AROUND TOWN

Late hours

The Westland Assessing Department will be open until 7 p.m. Monday, March 2, and Friday, March 6, for residents who have questions about the assessment notice they received. The city has used a one-year sales study, as opposed to the standard two-year study, so assessments are more reflective of current market conditions. Tax assessment notices were mailed to Westland residents on Feb. 23.

"Our primary purpose in extending these hours is to more easily accommodate the schedules of our residents," said Westland Mayor William Wild.

The assessor's staff will be able to help residents with questions they have about Board of Review procedures should they want to appeal the assessor's decision. The Board of Review will hear appeals 9 a.m. to noon and 1:30-4:30 p.m. Monday, March 9, and Wednesday, March 11, and 1-4 p.m. and 5:30-8:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 10, and Thursday, March 12.

The Assessment Department also has a page on the city's Web site, www.cityofwestland.com, which provides information on property assessment and the Board of Review. Various assessing-related forms also are on the Web site and available for download.

The Assessor's Office is on the second level of Westland City Hall, 36601 Ford, west of Wayne Road. Regular hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Friday. For information, call (734) 467-3160.

Helping out

The hardest part of living in Michigan these days may be finding a job. With the state facing an unemployment rate above 10 percent, state Sen. Glenn Anderson, D-Westland, is looking to help workers and job seekers by bringing together state and local officials at a town hall meeting 6-8 p.m. Monday, March 9.

The "Town Hall on Job Strategies for Challenging Economic Times" will include representatives from local and state agencies, including the Michigan Department of Energy, Labor and Economic Growth, the Michigan Economic Development Agency, Michigan Works, Michigan Department of Human Services and the United Way for Southeastern Michigan.

There also will be an opportunity for people to meet individually with officials and agencies to talk about job search and retention strategies and other related work topics.

The town hall will be held at the Livonia Senior Center, 15218 Farmington Road, near the corner of Farmington and Five Mile. It's open to the public. For more information, call Anderson at (866) 262-7306 or e-mail him at SenatorAnderson@senate.mi.gov.

MDEQ gets plans for park's cleanup

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Amid hopes of cashing in on federal stimulus dollars, Wayne County officials Friday submitted to the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality a long-awaited plan for fixing a portion of lead-contaminated Central City Park and reopening it for public use.

The proposal contains more than 200 pages of fine-tuned details for addressing environmental problems and installing new soccer fields, pavilions and concession stands on the easternmost 12 acres of Westland's former recreation jewel. Officials hope that the work can begin this year and receive stimulus dollars aimed at creating jobs and improving communities.

"I think this is great news for the city of Westland," Mayor William Wild said Friday afternoon, "and because of the timing, I think it bodes well for us to get started this year."

Wild hailed the comprehensive proposal as the biggest milestone since he ordered the park fenced off when he became mayor in January 2007. He closed the park two months after other city and county officials divulged what they had known for years — that the former landfill still contained contaminants.

Assistant Wayne County Executive Alan Helmkamp issued a statement Friday confirming that MDEQ

Trial date set in fatal pedestrian accident

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A Livonia man accused of driving drunk and killing a pedestrian in Westland is facing an April 7 trial in Wayne County Circuit Court.

Wesley Thomas Sanborn, 22, could face penalties ranging up to 15 years in prison, if he is convicted of driving a Chevy Blazer and striking Gary Brown, a 27-year-old Livonia father of two young children, along a stretch of Joy Road east of Newburgh.

Brown, also described as drunk, was killed shortly before 5 a.m. last Aug. 3 near the Westland-Livonia line. One witness, newspaper delivery worker Jason Suarez, testified during a preliminary hearing in October that he saw Brown walking drunk in the middle of Joy Road before the accident occurred.

Sanborn's trial date in Judge Michael Callahan's courtroom was confirmed Thursday by Westland police Sgt. Ron Kroll, who is in charge of the traffic bureau that investigated the fatality. The defendant is charged with manslaughter with a motor vehicle, operating while intoxicated and causing a death, and failing to stop at the scene of an accident involving death.

Westland Police Officer Jack McIntosh earlier testified that Sanborn claimed he drank a couple of beers at a bar and three more at a friend's apartment during the hours prior to Brown's death. Sanborn also told police he was receiving a telephone call or text message when the accident happened and that he believed he had hit a mailbox.

Police stopped Sanborn's vehicle when he returned to the scene about 11:40 a.m. the same day, several hours after Brown was killed. Officer Jeffery Kropodra has said in court that the Chevy Blazer had a "spider web" crack in the windshield, a broken mirror and other damage.

Although Kropodra said he stopped Sanborn several hours after the accident, "I could smell a strong odor of intoxicants coming from his breath when he was talking to me," according to testimony during the preliminary hearing.

Defense attorney Stephen Boak has argued that there was no legal basis for Sanborn's arrest. Boak said authorities couldn't show that Sanborn was drunk when the accident occurred because of the time that had lapsed and what may have happened during the interim.

School aid bill axes extra funds for W-W

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Wayne-Westland school officials will be sitting down with local lawmakers Monday to talk about the devastating effect Gov. Jennifer Granholm's proposed state school aid plan budget will have on the district and what can be done to stop it.

While there has been a lot of talk about the $59 per pupil cut in the foundation allowance and cuts to categoricals, Wayne-Westland is facing an even bigger cut — the elimination of a more than $6 million supplemental foundation payment in lieu of millage. Coupled with a projected loss of 360 students next year, the district is facing a $15 million revenue shortfall.

"The regional economy can't afford this devastation," said Superintendent Greg Baracy. "This isn't pork barrel language, this is partial restoration of a wrong; it's $7 million of $12 million we should have received."

"This is just devastating," added state Sen. Glenn Anderson, D-Westland, whose district is being hit hard by the cuts. "I was stunned when I heard about this. I knew they were going after the categoricals and I saw the funding cut, but I didn't know they had zeroed in on special allocations."

Anderson's Senate district is being hit hard by the budget cuts. In addition to Wayne-Westland, the Garden City Public Schools will lose $800,000 in supplemental foundation money, while the Redford Union district will lose a district grant and Livonia Public Schools faces up to a 20 percent in its 20-J money. Those are in addition to cuts in funding and categoricals like adult education and Renaissance Zone reimbursement.

The supplemental foundation money relates to a 10-mill tax levy turned down by voters within months of the passage of Proposal A. The millage was disallowed in calculating the new foundation allowance which threw the district into deficit. It wasn't until 2000-01, that the district was able to convince lawmakers of the damage done by the elimination of the millage and it received a partial restoration — 7 of the 10 mills.

"It wasn't retroactive," said Baracy. "We had a $70-$80 million loss in funding and that's significant. No other district in the state was as negatively impacted as Wayne-Westland."

Anderson has already been talking with state officials and is working with the school district's consultant on a strategy to get the funding

Trio sent to prison for church break-in

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A resident's quick action and a rapid response from Westland police officers have led to prison time for three defendants who broke into a local church.

The incident, which happened around 3 a.m. last Nov. 21, has resulted in Westland brothers Aaron Ray Hanson, 22, and Justin Merlyn Hanson, 21, facing one to 10 years in prison along with co-defendant Jonathan Edward Morris, 20, of Canton.

Westland police Lt. Dan Karrick, who is in charge of the local detective bureau, responded to questions by describing himself as "absolutely" pleased that the three young men will do time.

"I'd like to see them get more time, but I'm happy that they got some time for breaking into the church," Karrick said.

The break-in happened at Our Savior's Church near Warren and Venoy, and Westland Officers Jason Brassfield, Robert Kenyon and Ronald Buckley caught the three suspects after an alert resident noticed suspicious activity and called for help.

Police caught one intruder near the church, another in a nearby apartment complex and a third who had gotten into an alleged getaway car near the scene.

The witness who called police "allowed us to get there quickly and catch these guys before they had a chance to steal anything," Karrick said at the time.

All three defendants received the prison sentences in mid-

February after they earlier pleaded guilty to breaking and entering charges. The young men already had been placed on probation for past break-ins, according to the Michigan Department of Corrections.

Karrick said the alert resident and three officers received police department honors during a recent awards ceremony for their collective role in catching the Hansons and Morris.

According to the state corrections department, Justin Hanson and Morris will not be eligible for release until at least May of 2010, while Aaron Hanson's earliest possible parole would come six months later in November.

Dog's tour guide

Certified dog behavior consultant Michael Burkey will present a free dog training seminar, "Become Your Dog's Tour Guide to the Human World," 7:30-8:30 p.m. Monday March 2, at the Westland Veterinary Hospital, 7610 Wayne Road, Westland.

It's a free people seminar in which dog owners will learn why the "wolf model" for dog training is out of date and shouldn't be used, how dogs learn best, science-based positive reinforcement and clicker training basics, to identify stress behaviors commonly displayed before a dog bites, which dog training equipment is effective and humane to use, and how to improve their relationship with their dog.

For more information, call Michael Burkey's Canine Behavioral Services at (734) 634-4152, send an e-mail to info@MichiganDogTrainer.com or visit his Web site at www.MichiganDogTrainer.com.

Nursery Olympics

Westland Parks and Recreation will present its Nursery School Olympics 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, March 7, at the Bailey Recreational Center, behind City Hall on Ford west of Wayne Road.

Bring your toddlers ages 18 months to 5 years and cheer them on to victory as they compete in games especially designed for them. Each child will receive a certificate of participation.

Cost is $4 per child/athlete, free for parents/spectators. Preregistration at (734) 722-7620 is encouraged but not required.

The event is presented by the Westland Parks and Recreation Department along with the Westland Civitans, Westland Junior Civitans, Dad's Athletic Club of Westland and Westland Jaycees.

Surplus food

The City of Westland will be distributing surplus federal food for the month of March to residents north of Michigan Avenue 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Thursday, March 19, at the Dorsey Community Center, 32715 Dorsey, between Palmer and Glenwood.

The pickup time and location for Westland residents south of Michigan Avenue is 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday, March 9, or the second Monday of each month, at St. James United Methodist Church, 30055 Annapolis, between Henry Ruff and Middlebelt. Call (734) 729-1737.

Senior citizens living in Taylor Towers can collect their food at building and must contact the building manager for their day of distribution. Greenwood Villa residents must pick up their food items at their building.

For March, the distribution will include tuna, noodles, sliced potatoes, peas, grape juice, pork patties, peaches, and possible additional items. This program is administered by the Wayne County Office of Senior Services. For more information, call the Dorsey Center surplus food hotline at (734) 595-0366.

Pancake breakfast

Tune your palate up for pancakes on Sunday, March 1, at the Wayne Masonic Lodge. The Rainbow Girls will have their Sunday breakfast 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The cost is $5 for adults and $3 for children for pancakes, eggs, sausage, juice and coffee. The lodge is located on Palmer Road west of Wayne Road in Westland.

■ Canton Young Marines, a national non-profit youth service organization, will host its first annual All-You-Can-Eat Pancake Breakfast 9 a.m. to noon Sunday, March 15, at the Wayne AMVETS Post 171, 1217 Merriman, south of Cherry Hill, Westland.

Menu will include pancakes, bacon, sausage, assorted fruit, juice, coffee and milk for $7.50 per person. Call

Prison families

Do you have a family member currently in prison? Do you feel alone? Do you wish you had a support group that you could turn to? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, then this support group is for you. Contact Bonnie at (734) 646-2237 or by e-mail at hope4healing@rocketmail.com. This support group is to provide adult family members with support and a place to talk with others that have experienced similar pain. Meetings are free and held from 6:30-8:30 p.m. the second Monday of the month at the Kirk of Our Savior, 36660 Cherry Hill, west of Wayne Road, in Westland.

