Educating voters pays off; W-W sinking fund renewed

By Sue Mason
Observer Staff Writer

Education is the key to success for Wayne-Westland Community Schools.

Of seven millage requests that appeared on Tuesday's Presidential primary ballot in Wayne County, the Grosse Pointe Library tax and Wayne-Westland's 10-year sinking fund renewal were the only ones to be approved by voters.

"We are grateful that the residents of Wayne-Westland continue to see the value in education and support our children and schools," said Wayne-Westland School Superintendent Greg Baracy.

"This support will allow the district to maintain quality school environments for our students to learn and our teachers to teach."

In unofficial results, the .9922-mill tax renewal was approved by a 2,211-vote margin - 5,188 yes votes to 2,977 no votes. In Westland, the largest portion of the district, almost two-thirds of the votes cast favored the renewal. Yes tally was 3,427 votes compared to 1,889 no votes.

'Huge number'

"I'm really excited about this, 5,000 yes votes, that's a huge number," said Baracy. "I'm very pleased with that."

In the month leading up to the election, school officials made numerous presentations to educate residents throughout the district, which includes the city of Wayne and portions of Canton Township, Inkster and Romulus,

Westland joins state in backing Romney

While Westland residents Karen and Glenn Wright weren't expecting to have to choose from among three ballots to vote in the presidential primary Tuesday, it didn't slow them down.

"It was no problem. We knew what we would do," said Karen Wright.

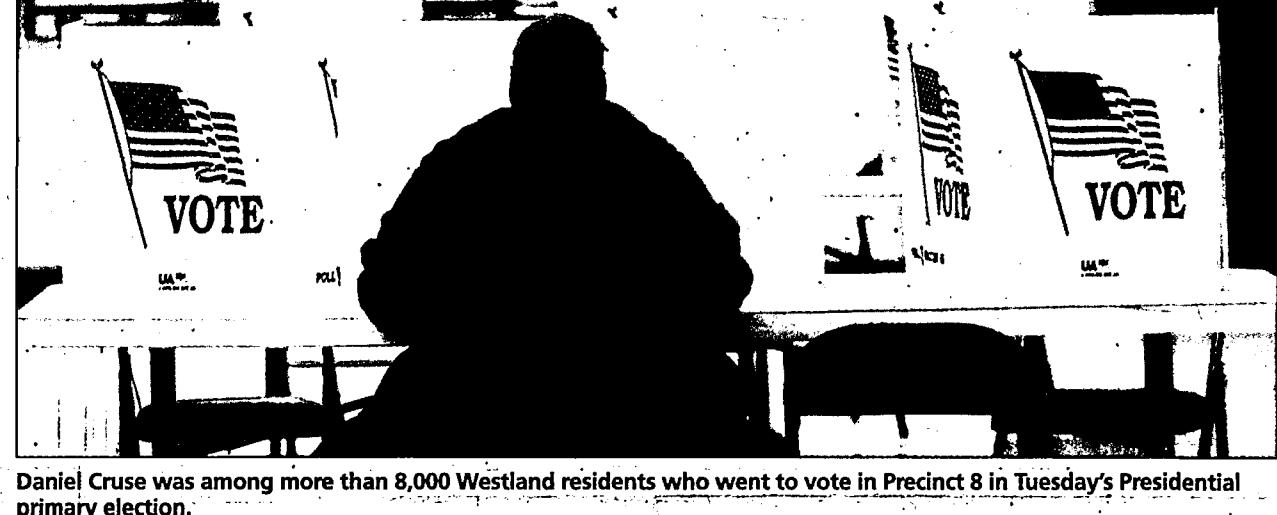

"I knew for a long time what I would do. I'm a Republican and a Teabagger," said Glenn Wright, who added he didn't object to the nickname for Tea Party supporters. "I've been called a lot worse."

Both the Wrights reported voting Republican and supporting Mitt Romney over primary challenger Rick Santorum, a former Pennsylvania senator.

"I like everything about him (Romney). He's not a Democrat number one. He's not (President Barack) Obama - that would number one A," said Glenn Wright. "Santorum seems to be some sort of religious fanatic. There should be some separation of church and state. Mitt is more kind of like me."

Almost 14 percent of Westland's 61,206 registered voters went to the polls on Tuesday.

