select a whole ham.

When determining what size bone-in ham'to buy, allow $ to $14 servings per pound. Of course, you'll want to plan to have plenty for second servings and some left over for a variety of bonus meals that will be most welcomed during this busy time of year.

While preparing the holiday ham is simply a matter of roasting in a slow oven, special care should be taken not to overcook, for this could cause the ham to be dry and less tender. Total cooking time can be estimated; however, to determine exact doneness, roast meat thermometer should be used. Most hams on the market are fully cooked and need only to be heated grees to 140 degrees.

For a special holiday treat, pair the ham with Poached Pears. This deliclous accompaniment is easily made by cooking fresh pears to tenderness in a sweet-sour liquid that's warmly seasoned with cloves, cinnamon and alispice. The spicy cooking liquid is then used to glaze the ham during the last minutes of the cooking time.

BAKED HAM WITH POACHED 5 to 7-lb. smoked rump or shank half

Place ham, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Insert roast meat thermometer so bulb is centered in. thickest part. Be careful that bulb does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees) until the meat thermometer registers 130 degrees to 140 degrees for "fully-cooked" half ham (18 to 24 minutes per pound); 160 degrees for a "cook-before-eating" half ham (22 to 25 minutes per pound). Meanwhile pare and core pears, leaving stem intact. Combine water, sugar, lemon juice, vinegar, cloves, cinnamon and allspice in a large saucepan. Bring to a boll, reduce heat and add pears, placing on sides. Cover and cook slowly 10 minutes. Turn pears and continue cooking, covered, 10 minutes or until tender. Remove pears and keep warm. Strain cooking liquid; return to saucepan and boll to reduce until thickened, stirring constantly, Lightly brush pears with syrup. Brush warm syrup over ham 20 minutes before end of cooking

The flavorful ham and pear accompaniment can be supplemented with mashed sweet potatoes and asparagus spears dressed up holiday style with pi-miento strips. Christmas colors can be repeated in a shimmering red and green layered gelatin mold. Then end the meal with a holiday favorite plum pudding topped with creamy hard

Is it possible to survive this festive season without suffering = post-holiday "scale-shock?" DeAnne Hrabak, a registered dietitian with Stouffer Poods Corp., offers this advice to those concerned with controlling their weight.

Keeping up with your exercise rou-tine can help.

"A regular exercise program will burn calories more efficiently and remind you how good it feels to be in shape," she said. "But remember, to work off that extra slice of mincement pie, you will have to swim for over an hour or walk at a brisk pace for two hours. # Find gift at meat counter

One of the biggest challenges of the holiday season is finding the right gift for everyone on your list. This year, why not solve many of your shopping problems at the meat counter.

Meat gifts are becoming increasingly popular, according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board, for they are easy to shop for and there's no concern about color, fit, duplicates or exchanges. Plus with today's strained food budgets, you can be confident that meat gifts will be used and appreciat-

Vacuum-packaged subprimals are ideal for gift giving for the recipient can easily divide them into steaks, chops and roasts to meet personal needs. Excellent beef-in-a-bag choices include boneless beef tenderloin, top loin and rib eye. Vacuum-packaged boneless hams, available in a variety of sizes, also make nice gifts as do vacuum-packaged boneless pork top loin roasts and tenderloins.

Many retail meat cuts also are welcome gifts. Sure to be enjoyed is a regal beel rib roast or an impressive pork or lamb crown roast. Or give a gift box of prestigious beef steaks such as T-bone, Porterhouse, rib eye, strip or sirloin. Or select extra-thick porkloin, rib or butterfly chops or lamb loin or rip chops.

Canned hams are another popular holiday gift choice. Or consider giving a selection of sausages. A variety of salamis, summer sausages and smoked sausages will be especially appreciated for holiday entertaining.

When giving meat as gifts, be sure that all packages are properly wrapped and clearly marked that they should be placed immediately in the refrigerator or freezer. It is usually easiest to give retail meat cuts already frozen. Vacuum-packed subprimals should not be frozen, however, until they are divided into small cuts.