Friends of Eloise

The Friends of Eloise meets at 7 p.m. on the third Tuesday of the month at the Collins House, and the Westland Historic Society meets at 7 p.m. on the second Tuesday of the month, also at the Collins House in the Westland Historic Village Park, on Wayne Road between Marquette and Cherry Hill.

had been given the proposal developed by Soils & Materials Engineers Inc., Traverse Environmental Group and Conestoga-Rovers & Associates. The formal plan came in the wake of earlier conceptual documents last July that prompted the state to demand revisions.

"The formal submission of these plans to MDEQ represents an important milestone in the ongoing collaborative effort by the county and city to restore Central City Park for recreational use," Helmkamp said.

Although the work could begin this year, Helmkamp couldn't put a timetable on how soon the 12-acre portion of the park might be ready for use.

"We really are dependent on the DEQ to turn it around," he said.

Helmkamp estimated that initial remediation efforts to prepare the site for soccer fields and other amenities could cost $1.5 million, and he said he is optimistic that the environmentally "green" plan could qualify for stimulus money.

"That's why we really do need the expeditious turnaround," he said.

County officials earlier had described the entire Central City Park as a 100-acre site, but Helmkamp said Friday that the portion once used for recreation has been revised to about 40 acres. City and county officials said the remaining acreage possibly could encompass a wooded area to the west or property where city buildings were built to the north.

Regardless, that means the 12-acre site proposed for soccer fields and other amenities would return to use nearly one-third of the former recreation area. Wild said city workers within a week could begin to dismantle the old tennis courts, pavilions and playscape to help make the site shovel-ready.

Under the plan submitted to MDEQ, county officials have proposed installing a "geotextile membrane," 12 inches of fresh soil, grass and other landscaping to prevent park users from coming into contact with contaminated soils. In some places, surface soil will be covered by impervious asphalt or concrete in a parking area, walkways and the concession-stand foundation.

The remainder of the park, outside the 12-acre area, will for now be restricted with an 8-foot fence, including an area near Friendship Lake where officials hope to eventually build a veterans memorial.

The county's plan calls for several measures to address findings of methane, a gas that can be explosive under certain conditions. A ventilation trench will be installed on the park's north side to catch methane and vent it from the soil through pipes, which will rise above the surface every 200 feet or so.

Second, officials have proposed designing the concession area with a "sub-slab vapor barrier" over a passive ventilation system to prevent any methane accumulation. And third, methane probes will be installed on the northeastern, eastern and southern perimeters of the park to help monitor any possible build-up of soil gas.

Helmkamp said county and city officials plan to work with state Sen. Glenn Anderson and state Rep. Richard LeBlanc, both Westland Democrats, in hopes of securing stimulus money. Like Wild, Helmkamp wants to see work begin this year.

"We're hoping sooner rather than later," he said. "We want to make use of the construction season this year."

Wild appeared confident that officials have responded to all of MDEQ's earlier concerns.

"I think we've done every single thing that they've asked for," he said.

Why did I choose Garden City Hospital?

My mother-in-law told me about their brand new surgery center. They deliver babies every day. And Garden City Hospital is among the 100 Top Hospitals in America. That makes me feel safe.

Plus, it was so convenient for the whole family to visit our new baby boy. The best thing was the way my doctor sat down with me, listened to my questions and explained everything. That really put me at ease. I trust them.

Judge bans public, victim's family from beheading hearing

BY BRAD KADRICH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

When Birmingham psychiatrist Gary Shiener testified Friday at a hearing to determine whether convicted killer Jean Pierre Orlewicz should get a new trial, not many people were around to hear it.

Including the parents of Orlewicz's victim. Third Circuit Judge Bruce Morrow banned the public and the media from attending the hearing for Orlewicz, the Plymouth Township teenager convicted last spring in the stabbing and beheading death of Daniel Sorensen, a 25-year-old from River Rouge.

While it was unclear what Shiener was saying Friday, he did interview Orlewicz once in jail prior to his trial last spring.

However, Judge Annette Berry, who presided over Orlewicz's trial, ruled in a pre-trial hearing March 31 that Shiener wouldn't be allowed to testify. Shiener had said at the time he thought a second interview was necessary, but it never happened.

The victim's parents, Jim and Kim Sorensen of Westland, said they understood the judge's desire to protect the families, but they were disappointed at his decision.

"This young man murdered our son," Jim Sorensen said. "We understand (Morrow) did it out of respect for the Orlewicz family and any sensitive issues that may have been raised. But we should have been in there."

The closed hearing was requested by Orlewicz's attorney, Elizabeth Jacobs, who said afterward Shiener's testimony may not be heard in a potential new trial.

"There's no reason to taint a jury panel, which is what happened the first time," she said.

Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy said she did not want the courtroom closed.

"The Wayne County

Prosecutor's Office is at a loss to understand why the Sorensen family, the public and the press were excluded from the courtroom today," Worthy said in a statement. "There was no reason given by the court for this action. It is my firm belief that court proceedings should be an open and transparent process."

Jurors convicted Orlewicz of killing Sorensen at his grandfather's Canton home Nov. 7, 2007. He then beheaded Sorensen with a hacksaw and burned his fingertips with a blowtorch.

Orlewicz is serving a mandatory life sentence for first-degree murder. Accomplice Alexander Letkemann pleaded guilty to second-degree murder in exchange for his testimony against Orlewicz. Letkemann is serving a sentence of 20-30 years.

The hearing was adjourned Friday and is expected to continue April 24.

3 police officers receive promotions

Three promotions have been announced in the Westland Police Department, a 100-officer police force that serves the city of nearly 86,000 residents.

Former Sgt. John Hoak has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant, and Officers Steve Bird and Matt Price have become the department's newest sergeants.

Hoak has worked in the department's patrol division, special investigative unit, youth bureau and as a detective. He joined the police force in 1987 and was named Officer of the Year in 1998.

Hoak has helped at-risk youths by serving on the advisory board of the Growth Works Care Management Organization Community Team, and he also is a field training officer, an evidence technician and an original member of the rifle team. He has received the Police Heart,

Bird

Hoak

Life Saving Award, two department citations, two certificates of merit, six unit commendations and the safe driving award.

Bird joined the department in 1999. He is a criminal justice graduate of Western Michigan University who received his police certification through the Kalamazoo Valley Regional Police Academy.

Bird has been a field training officer and instructor in the Operating

While Intoxicated (OWI) Detection and Standardized Field Sobriety Evaluations program since 2003, and he has received training in dispatching operations. Bird has received a Life Saving Award, three department citations, three certificates of merit and two unit commendations.

Price received his associate degree from Oakland Community College before transferring to Eastern Michigan University. He entered the Washtenaw Police Academy and graduated in 1994, and then earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1997 while serving as a Westland officer.

Price has received 19 department awards and citation. He has been a field training officer for 10 years and a member of the perimeter rifle team for more 10 years. He also was assigned to the multi-agency Metro Street Enforcement Team for three years.

restored. It appears that federal stimulus money will be used to bring back much of what has been cut from school funding, but Anderson is concerned about what will happen when the money runs out in two years.

Projections are that the state's 2012 budget will be worse than this year unless there's a major upswing in the economy, he said.

"Every school district was hit hard, but the hardest hit was Wayne-Westland," he said. "I'm cautiously optimistic of getting it partially restored, but I want them to be made whole."

He added that district residents and school officials should keep in mind that the governor's proposal is just the first step in the budgetary process, what she presented isn't anywhere near what it will end up being.

Like Anderson, school board Trustee William Gabriel is concerned about using stimulus money. The governor's proposal takes funding away from districts and puts it back with the federal stimulus money, he said. "I find it ironic that to get federal money to bail out an ailing school system, we have to lose almost $7 million," he said. "How can we take federal money and take a severe cut? This is a disaster for the school district."

Gabriel plans to be at the meeting with Anderson and state Rep. Richard LeBlanc, who serves on the K-12 Committee in the House of Representatives.

And Anderson plans to keep in communication with the governor and his colleagues.

"The administration is going to hear a lot from us," he said. "I plan to do everything I can to get this funding restored."

Student writing contest has Abraham Lincoln as theme

The Michigan Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Committee, in partnership with the Michigan Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States (MOLLUS), is looking for "Essays About Lincoln," a statewide writing contest celebrating Abraham Lincoln's 200th birthday.

"Since presidential scholars first began ranking our presidents some 60 years ago, Abraham Lincoln has consistently been rated among the top three," said Dr. William Anderson, chair of Michigan's Lincoln committee and retired director of the Department of History, Arts and Libraries. "I think the time is right for Michigan's young people to take a closer look at Lincoln's legacy and consider how his life lessons and principles still serve as a guiding force."

The essay themes are broken out into two categories: Grades 5-6 - "Lincoln's Leadership Then and Now: what President Lincoln's Life and Leadership Means to Me," and grades 7-8 and 9-12 - "Lincoln's Leadership Then and Now: How President Lincoln's Life and Leadership Inspire Me Today."

"Too often, we forget that history is not just about places and dates in our past, it's about the people whose thoughts and deeds made those places and dates worth remembering," said Bruce B. Butgereit, commander, Commandery of the State of Michigan, Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. "President Lincoln's life was filled with immense challenges and yet he never gave up trying to better himself. His legacy stands as a symbol of what can be achieved through commitment, compassion and honesty. It is hoped that by giving students an opportunity to study and write an essay about Lincoln, they will better understand who they are and how Lincoln's example can serve as an inspiration to them."

The essay contest is designed to support Michigan English Language Arts and Social Studies curriculum standards, including those for language, literature, voice, depth of understanding, ideas in action, inquiry and research, critical standards, and historical perspective.

Awards will be given for a first-, second- and third-place winning essay from each of the three grade competition levels (grades 5-6, grades 7-8 and grades 9-12). All winners will receive a certificate of achievement, a "portrait" of Abraham Lincoln in the form of a new $5 bill, and a figurine or framed print of Abraham Lincoln.

Winning essays may also be published or displayed in various locations, publications and Web sites. For full contest rules, mailing guidelines, and downloadable entry coupon and release form, visit www.milincoll.org. For more information, contact the Michigan Commandery at (616) 827-3369 or by e-mail at patriot-bluel@yahoo.com.

All entries must be post-marked by April 4, and mailed to Lincoln Bicentennial Essays, MOLLUS Michigan Commandery, P.O. Box 888281, Grand Rapids, MI 49588

The Michigan Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States (MOLLUS) was founded on April 15, 1865, the day Abraham Lincoln died. Its mission is to perpetuate the memory of Abraham Lincoln and his ideals. Learn more at suvcw.org/mollus/mi/mollus.html.

The pretty cheerleader gets the football player in Alexis Lester's winning cartoon.

Students get creative with cartoons

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The topics were as varied as the cartoonists themselves — a cheerleader, aliens and summer vacation.

For students in Danielle Hall's drawing and painting class at Marshall Middle School, the goal was to create the best cartoon strip. The reward was seeing it in print.

"They got pretty excited because they're creating their own characters," Hall said. "They brainstormed and came up with five different characters. They didn't have to use them all, but they had to figure out where they wanted them to be."

Seventh-grade Alexis Lester did her cartoon about the football player who's too busy looking at the pretty cheerleader and was run over by the other team.

The subject matter was something near and dear to her heart. She's a cheerleader for the Westland Comets and was this year's homecoming queen.

"I could see something like this happening," said Alexis.