Those who participated in the Republican primary favored Romney. The former Massachusetts governor narrowly defeated Santorum with just 150 votes in unofficial results. He garnered 2,229 votes to Santorum's 2,079 votes.

Daniel Cruse was among more than 8,000 Westland residents who went to vote in Precinct 8 in Tuesday's Presidential primary election.

Poll workers Laurel White, Mel Pomerantz and Kelly Bates wait for Walter Grant to complete his registration form.

Pleased with field

Describing himself as pretty pleased with the Republican field of candidates, Glenn Wright said he did wish New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie was in the race.

Voting in Precinct 4, also housed in the Bailey Center, John Higgins said that he is a non-partisan voter and has been all of his life.

"I took the Democratic ballot. I guess that tells you who I voted for. I supported the (Wayne-Westland Schools) sinking fund question," said Higgins. "They had samples (ballots) so you can go over it before you go in and request the ballot."

The candidates haven't been focusing enough on what they would do if elected, he said, instead talking in their commercial about other candidates being incapable.

"I think they are not focusing on the issues that are important in a specific sense to every day working people," said Higgins. "They need to give more attention to that if they want to be taken seriously. They need to realize the people voting are actually working for a living."

Another voter, Josh Weir, said he considers himself a Republican and voted in the Republican primary.

"I'm becoming more independent. I supported Ron Paul. I think he's not afraid to state ideas that might not be the most popular," he said. "Most candidates say what they need to get elected. I think he is different."

For Weir, a bank mortgage underwriter, said that the economy is a big concern as it is for everyone. "But social issues are just as a big an impact on my vote," he said.

Light turnout

There was no waiting as Westland voters went to the polls Tuesday to cast their ballots in the presidential primary which had a close race between Republicans Mitt Romney and Rick Santorum. The voting was relatively low key in the traditionally Democratic community - Obama was the only candidate listed on the Democratic ballot.

Of the 2,308 residents who voted Democratic, 85.44 percent - 1,878 votes - favored Obama. Another 311 were uncommitted and there were nine write-in votes.

By 11:15 a.m., Precinct 8, one of two located in the Bailey Recreation Center, had seen only 37 voters. "Some voters weren't happy at having to choose a ballot (Republican or Democrat). They thought it violated their (Constitutional right to) privacy," said Kelly Bates, Precinct 8 chairperson.

A couple of voters even announced they were planning to head to City Hall to complain. Voters had to decide whether to vote in the Republican or Democratic primary but those living in the Wayne-Westland Community Schools had a third choice - opting out of the primary and only voting a the nearly one-mill sinking fund renewal.

about the millage request.

Baracy conducted 60 informational meetings with parent and labor groups, ministers and senior citizens. In an e-mail Wednesday morning, he extended a heartfelt thank you for their support in helping with the sinking fund efforts. "It was an overwhelming success and illustrates that the community values our educational system and the children we serve," Baracy said. "When a school and community come together, wonderful things can happen. Thank you for everything you do for our children and remember ... Great Futures Start Right Here."

The request was a renewal of a sinking fund millage approved by voters in 2003. That request is in its last year, with the last levy to appear on the July tax bill. In the first 10 years, the money was used to make capital improvements - new elementary media centers, additional gymnasiums at the high schools and parking lot improvements among other things.

"This a true testament that residents like what they've seen done over that past 10 years with sinking fund and bond issue," he said.

Going forward

The renewal will generate $1.9 million the first year and an estimated $19 million over 10 years. It will be used to make repairs and renovations to keep the district's buildings in good condition.

"We're facing major roof repairs for most of our buildings, several elementary kitchen renovations, numerous boilers and chillers, some major plumbing and bathroom renovations, parking lot resurfacing and other significant repairs going forward," said Baracy. "All of them will be done on a priority basis."

"I personally want to extend a heartfelt thank you to all who supported the sinking fund and worked to share accurate and factual information," he added.

Walk 'warms up' neighborhoods

By Sue Mason
Observer Staff Writer

Hundreds of people will be putting on their walking shoes to help families in out-Wayne County who have been struggling to stay warm this winter season.

Wayne Metropolitan Community Action Agency will host its 16th annual Walk for Warmth Saturday, March 3, at Westland Shopping Center. The walk is the agency's only fundraising event and provides money to assist families in desperate need of utility assistance.