County is back to 5-day week

All Wayne County employees are back on a five-day work week.

County Executive William Lucas restored the full work week effective Dec. 1, when the new budget took effect. He had put most county employees on a four-day week in August.

"However, two budgetary items the hospital and the resident county hospitalization program - are still question marks," Lucas said, "If these items are not swiftly settled, it may be necessary to reinstate four-day work weeks."

A COUNTY Commission committee committee, which drafted the ordiheld a public hearing Wednesday on a nance keeping the hospital as a county new hospital ordinance. The earlier ordinance was vetoed by Lucas, who wants to sell the deficit-plagued Wayne County General Hospital in Westland.

Commissioner Kay Beard, D-Inkster, said, "I'm hopeful that this time around" there will be enough votes not only to approve the ordinance, but to override a possible veto."

institution and limiting the executive's power over it. Her district includes the hospital and many of its employees. Beard and the employees oppose selling the hospital, fearing it will cost them their jobs.

Lucas has issued layoff notices to approximately 1,000 hospital employees' effective Jan. 3 in the expectation he will have found a buyer by then.

The hospital deficit has been running about $15 million a year. The new budget contains no subsidy for it.

A need to talk

'No one seems to know much about what is happening with phantasy pain. The nearest anyone has come up with is that the severed nerve ends are somewhat like a casette that is unwinding,'

- Beverly Cornell

Amputee seeks others to help turn negatives into positives

By Loraine McClish staff writer

Beverly Cornell is looking for amputees in the hope of starting a self-help support group.

"I can't be the only one around with a lot of questions. I can't be the only one who needs someone to talk to," the Farmington Hills woman said.

"As supportive as my doctors and nurses have been, there are too many things that I wasn't prepared for simply because they hadn't gone through this themselves, and there are things I'm facing now every day that need talking out.'

Cornell is anxious to hear from any person who has has an amputation for any reason; whether through a disease or accident.

"Paraplegics have a group here but that is a whole other ball game. For those who were born without a limb is another situation that just doesn't apply. There is no club or group just for those like me who have to have someone to help get the negative thoughts turned into positive ones," she said.

CORNELL HAS been in and out of hospitals since she was 7 years old due to polyostic fibrous dyplasia, a degenerative bone disease.

She lost a leg last fall when, after 23 operations, it became clear that no more repair work could be done.

"I feel so much better now, My health is so much better. I'm doing so much more now than before the sur-

The 'doing so much more" includes serving on the boards of Michigan National Wheelchair Association and Woodbrook Hills Swim and Tennis

It includes swimming 60 lengths every day, playing the plano and playing bridge again. It includes reactivating her hobby of ceramics and an at-home business of creative needlework.

Cornell has always been active, in local social groups, caring for her 12year-old son, with hobbies, and especially as a swimming coach, a sport she perfected and pursued as therapy.

Almost constant pain prior to the surgery prevented her from accepting invitations to even play bridge because sitting for long periods of time was too much of a strain.

CORNELL'S PAIN was compounded in large measure because she is gregarious by nature and enjoys "talking about just about everything," she said. She credits being verbal with getting her through a great deal of her trauma without resorting to a psychiatrist for "My doctors have all told me, as well as my brother, (a psychologist) that just verbalizing all the good and all the bad was the best thing I could have done for myself," she said.

"No matter how bad it was when I put it into words it seemed to be easier to handle. This is what I want to tell other amputees. This is what I want a group for, so we can drain out all the negatives and start feeling normal Cornell's verbalizing is doing something else these days for amputees that she believes has never been done before concerning phantasy pain.

terial on phantasy pain," she said. "And because I've been able to verbalize pretty well it looks as though I'm going to be the one to supply it."

As Cornell experiences pain in her amputated leg, a leg that has caused her pain for 29 of her 36 years, she is recording those experiences on tape.