In her cartoon, which was picked as the best, the cheerleader asks the football player if he's OK. He ignores her. He runs down the field and scores the winning touchdown. Everyone cheers and "they finally kiss," she said.

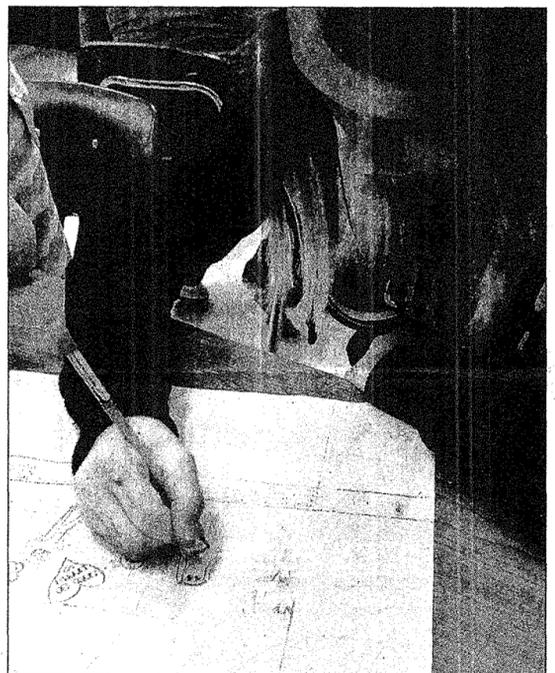

"The final speech bubble is the cheerleader thinking how lucky she is," she said, adding that she spent two days working on the rough draft.

Seventh-grader Chelsea Blair chose summer vacation with a twist for her cartoon topic. Friends on summer vacation have to think of a way to raise $200 for one friend who wrecked his mother's car.

"I was going to go with summer vacation, but decided to throw in some conflict," she said.

Eighth-grader Amber Congdon's cartoon was a hunt for the ultimate Skittle wrapper on a bus. Her characters included Teechieberry, Senor Jalapeno, Uncle Waffle and Over the Rainbow Kid.

Seventh-grader John Banks focused on kids playing basketball at a gym where they knock the net over with a slam dunk and make the owner mad.

"I like comic book stuff," he said. "I draw heads and funny faces and adventures like the person who climbs a tall stairway and falls down into a video game."

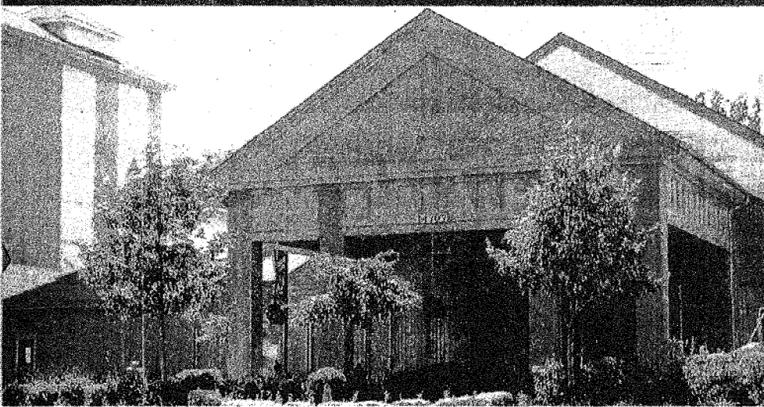

Hall did a similar activity with her students last fall and decided to include it in her current class. The students not only had to figure out the who, what and where of their cartoons, but also had to do the dialogue. They also watched a video on creating facial expressions. They sketched out the cartoons then went over the pencil marks with a black Sharpie.

"I think the kids enjoyed it because they had free rein with it," said Hall.

5 women vie for 2009 ATHENA Award

Chocolate may be the theme, but the center of attention will be the ATHENA Award, when the Women of Westland hold their fifth annual Chocolate Fantasy Ball Saturday, March 7.

The ATHENA Award is presented to man or woman for professional excellence, community service and for actively assisting women in their attainment of professional excellence and leadership skills.

Five women have been nominated and this year's recipient will be announced at the ball which will be held at the New Hawthorne Valley Country Club, 73000 Merriman, east of Warren, Westland.

Nominated for the 2009 award are Sue Wilk, a social worker at the William D. Ford Career Technical Center; Susan Szurek, nurse practitioner at the Oakwood Lincoln School Healthcare Center; Barbara Schimmel-Marcum, director of Senior Resources for the city of Westland; Linda DeVore, a registered dietician and certified diabetes educator with Fairlane Dialysis Center and Garden City Hospital, and Susan Ianni, general manager of Gordon Chevrolet.

Wilk is employed by the Wayne-Westland Community Schools and is head of the district's department of social workers. At the career technical center, she has provided support for young women taking classes in non-traditional fields and launched the Innovative Design Vehicle program that has received numerous state and national awards for its students-designed and built cars.

She also started the Special Angel parents support group that assists parents of special needs children and the Parent Partnership program at Roosevelt Elementary School. The program supports parents in helping their children reach their goals.

Szurek played a key role in the establishment of the Oakwood Healthcare System clinic within Lincoln Elementary, providing medical care for students and their families. She has worked with the school staff to provide extensive and ongoing classroom-based health education, piloted a walking club involving 800 fifth-graders.

She also has served on the board of the School Community Health Alliance of Michigan, did a "Girls Group Talk, an educational session for the Westland Youth Assistance Program and was integral in implementing the Lincoln School Caring for Kids Program, a large scale Oakwood Hospital employee program that provides more than 200 clinic youngsters and their families with food and presents at Christmas.

Schimmel-Marcum has worked at the Westland senior Friendship Center for many years and became its director in 2008. She is being recognized for encouraging and placing senior women in leadership positions at the center, giving them the opportunity to demonstrate their professional skills. She also has served as the Westland representative on the Senior Alliance Board of Directors and helped make The Westland-hosted 2008 Wayne County Senior Olympics a success.

DeVore works with patients, creating meal plans and goals, at the Fairlane Dialysis Center and teaches classes on managing diabetes at Garden City Hospital. She has raised more than $15,000 for the Susan G. Komen Foundation as a participant in the annual Breast Cancer 3-Day, and has participated in the Westland Relay for Life and the National Kidney Foundation fund-raising walk at the Detroit Zoo.

Ianni has helped in bringing the Safe Kids Worldwide program to the dealership twice a year for five years, with more than 100 people having their child's safety seat checked on average at each event. She also has helped such causes as the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves' Toy for Tots, the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, the American Red Cross and worked with several radio stations to fulfill community needs.

The Chocolate Fantasy Ball will start with a cash bar at 6 p.m. followed by hors d'ouvres at 6:30 and followed by the announcement of the 2009 ATHENA Award recipient at 7:30 p.m. and the Chocolate Fantasy dessert extravaganza. There also will be a silent auction.

Tickets are priced at $20 each with discounts available for tables of eight. Tickets are available through the Women of Westland by calling (734) 467-9113 or visit www.womenofwestland.com.

Celebrating National Words Matter Week

Communicating with others is often the most important part of our days, whether with family, friends, co-workers, or workers who help us with our basic needs. For members of the National Association of Independent Writing Evaluators (NAIWE), words matter even more.

During the week of March 2-6, NAIWE is celebrating the written word with an online convention available through the NAIWE Web site, www.naiwe.com/home.php. The site includes such features as advice and help on becoming a freelance writer, weekly writing tips, free articles and links to the convention itself.

Whether you are interested in writing school papers, poems, business proposals, fiction, or resumes, the Westland Public Library has plenty of resources that will make sure you do your best. Great books include "The Everything Guide to Writing Great Research Papers," "Poetry Matters,"

"Persuasive Business Proposals and Resume Writing" and "Interviewing Techniques That Work."

For those who are interested in improving their skills in the more perfunctory aspects of word processing software, the library also offers free Microsoft Word classes (both Introductory and Intermediate) twice monthly. Call for a reservation as these fill up quickly).

For the writer more interested in the nuances and expressiveness of the written word, the library also offers monthly Adult and Teen Poetry Groups happening on the first two Mondays of the month. Please check the schedule for time and place. For more information, call the Reference Desk at (734) 326-6123 or visit www.westland.lib.mi.us.

Highlighted Activities

Adult Poetry Group: 7 p.m. March 2 ages 19 and up.
Interested in reading, discussing, and writing poetry? Please join us for one of our sessions, whether you're a first-time writer or a serious wordsmith. Sign up at the Reference Desk or just show up. Check out our blog at westlandadultpoetry.blogspot.com

Documentary Movie Night: 7 p.m. March 3, "Maxed Out."

"Maxed Out" takes us on a journey deep inside the American debt-style, where everything seems OK as long as the minimum monthly payment arrives on time. "Maxed Out" shows how the modern financial industry really works, explains the true definition of "preferred customer" and tells us why the poor are getting poorer and the rich getting richer. No registration required. Refreshments will be provided.

World Travel 101: 7 p.m. March 10.

This workshop offers tips on making traveling more affordable and enjoyable. Information will be provided on how to communicate with people from other cultures, tips on finding accommodations and using local transportation, and ideas on to stretch your travel budget. No registration required.

Game Night: 6-8 p.m. every Friday night throughout March

Want to spend some fun time with your family and friends and not spend any money? Join us at the library for Game Night every Friday night throughout the month of March. Bring a game or play one of the many games available at the library. Whether you want to come alone or meet a new friend, everyone is invited. Chess and card players, we're saving tables for you, too. No age limit. No fun limit. Snacks provided.

Drop-in Knitting Nights @ the library: 7 p.m. every Wednesday evening. Everyone welcome.

Information Central was compiled by Andy Schuck, reference librarian and resident poetry facilitator. The William P. Faust Public Library is at 6123 Central City Parkway, Westland. For more information, call (734) 326-6123.

Wish you were here

A statue of Blackbeard the Pirate that stands atop of Blackbeard's Hill in St. Thomas provided the backdrop for Sharlene Clark's Wish You Were Here snapshot. The Westland resident traded January's winter chill for the warmth of the Virgin Islands, where it was a "very hot" 88 degrees. If you go on vacation, be sure to take a picture with your Observer and send it to Sue Mason, 615 W. Lafayette, Second Level, Detroit, MI 48226. Be sure to include your name and information about your photo.

Economy, jobs are top topics at coffee hour

BY JULIE BROWN
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Martha Clark of Livonia has been looking for a job for two months now. Her husband lost his job in a machine shop, and with a son in high school looking to attend college, they're worried.

"We lose our health insurance March 1," she said at a coffee hour hosted by state Sen. Glenn Anderson, D-Westland. "We don't know what we're going to do."

Clark said it's tough to ask family for financial help as they also work in auto-related fields and have lost their jobs. When she applies for retail jobs, she's competing with candidates with bachelor's degrees in business.

"I don't know what we're going to do," she said. "A lot of plants are closing and they're not coming back."

Anderson told those at the legislative coffee hour of "promising information" on the mortgage modification front. He's heard word of interest rates being dropped, with the federal government and mortgage companies splitting the cost.

"Right now, the value of their home has dropped so much that they cannot refinance," Anderson said. The loss of equity means those who try to refinance don't qualify for another mortgage.

"This would help bridge that gap," he said of the plan, which would require the homeowner to repay the federal side costs, or at least part of them, when property is sold.

Anderson noted mortgage companies may prefer bankruptcy, although it's better to avoid that and keep people in their homes.

"It affects property values all across the community when you have more vacancies," he said.

Anderson praised the state's No Worker Left Behind initiative and its efforts to address major job losses in Michigan.