"There is a tremendous need for utility assistance and Walk for Warmth funds really help us provide a valuable service," said Louis Piszker, Wayne Metro CEO.

This is the second year the walk has been held at Westland Shopping Center and the hope is to have attract at least 400 walkers and raise more than $50,000 to provide utility assistance to families that don't qualify for help under other programs. That's the number of walkers and money raised last year, allowing the agency to help more than 1,000 families.

Help needed

"The money raised will be unrestricted money that helps the agency help families that don't meet the guidelines of other programs," said Erin Southward, communications manager for Wayne Metropolitan Community Action Agency. "We just received utility assistance from our funders at the state level. We haven't had any assistance available since before the holidays."

"The funding had been totally cut, so for those who called during the holidays, there was nothing to give. That's why this is so needed," she said.

The walk will be 9 a.m. to noon and is designed to be a fun, uplifting and positive event for the entire family. It includes a clown, entertainment, team awards and door prizes. There will be awards presented in both youth and adult categories for Best Team Name, Most Team Spirit, Highest Total Pledges and Largest Team of Walkers.

Teams must include at least five walkers, however, individuals can participate. Walkers are asked to raise a minimum of $15 and the first 300 who raise that amount will receive a Walk for Warmth T-shirt. Walkers also will receive bags filled with coupons from mall merchants.

The individual who raises the most money exceeding $1,000 will win the grand prize of a two-night stay at the Grand Traverse Resort and Spa in Acme.

"It's really a lot of fun. Teams get pretty competitive and it's all for a great cause," said Piszker.

There also will be a silent auction, featuring an overnight stay at Boyne Highlands, free lift tickets for Crystal Mountain and an autographed Detroit Red Wings Johan Franzen hockey puck.

Wayne County Executive Robert Ficano and Westland Mayor William Wild are serving as honorary chairs for the event. Ficano will be on hand for the walk as will be other elected officials, Southward said.

Organizers are hoping to attract as many participants as last year for the 2012 Walk for Warmth at Westland Shopping Center Saturday.

Year-round help

People who don't want to walk also can make donations at the event or at anytime during the year.

"We accept money for the Walk for Warmth year round," said Southward. "People can make donations in July, if they want. The more money we raise, the more people we can help."

This is the second year the walk has been held at the mall, and, according to Southward, the center has "been great to work with."

"They've helped us advertise it and have helped us partner with businesses they have a relationship with," she said.

As the community action agency for the 42 communities in out-Wayne County, Wayne Metro offers more than 50 programs to assist income-eligible community residents. Included in its service area are Westland, Garden City, Canton Township, Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Redford, Livonia and Northville.

Report: $5,000 in rims stolen from box truck

WESTLAND

Break-in

Just before 1 a.m. Feb. 28, police responded to an alarm call at a home in the 1900 block of South Venoy. The suspects had fled eastbound from the rear of the home and a police dog was brought to attempt a track.

The dog tracked through a muddy field to the rear of a residence in the 32000 block of Leelanau where a 17-year-old Westland man was located wearing wet and muddy slacks.

Detained by an officer, the man admitted to being one of the people responsible for breaking into the home. The suspect told police he kicked the home's door while his friend used a pry bar to open it. He said they were looking for money and power tools to steal.

The pair were frightened when someone arrived at the home, he told police. The man indicated he had dropped out of ninth grade at Wayne Memorial High School.

Larceny

An employee at Westgate Auto Parts, 156 S. Newburgh, told police Feb. 27 that someone had stolen 200-300 used automobile rims from a box truck used for storage. The rims were valued at $5,000. A large piece of the fencing that surrounds the property had been cut and removed.

Break-in

On Feb. 26, a resident in the 300 block of Marigold Circle told police that he returned home to find someone had kicked the door open. The door frame had been split down the middle.

The bedroom had been ransacked. The owner reported a digital camera, a 42-inch plasma television, an Xbox 360 with games and controllers and a fossil valued at $2,720 had been stolen.

The owner initially also reported a semi-automatic handgun stolen but later told police he had located the gun.