And so severe is that pain that she is taking medication for it. 1

"I'm reliving surgery I had 15 years ago," she said. "I have just recorded." reliving a cast-cutting that I can remember, but I couldn't tell you when it happened.

'No one seems to know much about what is happening with phantasy pain. The nearest anyone has come up with is that the severed nerve ends are some;

what like a casette that is unwinding." The tapes are being studied, as Corinell records them, by Dr. Herbert Mendelson and a team of orthopedic surgeons who work under him in Farming

A FIRST-TIME visitor with Cornella would be hard put to guess that the good looking woman with chic haircut? and warmup suit, vivacious conversa tion, and plans for her work with the state's wheelchair association, has ever suffered a sick day.

"This does not mean that I have never given into depression or had a lot of $\( \) doubts. I have," she said.

"I went through all of the denial and then the hate period that I'm told is. normal. Now I'm experiencing the stares when swimmers see me going? into the pool, or the feelings of those. who can't look and must look the other. way. All amputees have to get all of: this all talked out."

Another thing she is experhencing is having a difficult time trying to get sponsorships for an adult handicapped

"When I was on crutches as a child I was cute. People went out of their way to do me favors and tell me how adorable I was I guess I'm not outs any more We're on our own now and we need one another." she said.

Cornell will take calls from amputees who phone her at 553-8974. jr renew a custom that brought much pleasure in much younger years - participation in the marvelous music of Handel's "The Messiah."

I developed an early passion for that oratorio because the city university I attended presented it each Chirstmas, using famed sololsts as a huge chorus of both students and people in the community.

As a student, I always attended those concerts, sometimes both nights they were given. And after graduation I worked up the courage to buy a score and go to the community chorus rehearsals. Somewhat to my own surprise, I mastered the music well enough to sing in the production at Masonic Temple two Christmases.

IN THE YEARS since then, I've sung some choruses from the oratorio many times with assorted church choirs. I've heard the whole thing performed countless times, including once in Sarasota when we were vacationing before during July in London's Royal Albert

I've also worn out several recordings, joined in a few sing-alongs and watched our girls come to love the music as much as I do.

Blazers cash in for Class B crown

By Chris McCosky staff writer

Hail, Ladywood, champions at last. The Price was right for River Rouge but Char Govan, Emily Wagner and the Blazers brought home the state Class B girls' basketball championship Saturday night at the expense of All-Stater Franthea Price and her Panter teammates, 51-34.

"I waited eight long years for this sucker," said a jubilant Blazer coach, Ed Kavanaugh, as he held high the first state championship trophy ever won by a Ladywood contingent.

The contest, played at WMU's Read Fieldhouse, featured three outstanding individual performances. Unfortunately for the Panthers, two of the individuals played for Ladywood.

"Coach Kavanaugh said that he didn't think they boxed out real well on the boards. So I just said, 'Hey, man, I'm going to go after the boards as hard as I can," Govan said.

Many felt the state champion would be the survivor of the Manistee-Ladywood match. True enough.

Bentley's top scorer breaks leg

By Paul King special writer

Livonia Bentley lost more than a hockey game last week.

One of the team's top scorers, Dave Lentz, was lost for the season in Thursday's 7-5 defeat to unbeaten Southfield. The Bentley captain broke his leg after taking a hard check in the first period at Beech Woods Arena.

"He played hockey for 14 years and never got hurt," said a dejected Bentley coach Gord Anderson, whose team is 2-2-1 overall. "He's the kid that kind of put that top line together.

"He was off to such a good start and then he gets hurt his senior year. I've been sick all day thinking about It."

Two other Bentley players suffered injuries in the hard-check affair.

Southfield, which led 2-0 after one period, got three goals from forward Jim Muscynski and two from John Galuardi. John LaBurn, Paul Marderosian, Rick Sullivan, Mark Scott and Scott McDonald hd the Bentley goals.