"It is a very difficult time right now," he said. "A lot of the school districts are devastated." He anticipates federal stimulus dollars helping Michigan soon, but is unsure of impact in future years.

Anderson discussed the need for nurses and other health care workers, noting many Canadian nurses were needed after the 9/11 attacks. The last couple of state budgets have allocated money for nurses' training, although lack of instructors and slots for nursing students remain issues.

Environmental activist Bill Craig of Livonia urged action on cleaning up the Cooper School site, a brownfield in Westland that was a Livonia school, and Westland's contaminated Central City Park.

"Those are two examples that I think go to the head of the list," said Craig, who's worried stimulus dollars may go to "pet projects. I think the environment is going to be in the caboose again."

Anderson said there are 10 times more projects than those that can be funded. "The money then reverts back to the feds" if unspent, he said, adding Michigan needs road and bridge work.

"It's a very tumultuous time right now with cuts," the senator said.

Anderson will host a Town Hall meeting on "Job Strategies for Challenging Economic Times" 6-8 p.m. Monday, March 9, at the Livonia Senior Center, which also hosted Monday's coffee hour. The senior center is near Farmington and Five Mile roads.

Anderson will be joined by representatives from the Michigan Department of Energy, Labor and Economic Growth, Michigan Economic Development Corporation, Michigan Works, Michigan Department of Human Services and United Way for Southeastern Michigan and possibly other agencies and organization. For information, call Anderson toll free at (866) 262-7306 or e-mail SenatorAnderson@senate.mi.gov.

Bankruptcy may be an option for some situations

Q: Dear Rick: I'm being pulled in 101 different directions. My problem is I can't pay my bills. I have over $35,000 in charge card debt, I haven't paid my mortgage in two months and I'm worried about my job. I have talked to a number of different people and the options are bankruptcy, working with one of the debt relief companies or basically doing nothing. A friend suggested that because of some new law, the bank won't be able to foreclose on my home and that as long as I pay something on my charge cards, there won't be a problem. My friend also said bankruptcy won't solve my problems because my credit would be ruined. I don't know what to do.

Money Matters

A: You can talk with three different people and receive three different courses of action. All the options may solve the issue, but the key is finding one that best suits your situation.

My general rule is if there is no possibility of paying off your debt anytime soon, bankruptcy is an option you should pursue. I disagree with your friend. Bankruptcy is a viable option to put you on the path to financial solvency. Bankruptcy laws today are not as lenient as in the past. That doesn't mean people in dire situations should not pursue bankruptcy. In the past, people could declare bankruptcy and wipe out all debt. Today it is not as easy, however, it is still possible. Bankruptcy will allow you to reduce your debt and set up a payment plan you can live with.

There is no doubt that obtaining credit is going to be difficult once you go through bankruptcy. However, non-payment of your mortgage as well as late and delinquent payments on your charge card will also have a negative affect on your credit. The fact that your credit will be affected is not the major concern. The major concern is getting you back on the road to financial solvency.

In today's difficult economic times, more people understand why it is necessary to file for bankruptcy.

One of the great things about this country is we give people the opportunity to rebound after adversity and eventually prosper. Corporate America has no problem using the bankruptcy laws. That does not mean bankruptcy is an individual's first option, however, it should be an option. If you do pursue bankruptcy, I recommend discussing your situation with a bankruptcy attorney.

Doing nothing and waiting to see what happens in Washington is not a viable option.

As to seeking advice from a debt relief company, I have no problem pursuing that option. However, you do have to factor into the equation what happens if you do lose your job.

In selecting a debt relief company, be careful. Check the company out through the Better Business Bureau, find out what their fee structure is and most important what they can do to assist with your individual situation.

There is no doubt we're in very difficult financial times and many people are having difficulty meeting their financial obligations for the first time in their lives. Although, there is no particular course of action that will solve everyone's problem, doing nothing is not the way to go. Study the pros and cons of all options available then act.

Electronic tax filing is fast, easy and convenient

Each month, Wayne County Treasurer Raymond J. Wojtowicz will answer reader questions asked about property taxes. Wojtowicz reminds taxpayers: "Always remember that your property is your most precious asset. Do not risk losing it for nonpayment of property taxes. If in doubt, ask questions."

Q: Is there a fee to pay my delinquent property taxes by electronic debit (ACH)?

A: No. The electronic debit option is at no cost to you.

Ask the Treasurer
Raymond Wojtowicz

Q: Is there a fee to pay my delinquent taxes by credit card?

A: Taxpayers using MasterCard or Visa will incur a service charge of 2.49 percent of the total taxes paid. The fee is paid to the service provider, not the Wayne County Treasurer.

Q: How will I know if my payment was received?

A: As soon as the process is completed, you will receive an e-mail confirmation. A receipt will be mailed to the address that you provided on the screen.

Q: What are the benefits of paying my delinquent taxes on the Internet?

A: It's fast - the payment process takes only a few minutes. It's accurate - verification steps guide you along the way, you are able to review payment information before it is sent

It's convenient - this payment option is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week without having to leave the comfort of your home.

It's easy to use - the screens are self-explanatory and help buttons are there to guide you through the process.

It's secure - Wayne County maintains a high level of security on the Internet.

Some solutions to coyote 'problem' are overkill

Frustration. That word applies equally to those who want the deer of Rochester Hills or the coyotes of Bloomfield Hills to be shot as it does for those who do not. The culling program - and culling is just a sanitized word for sanctioned, organized killing with a purpose - has many residents fully disgusted and very angry.

The culling program was officially spawned over concerns of the many deer-car crashes, yet other residents were delighted with the demise of deer for another reason: "Now they won't eat my flowers." That program has been halted. For now.

The city of Bloomfield Hills' planned response to "problem" coyotes is one of selective killing, using officers to shoot coyotes that are perceived to be threats to people or pets. As of press time, no shots have been fired. And that's well and good. For it's going to be a long stretch to sort out those coyotes that are happily munching on garden-raiding groundhogs or geese that poop prolifically on palatial properties from coyotes that want your bird-stalking cat as kitty cuisine or consider the family canine a competitor. Being opportunists, coyotes do both.

What neither kill program seems to have taken into consideration is that wildlife knows no borders: Coyotes and deer and all things wild don't care about political boundaries. They respond to habitat availability and they are evolving to our behavior far more efficiently than we are to theirs. There is no quick fix. But there are facts that put the wildlife among us in perspective.

Fact: Coyotes do not belong up North "where they should live in the forest." Coyotes are not forest animals and they were not driven out from someplace else because of development. They are here because we give them food; abundant rodents, birds and foods associated with human behavior. Fact: Likewise deer are opportunists and everything about our landscaping practices screams Location! Location! Location!

To understand ways to reduce conflict, it is necessary to recognize the difference between biological and social carrying capacity. Biological carrying capacity is loosely defined as the number of animals that can be supported by a given habitat year after year without adversely affecting that habitat. The rotten apple in our planning process is the social carrying capacity, or how many of a species we humans tolerate in a given habitat. For some, one coyote is too many and deer "belong in zoos."

For others just the presence of wildlife raises the quality of life whether we see them or not. Another fact is clear: Local government units are under pressure by their constituents to do something, even when that something is not long-term and does not include a serious and thoughtful educational campaign.

There is no easy fix to what some see as problematic wildlife behavior. But the sooner we realize that it's our behavior that alters wildlife behavior, the better off we are and the less government will have to respond to human behavior by shooting wildlife. Kudos to Bloomfield Township and Police Officer Pete Matejick for the township's bold steps in the right direction with a much needed on-line education campaign on suburban coyotes (www.bloomfielddtp.org/Services/Police/Coyotes.htm) and the recognition that it's all about habitat and food and aversion conditioning.

Final thoughts: If you want that coyote off your property, tell it so. Keep a portable air horn handy.

Blast it and yell, wave your arms. Run towards it, yelling all the way. Run away and you send a message: You are weak and afraid. And be realistic: Drunk and distracted drivers pose far more threat to you and your pets than the coyotes of Oakland County.

Lastly, deer feeding is illegal in all of Lower Michigan. Feeding creates unnatural gatherings and provides grains for mice, rabbits, squirrels and birds. Abundant small animals in your yard attract coyotes that become less cautious of us. And that means more conflict, perceived or real.

The MHSAA rulebook had final jurisdiction in deciding the outcome of Wednesday night's Division 1 team wrestling regional at Westland John Glenn.

With the score deadlocked at 29-all after Glenn's Joshua Austin decisioned Canton's Carl Lucke, 6-3, in the last match of the evening at 119 pounds, officials Tom Arsenault and Jerome Angelo huddled with the coaches of both teams at the scorer's table to determine the tiebreaker criteria.

"We had to go through each weight class," Angelo said. "We went from A through F." The deadlock was broken on the sixth criteria – most first-points scored in each match, and the host Glenn came away the dramatic victor.

Here's now the tiebreaker criteria was broken down: unsportsmanlike points (even); matches won (7-7); pins (2-2); technical falls (1-1); major decisions (zero each); and finally initial points scored (8-6 in favor of Glenn).

The Rockets, now 25-7 overall, will be making their first trip in school history to the Elite Eight,

Wayne, Glenn 1-2

Norway Lanes is the next destination for three area Division 1 high school bowling teams following action on Friday in the Region 7 tournament held at Westland Bowl.

Wayne Memorial, ranked No. 1 in Division 1 and the KLA Central Division champions, will join host Westland John Glenn and Salem next Friday in the state finals in Muskegon.

Meanwhile, the Glenn girls lost a tight duel for first with Taylor Kennedy, but advanced for the first time in school history. Brownstown Woodhaven also made the cut by finishing third.

Wayne freshman Elliott Arnold had the high series of the boys 13-school field with a 647 followed by Ryan Gabriel (603), Josh Vojtkofsky (597) and T.J. Lave (557).

Jesse English had a two-game set of 383, while Kellen Collison finished with a 150 in his only game.

Wayne had a pin total of 4,106 with regular games of 986-1,037-913. The Zebras rolled six Baker games of 216-254-150-160-193-197.

Glenn's team total was 3,712 on regular games of 832-855-971, along with a Baker six-game set of 164-110-195-198-189-198.

The Rockets' lineup is dominated by seven juniors – Chris Harper, Kyle Hamlin, John Cleavenger, Derrick Ammons, Josh Duprie, Josh Herzig and Brian Monte – along with freshman Thomas Brusseau.

Salem's team total was 3,650 on a regular three-game set of 969-819-88, followed by a Baker set of 210-145-148-141-186-144.

Glenn girls coach Shirley O'Hara sounded a bit raspy as Taylor Kennedy nosed out her Rockets in the final frame for first place, 3,419-3,392.

"I'm very happy, but I don't have a voice," O'Hara said. "We were down 40 after the Bakers, but then it was neck-and-neck all the way to the 10th frame."

Glenn's Baker games included 149-191-156-153-189-127. The Rockets then posted regular games of 829-761-838.

The Rockets, who finished runner-up to Northville in the KLA's Central Division this season with an 8-2 record, are led by seniors Katy Harris, Amber Krzyzanski, Victoria Elsey and Kristin Peters.

Rounding out the squad is junior Allyson Kassab and sophomore Natalie Brown.

GAME WRAPS

KLAA girls hoops
FRANKLIN 47, BRIGHTON 27:
Livonia Franklin (17-3) closed out the regular season in grand fashion Friday night with a resounding win over the visiting Bulldogs (16-4) in a consolation battle of KLA's divisional champions.

"We showed up tonight, I think we came out of our slump," said Franklin coach Dave McCall, whose team pulled away with a 20-7 fourth-quarter run. "We played the game like we were trying to win instead of not trying to lose. It was a good, hard game."

Senior twins Brianna and Brittany Taylor led the Patriots with 13 and 11 points, respectively. Chelsea Williams, a 5-foot-8 sophomore, handled the point-guard duties and finished with six points along with junior guard Nicole Emery.

Brighton, plagued by poor shooting from the field (9-of-37) and the foul line (7-of-20), got five points apiece from Morgan Albert, Dayna Modzynski, Angela Bisaro and Kelly Cieslak. CHURCHILL 46, W.L. CENTRAL 40: Three players scored in double figures Friday as host Livonia Churchill (10-10) downed Walled Lake Central (11-9) in a KLA's crossover.

Lindsey Graciak and Kia Griffin each tallied 11 points for the victorious Chargers, who jumped out to a 24-16 halftime lead. Brooke Gustafson tallied 16 for the Vikings, who hit 17-of-27 free throws.

Churchill was 17-of-27 from the line. MOTT 56, STEVENSON 45: On Friday, junior point-guard Desyree Thomas scored 15 points to lead four players in double figures as Waterford Mott (11-9) downed host Livonia Stevenson (7-13).

Holly Cooperider (14), Tiffany Coleman (13) and Asia Rawls (10) also lifted the Corsairs, who led 34-22 at intermission. Stevenson, which closed to within six points in the final period, got a game-high 24 points and eight rebounds from senior center Kaylee McGrath. Sophomore guard Sarah Smith added 11 points.

Emily Hollandsworth and Jordan York led the defense with four steals apiece. Shelby Wilson, who started, also chipped in defensively, according to coach Paul Tripp.

PINCKNEY 49, JOHN GLENN 38: Elyse Lefebvre scored 11 points and Jen Lucas added 10 Friday as the host Pirates (3-17) turned back short-handed Westland John Glenn (7-13).

Glenn, minus starters Nyah McReynolds (flu) and Brittany Holbrook (sprained ankle), couldn't overcome a 28-18 halftime deficit.

Chanel Payne picked up the slack with 17 points, while T.J. Carson-Callaway added seven. Pinckney was 15-of-25 from the free throw line, while Glenn was 7-of-14.

MU expectations sky high

Al White doesn't want to get ahead of himself when it comes to sizing up his 2009 Madonna University women's softball team.

But all indications are that the Crusaders could be looking at a banner season after finishing 37-14-1 a year ago, while winning the both the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference's regular season and playoff crowns. MU also just missed going to the NAIA Nationals after falling to Bethel (Ind.) College in the finals of the Region VIII Tournament.

The Crusaders left Friday for a 14-game spring trip to Arizona where they opened Saturday against two California schools, pre-season No. 2-ranked Point Loma Nazarene University and Hope

Sidor

International in the Tucson Invitational.

With his entire infield returning along with the starting battery, expectations for MU are sky high this season.

"I know our infield will make plays," said the 11th-year MU coach. "They're the best defensive team I've put on the field. We have outstanding potential, but we still have to get it done on the field."

Junior first baseman Cat Sidor (Livonia Churchill) anchors the infield after leading the Crusaders with a team-best .378 batting average and 46 RBI.

"Cat is a Division I-type talent," White said of the first-team All-WHAC selection. "And she's even a better person than a player."

Also returning is senior catcher Danielle Richardson, who hit .346; senior shortstop Tedi Johnson (.346); junior second baseman Brittney Scero (.339); and sophomore third baseman Kelly Lesko (.318).

Scero, a Canton High grad, has been bothered during the pre-season with a bad shoulder.

"With Brittney it changes day-to-day, but she's playing right now," White said. "She's our lead-off hitter. She strikes out very few times and she gets on base for us."

"We'll try and get her through. She's undergone cortisone therapy,

Pool sharks: Spartans seize divisional crown

Livonia Stevenson shattered pool records in both the 200- and 400-yard freestyle relays Thursday night en route to the KLAAs Kensington Conference's Central Division boys swim title at South Lyon East.

The Spartans scored a team best 681 points to finish ahead of Northville's 598. See complete meet results.

Stevenson, ranked sixth in Division I, opened the meet with a win in the 200 medley relay as Kellen Schoff, Joey Wingett, Jereme Pesta and Ryan Scott were clocked in 1:40.62.

Stevenson's Aaren Marecki, Michael Cruce, Adam Dabkowski and Pesta broke the East pool mark in the 200 freestyle relay (1:29.29).

Chris Behler, Marecki, Cruce and Schoff also established a new mark in the 400 freestyle relay (3:16.42). Pesta was the lone individual winner with a time of 22.57 in the 50 freestyle.

Stevenson has now qualified 10 individuals heading into the Division I state finals.

Chiefs rule KLAAs South

Richard Zhang figured in four first to lead Canton to the KLAAs South Division championship Thursday night at Westland John Glenn.

The Chiefs scored a team-high 625 points to edge out neighbor Plymouth, which had 581.

Zhang hit the wall first in both the 100- and 200 freestyles in 50.13 and 1:49.21, respectively. He also teamed up with Brandon Tolinski, Eddie Koelzer and Patrick Jenner to win the 200 freestyle (1:34.74).

Victor Zhang added firsts in the 100 butterfly (55.2) and 100 backstroke (55.92).

The foursome of Tolinski, Jay Jin, Victor and Richard Zhang closed out the meet by winning the 400 freestyle relay (3:26.15).

Jenner also captured the 50 freestyle (23.33).

Livonia Franklin had two individual firsts - Brandon Larkins in the 200 individual medley (2:09.08) and Scott James in the 500 freestyle (5:19.07).

Livonia Churchill's Andrew Richards was the top diver with 218.85 points, while Plymouth's Dan Stoscup emerged the winner in the 100 breaststroke (1:05.95).

Plymouth's 200 medley relay team of Adam Wing, Stoscup, Ethan Christenson and Alex Jouney won in 1:46.93.

Novi staves off Pats in KLAAs crossover, 67-59

Livonia Franklin put up a quite a battle Thursday night, but host Novi fended off the Patriots to earn a 67-59 boys basketball victory in a Kensington Conference crossover.

The Wildcats, now 15-3 overall, connected on seven of their nine 3-pointers to take a 39-32 halftime lead before Franklin (6-12) cut the deficit to two after three quarters, 50-48.

"We had six (defensive) stops in a row and couldn't get scores or finish them," said Franklin coach Jeremy Rheault, whose team was outscored 17-11 in the decisive fourth quarter. "But I'm proud of the way my guys played."

Chris Bellamy and Nick Brockman tallied 16 and 15, respectively, for Novi.

Senior guard Jeff Poole led the Patriots and all scorers with 20 points, including 10-of-11 from the foul line. He also grabbed eight rebounds and dished out five assists. Senior forward Connor Leidal contributed 14 points, including 6-of-7 from the foul line.

The Patriots were 21-of-28 from the foul line, while Novi was 6-of-12.

Churchill's Anthony Frezzell shoots over a pair of Salem defenders Thursday.

Salem, celebrating coach Bob Brodie's 25th season, trailed 63-62 with 3:50 left. The Rocks then finished the game on a 9-0 run.

"I thought we executed well offensively tonight," Churchill coach Jim Solak said. "We've been struggling to score lately, so that was nice to see. We fought to get the lead back late in the game, but we lost the little 30-second games within the game. Give Salem credit, though. They made their shots tonight."

Ryan Woods led the Chargers with 16 points, while Scott Scyzyszyn and Tony Frezzell added 14 and 13, respectively. Center Cameron Norscia finished with 11 points and eight rebounds.

SOUTH LYON 58, JOHN GLENN 44: On Thursday, Justin Hartman and Jordan Short tallied 12 and 11 points, respectively, to lead the KLAAs Central Division champion Lions (14-4) past visiting Westland John Glenn (9-8) in a Kensington Conference crossover.

South Lyon led 29-26 at halftime and pulled away with a 17-9 third-quarter run.

Senior guard Austin Anderson scored 14 points to pace the Rockets, while Derrick Crosby and Fred Hudy (three triples) added 11 each.

South Lyon was 9-of-10, while John Glenn was 8-of-15.

CANTON 67, STEVENSON 51: Marlan Glenn drained six 3-pointers en route to a game-high 29 points Thursday to lead the Chiefs (10-8) to a Kensington Conference crossover triumph over host Livonia Stevenson (10-7).

Kiere Daniels added 10 points for Canton, which pulled away from a 30-29 halftime lead with an 18-3 third-quarter run.

Nick Marzecz led the Spartans with nine points. Cobb added eight.

Top-seeded C'ville gains Metro finals

It was a 34-19 game at halftime, more than enough for the Trojans to withstand a modest comeback bid by the Warriors (10-7).

"We got down early and couldn't recover," Lutheran Westland coach Brandon Bekius said. "They are too good of a team to try and play from behind."

Bekius, however, praised his squad for battling during the second half and reducing the margin to under 10 points.

"At halftime we talked about getting shots at the basket every offensive possession by limiting turnovers in the backcourt," he said.

The Trojans were missing leading scorer Jamie Stewart, who was out for disciplinary reasons. Senior guard Nathan Clark picked up the slack with a game-high 19 points.

Other contributions came from Corey Reynolds (13 points, 15 rebounds), Darryl Whitaker (13 points) and Jalen Reynolds (10 points, 12 boards, five blocks).

Eric Shoats and Josh Kruger tallied 13 and nine points, respectively, for the Warriors.

HURON VALLEY 55, MT. CARMEL 32: Aaron Howell scored 13 points to propel host Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (10-5) to a non-conference victory over visiting Wyandotte Mt. Carmel (0-13).

The Hawks jumped out to a 32-14 halftime lead and never look back as Kyle Tacia and Tyler Wagaman added nine and seven points, respectively, while Chad Fielek and Bryan Gruenewald chipped in with six apiece.

Matt St. John finished with seven rebounds.

Tom Deboves paced the Comets with a game-high 16 points.

beginning at 3:15 p.m. Friday, March 6, at Battle Creek's Kellogg Arena.

"The kids just believed," Glenn ninth-year coach Bill Polk said. "It's been a rocky year at times, we've had some ups and downs, and we lost four or five matches that we could have probably won. But I noticed prior to the league meet (Kensington Lakes) that they started coming together. I think we're peaking at the right time."

It was an emotionally charged night with Glenn upsetting No. 5-ranked Temperance Bedford in one semifinal, 32-28, while No. 10 Canton needed a pin in the final match from 112-pounder Waleed Faraj to stave off Southgate Anderson in the other semifinal, 33-27.

It was the only the second time since the MHSAA team finals began in 1988 that Bedford has not won a regional.

"I've been working 12 years for this, ever since the first day I walked in the door here - that's what it's been," Polk said. "It stretches back even before my coaching career. They (Bedford) knocked us out when I was wrestling for Dearborn High, so I have my own personal reasons."

Glenn and Canton, meanwhile, fought tooth-and-nail in a match that didn't end until it was nearly 10 p.m.

When Glenn's 103-pounder Steven Wakeford pinned Dan Filippelli with 1:01 left in the third period, the Rockets took their first lead since the opening match of the night, 26-23.

Faraj then returned the favor with another pin at 112 to put the Chiefs ahead, 29-26, setting the stage for the Austin-Lucke finale.

"I told Josh after Canton had won against Southgate that 'the match was coming down to you,'" Glenn coach Bill Polk said. "We knew we had a shot because every match with Josh (vs. Lucke) was either one point or over-time. We knew it could go either way. I told Josh he had to have a major decision. But we checked the score sheet, and then one of my former wrestlers, Eric Schambers, looked it up in the (rule) book and I knew one of the criteria. We knew if we win the match, we've got it."