"What can you say?" Anderson said. "I took the wind out of my sails, but give the kids credit. They came back. but it's tough to lose a kid of that caliber.".

On Wednesday, Bentley "put it together" in a 7-2 Suburban' Prep Hockey League (SPHL) game over pre-season favorite Wyandotte Roosevelt.

"My kids were ready to play," Anderson said. "I think they could have beaten anybody on that given night. All the pieces were put together."

Lentz had two goals and three assists, while Mark Hennessy scored twice and added two assists. Scott McDonald, Monty Horn and Marderosian rounded out the Bentley scoring. Marderosian also had four assists.

Kevin Sayed, the winning goaltender, turned back 19 shots.

"It wasn't pretty - either way." So sald Bob Dropp, Garden City basketball coach. No one ever nominated Dropp's Cougars for a beauty contest, but on the hardcourt they looked pretty good Friday in dropping North Farmington 59-54 in the Northwest Suburban League (NSL) opener for both schools at Garden City.

"There were a lot of calls made so that the game never got into a flow for either team. Dropp said. Still. things went well enough for the Cougars, who improved their record to 2-1 overall. North fell to 1-2 on the season.

Garden City beat the Raiders under the boards, and that proved to be the difference. The Cougars held a commanding 32-17 rebounding edge: The first quarter ended in a tie (13-all) but the second belonged to Garden City, which jumped to a seven-point halftime advantage after a 15-8 scoring streak.

The Cougars kept pulling away in the second half, with the lead bouncing between six and 12 points. After three quarters it was 45-34 and North never got closer than five the rest of the way.

Three players reached double figures for the Cougars: Scott McCloskey (16), Steve Klein (15) and Dave Haydon (10). Rick Anderson topped North with 13 points. Steve Barnbach chipped in with 10.

THURSTON 67, REDFORD UN-

ION 51: A 17-10 third-quarter surge spurred Redford Thurston to a homecourt victory in its NSL opener against Redford Union Friday.

The rally enabled the Eagles to expand their lead from four points at the half (25-21) to 11 after three quarters (42-31). RU's comeback attempts in the final quarter were squashed by Thurston junior guard Scott Filiplak; who canned eight straight free throws and scored 10. points in the period: --

Filiplak finished with 20 to lead the Eagles. Dan Starinsky and Lars Anderson gave Thurston a strong inside game, Starinsky scoring 14 points and nabbing 12 rebounds and Anderson getting seven points and 11 rebounds.

Raffi Kostegian added 12 points and Brian McGrath nine to the Thurston cause.

Mike Harte's 14 markers were high for RU. Dennis Bushart added

Thurston is now 3-0 for the scason. RU is 0-3.

JOHN GLENN 81, FRANKLIN 62: Westland John Glenn was just too big for Livonia Franklin to handle in Friday's NSL opener for both teams at Franklin. The Patriots jumped to the early lead, ahead by a half-dozen (24-18) after one quarter. But Glenn's superior inside strength began to take its toll after that, as the Rockets stormed back for a one-point advantage at the half (37-36). Glenn controlled the second half, outpointing Franklin 44-26.

Center Mario Grazulis topped Glenn's efforts with 24 points. Mike Bayderian added 16 and Todd Stein 12. Mike Wilkins canned 18 for Franklin, including 16 in the first half. Jeff McCaw had 16, Dave Carravallah 12 and Paul Kurek eight. The loss dropped Franklin to 1-2 overall. Glenn is unbeaten in three contests.

Ypsi mops up

By Brad Emons staff writer

Catholic Central hasn't been beaten in its own gym too many times.

And when was the last time, the Shamrocks took a 21-point drubbing?

It happened Friday night as Ypsilanti stormed in and came away with a 65-44 basketball triumph. It was evident from the start that the

Braves had one mission — stop CC. point guard John McIntyre Ypsi often triple-teamed the talented 6-foot-3 junior and controlled the boards well enough in the second half to win going away.

The Braves' quickness also gave CC "I can't remember ever losing like this," said CC coach Bernie Holowicki. They destroyed us, outrebounded us and out-quicked us. "It was every phase of the game.

They out-coached us, too." Leading 28-25 at halftime, Ypsi pulled away with a 14-4 spurt in a sloppy third quarter. GARY HIBBITT, who came off the bench to score six quick points at the end of the first half, hit two more jumpers in the third period to spearhead the outburst. In the fourth quarter, Anthony Knox netted seven quick points, including a three-point play to give the Braves a commanding lead, one they never re-

McIntyre led CC with 18 points, eight rebounds and four assists. Sophomore Paul Tavana added 10 points and eight rebounds. "We zone pressed (in the first half) because we didn't want him (McIntyre) to run wild," said Ypsi coach Dick Oueliette. "We didn't want him to take charge early. "In the second half we went man and to make him tired. We were quicker I thought and we kept putting our two point-guards on him." HOLOWICKI is starting one of his voungest teams, three juniors and two sophomores. And CC's tallest starters are McIntyre and Ron Wandzel at 6-3-

"They know we're young," said the CC coach. "We're young so we've got to be patient."

CC stayed close in the first quarter (12-12) as Wandzel had six points. The Shamrocks, in fact, led five different times in the second quarter, but Ypsi came storming back behind the shooting of Hibbitt.

"He's been a starter, but he (Hibbitt) seems be better off the bench," Ouellette said. "He's a hustler and can really get it going."

basketball victory on the road Friday

The Chargers stayed unbeaten as guard John Grzybek scored 16 points in a 46-44 win at Livonia Bentley.

Bentley, now 1-1, missed a chance to tie it when John White missed a 15-foot jumper at buzzer and Phil Graczyk's follow-up was too late.

Grzybek, a senior, made eight field goals, all from long range.

"He played just a super floor game," said Churchill coach Don Albertson, whose team is 3.0. "And I felt we did a nice job on the boards, particularly on the offensive boards. Our state show us outrebounding them 34-23."

Steve Juodawlkis added 10 points for the winners, including the game-winning basket. Craig Hunter contributed eight and Mike Hermanson and Mike Panganis scored six each. And although Bob Foust did not score, he dished out nine assists.

Mary Rons, a 6-4 senior, led Bentley with 14 points, while the 6-foot-8 Graczyk added 10 and six rebounds.

STEVENSON 79, W.L. WESTERN 52: The Spartans upped their record to 3.0 Friday night with the homecourt

Bloomfield AD uses computer to find coaches

By Marty Budner staff writer

In an effort to combat coaching problems within Wayne and Oakland countles, Bloomfield Hills schools athletic director Norm Quinn - along with some of his colleagues - has devised an unusual concept.

The plan is for prospective high school athletic coaches to submit the above coupon to Quinn. The coupon will then be placed into a master file to be used whenever an athletic director from a particular school district is in need of a certain coach.

For instance, if Troy Athletic Director Joe Francis needs a girls' swim coach at Troy High School, he'd call Quinn. Quinn would then check his master file for a coach who submitted a coupon with the necessary swimming qualifications.

Quinn would then relate the information to Francis, and the Troy athletic director would have an opportunity to further screen the coach.

The idea is to have a master list of coaching names readily available to all athletic directors in Wayne and Oakland counties.

The intent is to put their (prospective coaches) names in a computer and then we would send them a more detailed application," said Quinn. "It, would help all the schools in the two countles.

This gives us a list of potential coaches - sort of a reservoir from which to draw. We would always have a summary of people who had applied.

Quinn said it's a positive type of promotion intended to help all schools because of increasing staff problems.

There have been, in recent years, less teachers from whom to obtain coaching services," said Quinn.