Austin had lost his first three matches this season against Lucke - all close decisions - but captured the last meeting at the Kensington Lakes meet.

Austin jumped out to a 5-0 lead and nearly had a pin at the end of the first period as Lucke was saved by the horn. The Canton senior then rallied to within two, 5-3, but Austin was able to close out the match and force the team tiebreaker.

Canton, which earned a trip to last year's state finals, bows out with a 25-11 dual-match record. Canton senior Donnie Watkins (135), who had two pins on the night, recorded his 150th career victory.

"I'm proud of them, they overachieved and we were not supposed to make it this far, and we nearly made it all the way back," Canton first-year coach Cory Mancuso said.

"After (Robert) Lincoln's match (at 285) and I thought we had it won, but I knew the 119 match would be tight tonight. My guy (Lucke) had won three-of-four, but he (Austin) just got the best of us tonight."

but it's up to her and what she can tolerate. If she can't play, I don't know. We have two or three other girls who are capable."

Pitching, however, is the name of the game in college women's softball and there's no one better in the NAIA ranks and wants to get better. She's a competitor."

Backing up Irwin on the mound is prize recruit Hallie Minch, who hurled Garden City last June to the state Class A championship.

"Minch will pitch a majority of our second games," White said. "She's got a devastating change-up. That's her bread-and-butter pitch, but she also throws with good velocity. We'll also give her a look in the outfield. If you hit, you'll play somewhere."

Another promising freshman is Katie Cooley of Monroe.

"Cooley has unbelievable power. She had our highest average in the fall. We have to get her in the lineup. Whether it's the sixth or seventh spot, we have to find some way, some how."

Howell ices Spartans in 'state' tuneup, 4-2

A pair of state-ranked Division 1 boys hockey teams closed out the regular season Wednesday night with No. 8-ranked Howell scoring three unanswered goals in the final period to best No. 7 Livonia Stevenson at Edgar Arena, 4-2.

Howell enters state tournament play at 20-3-1 overall, while Stevenson falls to 12-7-5.

Stevenson led 1-0 after one period on Justin Shureb's 18th goal of the season from Cole Rochowiak and R.J. Kierdorf.

In the second period, Howell's Ryan Johnson tied it up with his 17th of the season, but Stevenson's Matt Fox, off an assist from John Strauch, made it 2-1 at with 2:25 left in the same period.

Goals by Jordan Passino (15th) and Gabe Daavettilla (fifth) put the Highlanders ahead to stay in the final period. Brandon Marshall added an empty-netter, his 13th of the year, to put it out of reach.

Stevenson goaltender Richie Dunphy made 21 saves, while Howell's Tyler Keough had 23 stops.

"For two periods we played really well, but we had a couple of breakdowns in the third period where they capitalized," Stevenson coach David Mitchell said. "Come playoff time we hope to eliminate those breakdowns."

Stevenson opens Division 1 pre-regional action beginning at 8 p.m. Tuesday against No. 3-ranked Northville at the Novi Ice Rink.

CHURCHILL 2, W.L. NORTHERN 2: Collin Elkins scored a pair of goals, including a short-handed effort with only 4:40 to go to give Walled Lake Northern (14-8-2) a draw with host Livonia Churchill (9-10-5) in a KLA A crossover.

Elkins opened the scoring at 4:41 of the first period on a power-play goal from Matt Ranck and Greg Smith.

Churchill led 2-1 after two periods on Alec Smythe's power-play goal from Ken Masiarczyk at 2:30 followed by Jake Otto's goal from Rick Stack only 25 seconds later.

Northern, which took 11 penalties to Churchill's seven, then tallied the game-tying goal by Elkins with assists going to John Baker and Ranck.

Knights goaltender Connor Hellebuyck made 26 saves, while Churchill's Adrian Motta had 13 stops.

W.L. CENTRAL 4, FRANKLIN 1: In the regular season finale Wednesday at Edgar Arena, host Livonia Franklin (0-24) fell to Walled Lake Central (5-18-1).

It was 1-1 after one period as Zack Tuckklaper scored for the Vikings from Joe Leone, while Cyle Slinder countered for the Patriots from Brandon Kozyn and Cam Wludyka.

Central took a 3-1 lead after two periods on goals by Dominic Lis (from Russ Klimczak and Steve Kobliska) and Max Thomas (from Tom Reed).

Reed closed out the scoring in the final period from Tuckklaper and Thomas.

Central outshot Franklin, 38-12.

Indiana Tech eliminates Crusaders from tourney

The Madonna University men's basketball season came to an abrupt end Thursday night in the opening round of the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference playoffs held in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Shaun Cabrera scored a game-high 21 points to lead host Indiana Tech to a 70-61 triumph over the Crusaders, who finish the year at 12-20 overall.

Bryant Austin added 14 points, while Tim Browning and Brad Webster contributed 12 each for the Warriors, who overcame a dismal shooting performance (26-of-70 from the field).

Webster also grabbed a team-high nine rebounds as Tech (22-9) travels Saturday to take on Aquinas (23-9) in the WHAC semifinals.

Junior forward Noah Williams led the Crusaders, who couldn't overcome a 43-28 halftime led, with 15 points and six rebounds.

Senior guard Cedric Sims (Wayne Memorial), playing his final game as a Crusader, added 13 points and seven boards. Junior center Leroy Allen had 11 points, while 6-foot-8 freshman center Geoff Taylor contributed 10 points and 13 rebounds.

MU shot 42.8 percent from the field (27-of-63).

The Crusaders finished the season 3-4 under interim coach Myron Brown following the sudden resignation Feb. 4 by fourth-year coach Chuck Henry.

Miller time: Frosh lifts Ladywood

Freshman Cara Miller poured in 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds as Livonia Ladywood ended the regular season Thursday night with a 59-39 girls basketball win over visiting Detroit Pershing.

Molly Gacich chipped in with 15 points and 11 rebounds for the Blazers, who now stand at the .500 mark at 10-10 overall enter Monday night's Class A district clash at home against Salem. (Game time is 7:30 p.m.)

Senior Caitlin Szczycka also contributed 13 points and 11 rebounds for Ladywood, which pulled away in the second half after leading 26-19 at intermission.

Senee Shearer had 16 points for the Doughboys (9-4).

Ladywood was 12-of-17 from the foul line, while Pershing was

GIRLS HOOPS

5-of-9.

MT. CARMEL 48, HURON VALLEY 43: Rachel Czernota and Jessica Halasy each scored 11 points Friday as host Wyandotte Mount Carmel (3-17) downed Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (3-15) in a non-conference game.

Junior Claire Wood had 12 points and nine rebounds for the Hawks, who couldn't hold a 20-18 halftime lead. Senior Samantha Barber added 11 points.

"We had our opportunities tonight," Huron Valley coach Kris Ruth said. "But we shot only 37 percent from the floor and most of those shots were in the paint. (But) I was pleased with our defense."

LUTH. WESTLAND 46, URBAN 31: Allyson Yankee scored 19 points, added eight steals and grabbed six rebounds Thursday as Lutheran High Westland (10-8) prevailed at Detroit Urban Lutheran (7-10).

Also contributing to the Warriors' cause was Katey Ramthun, eight points and 12 rebounds; Emilie Freeman, eight points and seven boards; and Rachel Storck, 11 rebounds.

Brenee Draper led the Vikings with 22 points.

THURSTON 56, CLARENCEVILLE 44: Chelsea Carradine tallied 17 points and Ashley Wheeler added 14 Thursday to lead Redford Thurston (17-2) past Livonia Clarenceville (4-16) in a non-league encounter.

Thurston takes a 15-game winning streak into Monday's Class A district opener at home against Farmington. (Game time is 7 p.m.)

LIGGETT 45, HURON VALLEY 32: On Thursday, freshman Madison Ristovski racked up 26 points to power host Grosse Pointe Woods University-Liggett (10-9) to the non-conference win over Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (3-14).

Senior Samantha Barber tallied 10 for the Hawks, who trailed 29-11 at intermission.

MU baseball wins spring opener

The Madonna University baseball team used a nine-run eighth inning rally to down Lewis University (Ill.), 10-4, to open the 2009 season as part of the Russ Matt Invitational in Winter Haven, Fla.

MU starter Kéegan Beaton went six innings, striking out eight, while giving up just two earned runs in picking up the no-decision.

Freshman Tom Hansen went the next two innings, not allowing a hit while striking out two.

Fellow freshman Robert Fraser (Westland John Glenn) came in to get the win, throwing an inning. The right-hander struck out two for his first collegiate victory.

Reigning Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Player of the Year Kevin Zerbo (Farmington Hills Harrison) and sophomore Matt Kay (Canton) each clubbed homers in the win for the Crusaders.

After an off day on Saturday, the Crusaders return to the diamond Sunday for a double-header with William Penn (Pa.) in Auburndale, Fla. (Game time is 12:30 p.m.)

Goins leads Lady Ocelots to final

The Schoolcraft College women's basketball team, getting 26 points and six rebounds from April Goins, moved into the MCCA championship game with a convincing 94-59 semifinal triumph Friday over Kalamazoo Valley Community College at Mott CC's Ballenger Fieldhouse.

Lady Ocelots, who won their 18th straight, improved to 27-2 overall.

Goins had plenty of help with Taylor Langham (Salem) added 18 points, while Antania Shepherd and Angela Brown adding 15 and 12, respectively.

Sheray Brown grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds for Schoolcraft, which jumped out to a 49-29 halftime advantage.

The Lady Ocelots will face Lake Michigan CC (22-5), which defeated Oakland CC in the other semifinal, 69-61, in Saturday's championship game. Ja'ne Morton (Canton) led Kalamazoo Valley (22-6) with 19 points.

MADONNA 79, SIENA HEIGHTS 72: Alyssa Guerin (Salem) and Kim Olech (Plymouth) combined for 35 points, scoring 19 and 16, respectively, leading Madonna University (15-16) to a Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference quarterfinal triumph Wednesday over visiting Siena Heights (11-20).

COLLEGE HOOPS

The Crusaders moved on to the tourney semifinals Saturday to face 28-1 Davenport, the WHAC regular season champion and ranked No. 3 in the latest NAIA Division II poll.

Tabatha Wydryck and Christie Carrico chipped in with 12 and 11 points, respectively, for MU. They also combined for 13 assists.

RaShawnda Gates led the Saints, who couldn't overcome a 37-30 halftime deficit, with 14 points. Kara Cressett and Lauren Crockett added 12 and 11, respectively.

SCHOOLCRAFT 94, ST. CLAIR CC 50:

Brittany Collins dished out 11 assists to break the single season record Wednesday as the Lady Ocelots (26-2) rolled to a MCCA quarterfinal playoff victory over visiting St. Clair County Community College (18-11).

Collins, a 5-foot sophomore point-guard from Detroit Renaissance, raised her season total to 206 to eclipse the single season mark of 205 shared by Heidi Warczynski (2008) and Rachel Elery (2002).

April Goins led the Lady Ocelots in scoring with 23 points, while Taylor Langham (Salem) added 19.

Other contributions came from Amber Avery (14 points, nine rebounds), Sheray Brown (11 points, 16 rebounds) and Angela Burrell (nine points).

Chanah Putnam paced St. Clair (18-11) with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Abby Schlaegel also scored 10 for the Skippers, who committed a total of 25 turnovers and trailed 49-25 at the half.