Churchill swimmers shatter school marks

Two school records were set Thursday in Livonia Churchill's narrow 89-83 swim victory over Livonia Franklin. V

The outcome wasn't decided until the final race when Churchill's foursome of Don Coleman, Chris Morasky, Russ Bergendahl and Terry Millis won the 400-yard freestyle relay in 3:49.7, four seconds ahead of the Patriot quartet.

"We were leading only 81-77 after the breaststroke," Churchill coach Manse Tian said. "We had to win. It was a tough win for us because Franklin is a good team."

Morasky, a freshman, broke the 200 freestyle mark with a time of 1:54.7. He also captured the 100 freestyle (51.3).

The other record was broken by Churchill diver Vic Valente. The senior standout racked up 244.1

Roop defends kick title

Kerry Roop, a natural light heavyweight, may have found his class in the heavyweight division.

Roop won his fifth heavyweight bout without a loss, successfully defending his United States PKA championship Saturday with a fourth-round technical knockout over Gerald Curry in Dayton,

It was the seventh straight knockout for Roop, who ran his professional record to 26-8. Roop won the heavyweight belt Oct. 8 with a fourth-round TKO over former champ Joe Louis.

THE FOURTH round has been a successful one for Roop, who stopped Curry in their first meeting in the same round. All five of Roop's heavyweight bouts have ended before the fifth round.

The owner and instructor at Nature's Way Martial Arts Academy in Rochester dominated Satruday's fight from the outset as he had Curry in trouble at the end of the first round. The referee stepped in to check Curry just before the bell sounded.

In the second round, Roop knocked Curry down three times, but the fight continued because the three knockdown rule is waived in title fights. Curry was rocked to the canvas twice more in the third round and another time in the fourth when the fight was stopped. ..

"My left book and right hand hurt him," Roop said. "I thought I threw my punches well."

Roop was concerned prior to the fight about a cut he received while playing racquetball. He reopened the cut during a sparring session in preparation for the title defense, but the cut remained closed during the title fight.

ROOP, WHO has 17 knockouts to his credit, is planning to fight for the World Championship early in 1984 against either heavyweight champ Brad Hefton or super heavyweight champ Anthony Elmore.

"Heavyweight seems to be my division," Roop explained. "As a heavyweight, most (opponents) are taller, but they're not as fast as I am. I hit as hard as the heavyweights, and I can take their shots.

"It all adds up to be the best division

Roop owned the light heavyweight championship before he retired the crown to fight in heavier divisions.

THE UAW 600 program allows members who are currently on lay-off to take high school completion and adult basic education classes free of charge at the union hall. This opportunity enables the unemployed to develop new skills, thus improving their employability options in the future.

In Northville, classes have been added for the mentally impaired at Bryant. Junior High. Also added are credit and enrichment classes at the Northville Valve Plant. The Northville program, in general, offers many learning opportunities in both high school completion and enrichment areas.

Cherry Hill, North Dearborn Heights, and Westwood, open their facilities nightly so that adults in those areas can refine their business skills, learn computers, or take high school completion classes in facilities close to their

Garden City's commitment to adult education is not only extensive geographically, but the numbers have grown significantly in the past few The program serves almost 3,700 students who are enrolled in credit classes, and 3,385 adults who take leisure and enrchment activities at the centers.

The growth indicats that thousands. of adults are taking classes. But what it is like to return to school after many years away from academia?

In the series' next installment, the focus will be on senior citizens who are pursuing a lifelong dream of achieving a high school diploma.

Clint Eastwood is back again as Dirty Harry in "Sudden Impact," a film he also produced and directed.

'Sudden Impact' is criminally bad

Tom Panzenhagen is this week's guest critic.

One walks into "Sudden Impact," Clint Eastwood's fourth film as San Francisco police detective Dirty Harry Callahan, with a good deal of optimism.

The original "Dirty Harry" (1971), in the hands of director Don Siegel, defined the genre of revenge films so popular in the 1970s. The sequel, "Magnum Force" (1973), was a disappointment, but Harry rebounded with a vengeance in "The Enforcer" three years

Eastwood directed "Sudden Impact," and that, too, is cause for optimism. The angular actor, now 53, won fame in the spaghetti westerns of the late-1960s, but the best film of that genre, "High Plains Drifter" (1973), was directed by Eastwood himself.