Grieving owner goes beyond the paw print

Losing a good friend is never easy. It's been three years since Shamrock, our Irish Wolfhound, died of cancer and I still can recall the pain I felt after his death. It was sudden and I could have used a support group like the one Micky Golden Moore is starting March 9, at Orchard United Methodist Church in Farmington Hills. While many people have become understanding of losing a member of the family, others show indifference or downright callousness.

Moore lost Pablo and Nellie, the cats she lived with for 18 years just a month apart. She and husband Bud were devastated. Instead of wallowing in grief, Micky developed a program to help veterinarians care for the owners who are hurting. A series of losses had brought the Farmington Hills woman to the point of wanting to be able to help others.

Moore's father died of cancer in February 2003. During his illness the two went to support groups at the Karmanos Cancer Institute's Weisberg Center in Farmington Hills. Afterwards she began volunteering at the Institute as a patient advocate and was responsible for the success of the public speaking program she developed.

"He eventually ended up in hospice and I fell in love with the support group. Then my mother died three years later and I went into an abyss, a terrible depression," said Moore who worked in speech communication for 30 years. "I didn't know how to help myself. Then I found out about the hospice and bereavement program at Madonna University and started taking classes. The more I learned, the more I knew I wanted to help other people like myself. I was working through my grief and then

This photograph of Micky Golden Moore, Pablo (background) and Nellie was taken in happier days.

BEYOND THE PAW PRINT

What: A pet loss support group
When: Begins meeting 7-9 p.m. Monday, March 9, and continues the second month of every month Where: Orchard United Methodist Church, 30450 Farmington Road, south of 14 Mile, Farmington Hills. For information, call (248) 701-2345 or e-mail mgmoore@beyondthepawprint.com lost my two pets and there was nothing, no support group to help me, so I developed a program from what I learned through the hospice program." In the middle of the night Moore said she experienced an epiphany. All she had to hold onto after her pets' deaths were the concrete paw prints from her veterinarian. Moore needed more so she came up with idea of seeking and sharing solace through a pet loss support group. Beyond the Paw Print is meant to transform the grieving process.

"I don't want to be seen as a kook but some people laugh at you because of pet loss and grieving. We're disenfranchised, not acknowledged. What people don't understand they ignore or ridicule," said Moore who is currently serving an internship at Karmanos while finishing a master's degree in hospice studies at Madonna University in Livonia. "People are embarrassed about the emotion over a pet loss. You've got to turn your grief around. I turned it into something to help others. Talking helps grieving owners receive validation about their loss and encouragement to heal. I don't want anyone to stay in the abyss of their grief. People can't heal until they face their loss."

Zoo offers up Frog Fun Days

The Detroit Zoo invites visitors to "spring forward" into daylight-saving time while learning about endangered amphibians at Frog Fun Days March 7 and 8.

Frog Fun Days will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the National Amphibian Conservation Center and will include face painting, mask making, guessing games, zoo-keeper talks and a visit from the Rainforest Café tree frog mascot, Cha! Cha!. All Frog Fun Days activities are free with regular zoo admission.

The Frog Fun Days event continues the momentum from 2008's Year of the Frog, a global conservation campaign focusing on endangered amphibians and the critical work being done by zoos and aquariums to save them.

The Frog Fun Days weekend coincides with the Detroit Zoo's Wild Winter Zoobilee March 7 and 8 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Ford Education Center. Activities include animal arts and crafts, games, a scavenger hunt, animal enrichment, zookeeper talks and live performances by musical duo Gemini.

The Detroit Zoological Society is a nonprofit organization that operates the Detroit Zoo and Belle Isle Nature Zoo. Situated on 125 acres of naturalistic exhibits, the Detroit Zoo is located at the intersection of 10 Mile Road and Woodward Avenue, just off I-696, in Royal Oak. The Detroit Zoo is open daily 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. November through March and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. April through October. Admission is $11 for adults 15 to 61, $9 for senior citizens 62 and older, and $7 for children ages 2 to 14; children under 2 are free.

For more information, call (248) 541-5717 or visit www.detroitzoo.org. The Belle Isle Nature Zoo is open daily 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. year-round and provides educational programming with interpretive staff support from the Huron-Clinton Metroparks. Admission is free. For more information, call (313) 852-4056.

Learn about lowering your cholesterol, while sampling food from local farmers and vendors at "Friday Night Live," an informational seminar, from 6-10 p.m. Friday, March 6, at Life Christian Center, 3193 Rochester Road, Troy.

Healthy Traditions Network, the Metro-Detroit chapter of the Weston A. Price Foundation, will present the event, which features psychologist Steven Fischer, Ph.D.

He'll talk about the latest methods for lowering cholesterol and explain why cholesterol-lowering drugs may cause more harm than good.

Cost is $25 if pre-registered by March 4. Cost at the door is $35.

The first 50 people to register will receive a Health Traditions Network shopping bag.

For online pre-registration or more information, visit www.htnetwork.org, or call (248) 828-8494.

Make checks payable to Healthy Traditions Network and mail to: 4921 Leafdale Blvd, Royal Oak, MI 48073.

Payment must be received by March 4 for $25 pre-registration special.

Healthy Traditions Network is a nonprofit organization connecting like-minded people and communities to farms and other sources dedicated to providing nutrient-dense foods. The network strives to provide opportunities to learn about and experience foods that sustain and uplift.

The intention of this network is to support those trying to create better health through education and by improving their dietary practices according to the ancient wisdom of traditional cultures as shown by the research of Weston Price and written about in Sally Fallon's Nourishing Traditions cookbook.

As a local chapter of the Weston A. Price Foundation, the Network promotes the work of the Foundation at the local level.

Keep kids and canines safe

The economic crisis is definitely having an effect on humans seeking the companionship of animals, says Terri Bennett. In 34 years of owning Specialty Pet Supplies in Plymouth, she's never seen so many customers coming into the store in search of supplies for the newest members of the family. That's why she's offering a seminar to educate kids and parents about preventing dog bites 1 p.m. Sunday, March 8.

"I noticed this Christmas season as the economy got worse people were focusing on home and deciding on Susie having that kitty. They're adopting and buying. Our rescue groups say as quickly as they come in they go out. That's why education is beneficial," said Bennett. "We're making sure they have cages, toys, but with all this new interest owners need to learn about the proper care of pets."

"Common sense is not always common. Education can go a long way to make sure children keep from getting injured. I'm a big believer in prevention. It's important to pick the right temperament, size, and the more you can instill in people about what to expect, what to avoid, the better and since spring is a good time to start looking for a puppy they're hungry for information."

Bonny Wainz, master trainer and behaviorist, came up with the idea for the seminar after hearing too many stories about children traumatized for life after being bitten by dogs who were later euthanized. Kids and Canines: Keep Them Safe is an interactive presentation to teach children and adults about not approaching dogs in certain situations. A coloring book, illustrated by artist Gwen Dietrich of Canton, allows children, especially the very young, to retain the lessons. It's important that everyone learn not to approach strange dogs quickly and without the owner's permission, as well as what to do when approached by a dog they don't know on the street. Wainz talks about never bothering a dog while it's eating, sleeping or playing with a toy. And never to chase a dog around with a stick.

"It's for kids and parents because parents need to know as well," said Wainz of Alternative Canine Training. "It's kid based, kept at a kid level so they understand what they're learning. I tell them mom and dad have rules, now you have rules for dogs: how to meet a dog. I teach them Doglish or how to read dogs. How do you know when a dog is aggressive or happy? The 10 things they should never do."

"I have them walk the dogs. One woman wanted to walk Eclipse because she was afraid of dogs," said Wainz of Royal Oak. "We'll have a bean bag toss into a dog food bowl for kids afterwards with prizes. It's for ages from about 5 on up. There's no charge but we would like them to register so we have enough coloring books."

In transition Center changes for the better

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
O&E STAFF WRITER

Stacey Stover worries the economic crisis combined with the Women's Resource Center name change could mean fewer tickets sold for the annual fundraiser March 10 at Schoolcraft College. The Spaghetti Dinner and Wine Glow usually sells out the DiPonio Room in the VisiTech Center. Last year 435 supporters raised $15,000 for scholarships to help women and men displaced by divorce or loss of a job.

This year tickets are still a bargain at $30. The name change could cause some confusion though. On Dec. 9, Schoolcraft College announced the WRC was becoming the Transitions Center. In addition to helping stay-at-home moms pursue an education, the center expanded its services to offer financial planning, volunteer income tax assistance and support for workers in transition. The Family Resources program provides recruiting information. Student Engagement not only expanded Women's History Month programming, but assists students with building their academic schedules and attracts high school age youth to the campus with its Women on the Way.

"We're adding new services, blending departments," said Stover, who was supervisor for student recruitment and activities until September when she became center director. "We still receive calls from women, domestic violence survivors, seeking housing but also from males interested in checking out the culinary arts program. We're helping with transitions in all of the areas students are experiencing transitions. We're known for working one on one and offering personalized assistance."

"The change allowed us to expand to meet growing needs. An adult student who's a displaced worker can sit down and we can walk them through the process. We serve as an ombudsman, a family resource in times of illness, accident, crisis that gives families a place to go. New is helping students with their schedules. We're excited. We have a new Web site, www.schoolcraft.edu/transitions, but the money (from the fund-raiser) still goes to scholarships for Transitions Center students."

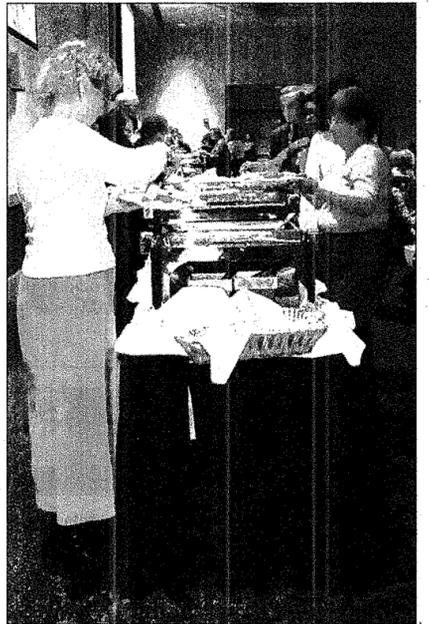

POSITIVE CHANGES

WRC always helped males but by leaving women out of the name they hope to attract even more. One of the key offerings has been CHIPS, a program teaching computer skills.

"We're still retaining our history, maintaining the strengths and identities in the past and expanding because of economic needs," Stover said. "For the

SPAGHETTI DINNER & WINE GLOW

What: Schoolcraft College's Transitions Center hosts its annual dinner to raise money for scholarships.
When: Tuesday, March 10. The evening includes a 6 p.m. Wine Glow, 7 p.m. dinner, and 8 p.m. program.
Where: VisiTech Center at Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty, between Six Mile and Seven Mile, Livonia.
Tickets: $30, sponsorships $75 (includes two dinners and program listing). Advertisements available for $20 to $100. Call (734) 462-4443.

2006-2007 school year 80 percent of those helped by the center were employed after graduation, 75 percent employed in their field."

This year's dinner has expanded as well to include tortellini, carafes of wine on the table and tiramisu for dessert. Afterwards a video will highlight the changes. Charlotte O'Connor sees the transition as positive even though the name change has caused rumbblings in the center. The word women was removed as a result of passage of the Michigan Civil Rights Initiative Proposal 2 in 2006 banning affirmative action.

"It's not a secret the initiative influenced this," said O'Connor, who oversees 45 center volunteers. She's worked in the center for 5 1/2 years. "The Michigan Civil Rights Initiative says we can not use public dollars for a specific group. The message is we're still helping the same people, but trying to cast a broader net seeing a lot more people in a time of the economy crisis. The people we see — that's the story. We help people who fall between the cracks. We see older adults displaced by the economy and divorce, women who have been at home without an education and skills. We're seeing the poorest of the poor."