So all the ingredients are at hand: proven talent on both sides of the camera, a time-tested formula and audience-approved subject matter. That's why it's terribly disappointing when "Sudden Impact" unfolds as a series of unrelated, anticlimactic brutalities.

"SUDDEN IMPACT" is in trouble almost from the outset. A stylish opening - in which Harry interrupts a robbery and, with Magnum aimed squarley at the head of one of the perpetrators, utters the movie season's best catch phrase, "Go ahead, make my day" - is the best thing in the film. But it's downhill from there.

The plot concerns a woman who takes revenge on the five men land their female accomplice) who raped her and her sister 10 years earlier. It's a sure sign of trouble when a "Dirty Harry" film stoops to provide motivation for a villain.

The woman, Jennifer Spencer, is played by Sondra Locke. There's no attempt to conceal her identity in order to add suspense sto the story. That's because screenwriter Joseph Stinson has something else in mind. He wants to establish parallels between Spencer and Harry Callahan.

Her attackers were never jailed - not because of inadequacies in the judicial system but in law enforcement, as it turns out - so, like Harry in the past, Spencer sets out to dispense her own brand

There are two things wrong with this. First, there are few plot devices more labored than having a character kill several other characters one-by-one. The audience knows the killings are coming and that they are justified - at least in the context of the film. So there's nothing to do but endure the brutality until Harry's investifillon catches up with what everyone else already knows.

The second problem is that Sondra Locke is not actress enough to pull off the parallel personalities twist.

When, for instance, early in the film, a judge cites a legal technicality and frees a dirtball, anguish shows in every bulging vein in Harry's face, the squint of his eyes, the resolute firmness of his

When Jennifer flashes back on her attack, when she listens to the whelps of a victim before executing him, Locke's glassen demeanor more resembles a high school student stupified by a cher's question than a vegeance-crazed killer.

SOMEONE APPARENTLY recognized the script's deficiencies, too, because the film falls back on prominent subplots (though applying the term "plot" to these events may be an overstate-

For different reasons, a cadre of mob hit men and three other punks are out to get Harry in the night. These subplots have no bearing on the main theme, but do provide ample opportunity for gunplay, with Harry inevitably getting in the final burst.

Even a sequence in which Harry pursues a bank robber through the streets of a small California town — in a commandeered bus loaded with senior citizens - is thrown in Certainly after three films Harry's character is well-defined, so what might pass for character development in another time and place is simply super-

"Dirty Harry" films at their best pulsate, menace, even amuse. "Sudden Impact" drags, fails to menace and its idea of humor is a urinating, flatulent bulldog. That's a shame, because "Sudden Impact" is sure to find an audience, and that may be the biggest miscarriage of justice of all.

didra Locke stars as Jennifer Spencer in Clint Eastded's newest movie.

At Vineyard's

The long-established Vineyard's Restaurant at 29110 Franklin Road, Southfield, is now the home of two new Vineyard's Restaurants - Constand's and the Franklin Grille. A new nightclub called Marlowe's has opened on the lower level of the Vineyard's. Roger Sherman has done the sophisticated decor for the restaurants, and Aleksis Lahti has designed the nightclub setting, with neon rainbows under the arches. Executive Chef Rick Stephen is emphasizing northern Italian culsine in Constand's and seafood and steaks cooked over a Mesquite grille in the Franklin Grille. Both restaurants are open for lunch and dinner. Marlowe's, which takes its name from the "Nick Marlowe" radio series, features music for listening and dancing. Current attraction is Orange Lake Drive. Hors d'oeuvres by Chef Stephen also are available weeknights and served without charge from 5-7 p.m.

Pasta dinners

Free pasta dinners for two will be awarded to five winners a night in a drawing held for five nights at Uptown Charley's in Madison Heights. lunch and dinner, is one of the Vineyard's Restaurants in Southfield.

Steve Meyers and his wife, Sue Steiner, are the chef and his assistant at the new Burroughs Farms Roadhouse Restaurant near Brighton.

Californians are spectacularly protective of, and loving toward, their wineries. Sometimes one of them is popularly adopted for a time as "the" winery. Usually, these wineries are small, their products hard to come by and, because Californians tend to have good palates, their wines superior.

Late last winter this began to happen with the Duxoup Wine Works, a small operation in the northern part of the Russian River in Sonoma County. And it has continued.

Today, any wine store in the northern part of the state that can get Duxoup (pronounced Duck soup) displays it prominently, and then is quickly sold out. The most dramatic example of this was recently seen at Draper and Esquith, the prestigious Europeanoriented wine store on Sutter in San Francisco.

There, in its feature display, next to the main desk on the first floor, surrounded by prime Bordeaux and Burgundies, was a large display of Duxoup. All other California wines in the store are shown only upstairs, in the back. D and E can never be called chauvinist. But there was Duxoup. Sales there, too, were brisk.

MANY OTHER stores report none on the shelves. The wine is in very limited availability, even at the Dry Creek Wine Store down the road from the winery and at Groezinger's as well as Ernie's in

So it is pleasant to report that Duxoup is now available to us. As in California, there is very little in the first allocation and is available only at the Red Wagon stores here, but it is in Michigan. And there'll be more next year.

Duxoup is the product of Bob and Debby Cutter, he the full-time cellar man, technical innovator and marketing agent, she a lab technician at Franciscan Vineyards in Napa and part-time Duxoup product engineer.

That's all there is, along with their slick gravity-flow winery in an isolated area on West Dry Creek Road.

They do it all themselves in a facility with under a $2,000 capital outlay and a lot of improvised, mechanically ingenious, homemade

(In this day of astronomical outlays for buildings, filters, crushers and pumps, as well as huge debts to banks at high interest rates, that is a phenomenal figure.) The lab work is done at Franciscan during Debby's lunch hours.

THE CUTTERS have an extra source of help, however, in the complex task of making this winery go. Their five cats patrol the area, stalking game large and small, real and imagined, and respond to Bob's call when be wants them assembled.

(The morning I was visiting, the traveling veterinarian was due, so I saw his signal work — almost. The veterinarian, by the way, is the wife of the winemaker at nearby Lyeth Vineyard and Winery, a story in itself. Schoma is a family community.)

'Initial releases were from the '81 vintage: A zinfandel, a syrah and a gamay. The first of these was a decent if unexceptional release and there was not enough of the syrah to permit much public response. With the gamay it exploded on the wine scene. Rich, complex and earthy, the wine became an overnight sensa-

However, that vintage is now sold out and it is the 1982 batch coming to us, the syrah and an equally fine gamay. There will be no more zinfandels and, sadly, Bob plans to drop the gamay and focus exclusively on syrah. He may want to rethink this decision.

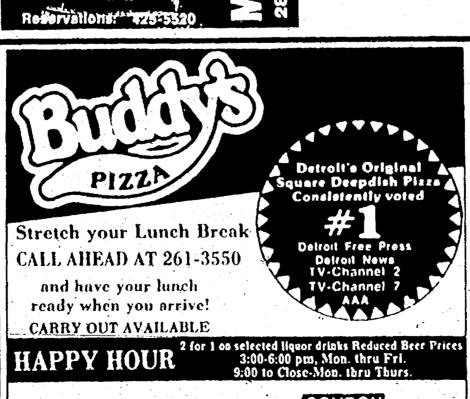

The gamay clone used by Duxoup is akin to the Napa gamay noir, not the one closer to the pinot noir. Hence, its depth and complexity. Similarly, the grape used in the syrah is closer to that of the true rhone grape, not the more common petite syrah.