SPOTLIGHT ON YOUR DENTAL HEALTH

Presented by Andrea S. Vivian, D.D.S.

NAVIGATING THE ROOT CANAL

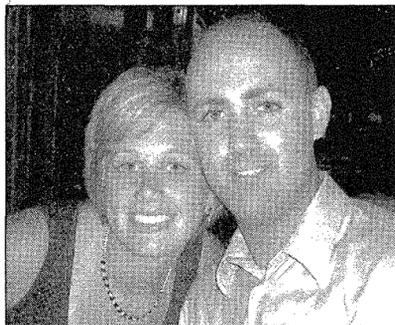

When the pulp tissue containing a tooth's nerve and blood vessels is damaged beyond repair, it is necessary to undergo root canal therapy. The first step in this treatment, called a pulpectomy, involves removal of the pulp from the chamber and canal(s). This is accomplished by drilling a small opening through the enamel and dentin, into which small endodontic files can be inserted to clean out the canal(s) that contain the nerve and blood vessels. The canal(s) are then cleaned, shaped, and smoothed. Finally, the canal(s) are filled with a rubbery filling material known as guttapercha. Root canal therapy, which is conducted with local anesthetic, relieves the pain caused by damage to the inner tooth, it does not cause it.

Do you have questions about your children's dental health? February is National Children's Dental Health Month, the perfect time to address any concerns you may have about their teeth and gums. Our philosophy is not only to treat dental needs, but more importantly, to educate our patients to prevent future problems. To this end, our mission is to provide open and free communication and the highest standard of care in an environment of health, mutual understanding, and respect. We have office hours by appointment at 496 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Ste. 201, Plymouth. Please call 734-453-9413.

PS. Infections that make root canal therapy necessary are often caused by bacteria that enter the pulp chambers through tooth fractures or decay.

Starfish helps kids, families

BY JULIE BROWN
OGE STAFF WRITER

Last year, Starfish Family Services helped more than 9,000 kids and families. The agency, on Hiveley in Inkster with additional offices nearby, began 45 years ago to help children in foster care.

Its name and mission have changed somewhat in that time, according to Paula Brown, chief development officer.

"Our families are very much dealing with the issues of poverty," said Brown, who lives in Plymouth Township. Brown, speaking Feb. 19 to the Westland Rotary, noted 70 percent of Inkster residents receive free/reduced school lunches.

Starfish services include emergency food, along with seasonal clothing for children; a teen shelter and crisis center where youth age 10 and up can stay for up to 14 days; and mental health counseling that is offered to young people and adults through Westland and Livonia locations. Staffers focus efforts on families with children.

"Many of our parents are single moms, very young, some of them. We do everything we can to hold that family together."

The Starfish Family Resource Center in Inkster houses a gym where parents can play with their children. Staff lends a guiding hand, helping moms and moms-to-be understand that they should hold their children and read to them.

Staffers see about 700 children a day in Head Start and Early Head Start, which help children prepare for school. Starfish works with partners to avoid utility shutoff, which can lead to children being removed from the home.

The agency has an organic garden where children help food to grow. "By August, we've got eggplant like this," Brown said, holding her hands wide apart. The children take pride in their contributions to the garden.

Starfish focuses on the family life cycle from birth, to school readiness and into the teen years. They've continued some help for young people coming out of foster care due to age, who face limited options.

The agency, with a $12 million budget, received a $1 million Fisher Foundation grant to work with young families over three years, "as far as what poverty is doing to their lives."

By the third year, families will counsel each other, Brown said.

With help of the McGregor Fund, more families can participate.

"They are now moving toward independence and having hope for their future," she said.

David Ingham, a Rotarian and principal at Westland John Glenn High School, praised Starfish: "They do a nice job helping families," Ingham said.

MORE ON KNEE INJECTIONS

When a patient comes to a doctor's office with a swollen knee, the need to remove fluid from the knee and inject a steroid medication may seem evident. Aspirating the excess fluid allows the knee joint to function better, and injecting a steroid provides a means of resolving present irritation and preventing further inflammation.

Can patients expect a possible knee injection if they have knee pain but no swelling, that is, no evidence of any fluid in the knee? The answer is yes, a knee injection will may be the treatment of choice.

Before undertaking such treatment, the doctor will try to diagnose the problem. Instances where a person could have knee pain but no knee effusion include a meniscal or ligament tear, a bone bruise or bone cyst or a deposit of calcium crystals in the joint. Often knee x-rays will uncover these abnormalities, but not always.

Injecting the knee with a steroid at the time the patient presents with pain helps in several ways. First, the injection relieves pain in a timely manner. Second, a good response to the injection may last for months or more, making it unnecessary to go forward with further studies or immediate surgery. Third, a good response supports the diagnosis that the problem is not a tumor or cancer that if left alone will cause serious impairment at a later date.

The purpose of knee injections is to resolve pain. The presence of fluid gives the physician another reason to undertake the procedure. The absence of fluid does not deter him from the task.

Mind-body connection

New hospital like visiting northern Michigan

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
O&E STAFF WRITER

Patients might feel like they're going on vacation when they need medical care at the new Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital. Every effort has been made to combine nature with good food and relaxation to speed healing and reduce the unpleasantness associated with leaving home for treatment.

The $360 million facility opens March 15 with 191 private rooms that not only block out noise but make it possible to have a restful night's sleep by adjusting schedules so nurses, whenever possible, aren't taking temperatures in the middle of the night.

A committee researched over 600 articles that showed design elements could reduce the stress on bodies and minds as well as shorten stays.

"Studies have shown that private rooms can reduce infection rates by 50 percent," said Dr. Michael Seidman, director of Vita, the wellness center offering complimentary therapies in the hospital.

Safety and compassionate care were major concerns when designing the 730,000-square-foot structure that blends into the existing Henry Ford Medical Center. Christine Zambricki stopped to inhale the scent of one of the elements, the towering ficus trees, as she led a tour of the new structure last Monday.

Dr. Michael Seidman and Christine Zambricki stand in the state-of-the-art Technology Wing at the new Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital.

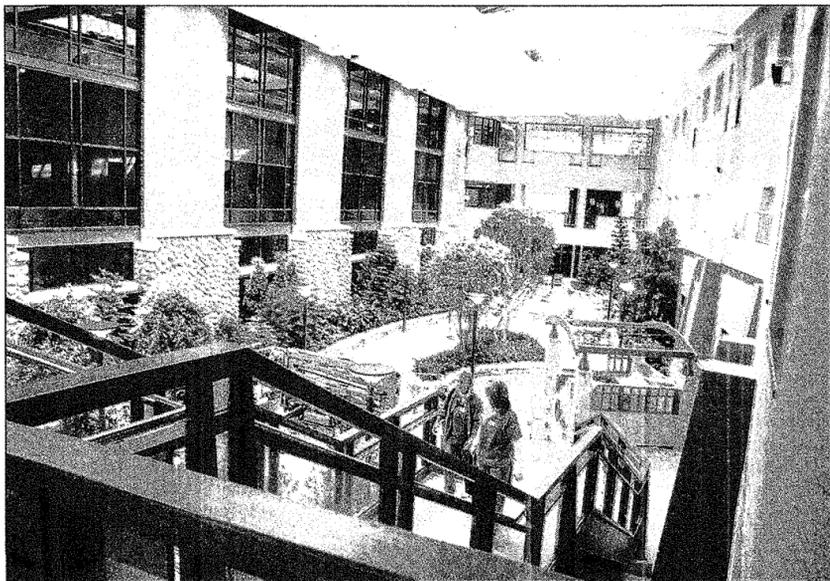

Decorative leaves on the wall sconces and winding paths in the floors add to the tranquil Northern Michigan-like environment.

"The curved walls prevent dust and dirt in corners and gives a warmer feeling," said Zambricki, chief operating and nursing officer and a Bloomfield Hills resident. "So much love went into the building. The quiet atrium is for reflection with an interfaith sanctuary and a storeroom for prayer rugs. All of the patient bedrooms look out on the atrium or outdoor pond. There are sleep sofas so families can sleep in the room and we've upgraded ceiling tiles to absorb sound. Most of the decibel level comes from the corridor which is now 15 to 20 feet from the bed and frequently guarded by a glass door."

While patient comfort was a consideration, no expense was spared equipping the technology wing, which includes four new state-of-the-art surgical suites and the emergency room. By August, another six operating rooms will open as six old ones in the medical center close. The green lighting is meant to improve visual acuity.

"This is no ordinary community hospital. We're licensed for 300 rooms and hope to keep building," said Zambricki. "We're cutting wait time in the ER for patients 30 percent. The typical ER room has a glass door wall and is larger than an 8-by-10 so family could be together. It gives total auditory privacy so a woman losing a child can't hear a child being born."

Decontamination and trauma rooms in the ER allow staff to handle disasters. The hospital offers a range of services from critical care to pediatrics.

On the lower level Chef Matt Prentice passes out samples of the strawberry sorbet made for patients who eat the same food as served in Henry's, the cafeteria. Previously he showed off the refrigerated locker where the organic red leaf lettuce is kept.

"It's all fresh," said Seidman. "Hippocrates said, let thy food be thy medicine. If you don't put proper food into the body it doesn't function properly."

Prentice developed 600 recipes for the hospital menu and trained and hired the kitchen staff. The Matt Prentice Restaurant Group owns a number of area restaurants including Coach Insignia at the Renaissance Center in downtown Detroit.

"I spent last summer writing a manual on healthy eating for the staff to follow," said Prentice of West Bloomfield. "I use no salt and lots of herbs."

Trained as a medical doctor, Seidman became curious about non-traditional medicine many years ago. He believes equally in prevention.

Today he's excited about Vita, which offers wellness counseling, a mind-body studio for yoga classes, skin care treatment to reverse sun damage and acne, and complementary therapies like hot stone massage, acupuncture and chiropractic care. Free wig and makeup consultation are available at no charge for cancer patients from any hospital, not just Henry Ford.

A relaxation room with a neuroacoustic chair resonates and vibrates through the body with speakers for relaxation, which has been shown to enhance the healing process. A behavioral therapist provides services such as biofeedback and hypnotherapy.

"We use acupuncture before surgery to help heal, reduce pain, fire up the immune systems, preparing body and mind before surgery," said Seidman.

"We're also linking with Schoolcraft (College Culinary Arts program) to teach classes to cook healthy."

Classes focus on cancer survivorship

Survivorship University, a community-based education program of the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute, offers free lectures to help cancer survivors, their families and caretakers navigate the everyday challenges of living with, through and beyond cancer. The classes encourage and support the personal empowerment and advocacy of cancer survivorship. To register for the free spring 2009 classes, call 1-800-KARMANOS (1-800-527-6266) or visit www.karmanos.org.

The Ride of Your Life: Developing a Positive Attitude (F605) sessions are held 6-7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 4, at the Karmanos' Weisberg Cancer Treatment Center, 31995 Northwestern Hwy., Farmington Hills; and Wednesday, March 25, at the Mount Clemens Regional Medical Center's Wahby Cancer Center, 1000

Harrington Blvd.

Author John Ricco talks about adversity. Ricco fought his way past a cancer diagnosis with treatment, support and, most importantly, an eye on the future. He found while he was writing about his ordeal, there were many other people who had been through other life-altering experiences and they came through it because of their positive attitude. This lecture is for anyone who has experi-