Break-in

An Inkster man told police that he went to check on his mother's home in the 300 block of Daniel Feb. 27 and found the door had been kicked in. The deadbolt and door frame was damaged but no access had apparently been made to the home.

He said the alarm system may have scared the intruder away.

Garden City firefighters douse flames the engulfed the engine compartment and interior of 1994 Saturn.

Fire damages GC man's car

The Garden City Fire Department responded to a car fire about 1 p.m. Feb. 27 in the 33400 block of Brown.

Upon arrival, they found a 1994 Saturn on fire in the driveway.

"The fire fully involved the engine compartment and extended into the interior passenger compartment," said Garden City Fire Chief Catherine Harman. "The owner reported having just returned from work and a neighbor alerted him his car was on fire."

The cause of the fire is undetermined at this time.

The owner reported his car had been running fine, but he did replace the ignition about three weeks ago. There was no evidence to indicate the fire was anything but accidental, Harman said.

Resident finds van stolen from apartment lot

GARDEN CITY

Stolen vehicle

The owner of a 2001 Dodge Caravan told police Feb. 21 that somebody stole his vehicle overnight. It was parked in the lot of an apartment located in the 31000 block of Block.

The police found damage where the vehicle had been parked. The passenger door handle was broken.

The owner said that this was the second time that the vehicle was stolen. The first time that it was stolen was in September 2011. The vehicle was recovered in the area of Krauter and Merriman.

Attempted break-in

A burglar was unable to gain entry into a store located at 155 N. Inkster Road on Feb. 22. An employee reported that someone used a brick to shatter a window on the main entry door. The police found the brick on the ground and are investigating a video.

Theft

An employee reported the theft of frames and sunglasses recently from the SVS Vision store at 5908 Middlebelt. He said that one customer seems to bring more and more "friends" into the store, and one customer was spotted trying to place expensive frames into a case Feb. 22.

Suspended license

The police arrested a 40-year-old Southfield woman for driving with a suspended license in the area of Ford and Central Feb. 21.

The woman said that the Ford Taurus she was driving was registered to her daughter. She also was arrested on a warrant in a surrounding community.

Home invasion

A resident in the 2000 block of Gilman reported that someone stole his flat screen TV with DVD player Feb. 26 while he was sleeping. He said

Property damage

A resident in the 3000 block of Marquette reported at 10 a.m., Feb. 26 that she found two BB holes in her picture window.

She also found a BB hole in her aluminum siding about a month ago.

Goci announces plans to run for Congress

Westland Democrat resident John Goci has announced his intention to run for Congress in Michigan's 13th District.

A Wayne-Westland Community Schools board member, Goci said he knows firsthand how federal policies impact communities. At a time when some politicians say the federal bailout of the automotive companies was the wrong move, Goci said he feels it saved not only General Motors, Chrysler and thousands of jobs, but also entire communities. His restaurant, for one, depends upon the patronage of local auto workers, he said, adding most businesses in southeast Michigan are in the same boat.

"My neighbors are struggling financially, and I am well aware that they and their kids are paying the severe price of joblessness and financial decline. I simply cannot stand by and tolerate politics as usual," Goci said.

Change needed

He vows to bring his business and entrepreneurial skills, commitment to public education, and independent voice to Washington, Goci said. He feels the residents of Michigan need a change.

"For decades we have been represented by persons who claim to represent the disenfranchised and working persons of Michigan," Goci said. "Are we in better shape now than before? What has happened to the American Dream? The fact is that the familiar faces in Michigan politics got us into our current financial, educational, and political crisis and simply cannot be trusted to get us out of it."

"I come from the people and it is for the good of the people, and not special interest groups, I will steadfastly fight," he said.

Like millions of other immigrants, Goci said he came to these shores in search of a better life. At the age of 9, Goci and his family left a mountainous region of Kosovo, where poverty was common and government oppression made life difficult, and staked their fortunes on making it in America.

The family moved to Westland, where Goci and his siblings enrolled in the public schools and his family purchased a restaurant in the city of Wayne. It was a family operation through and through, Goci said, adding he spent countless hours working there throughout his teen years.

Goci now manages the business along with his brother, Scott. In addition to the blood, sweat and tears he has put into the US 12 American Bar and Grill over the last 30 years, Goci said that he and his family have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars into the venture.

Answered the call

In 1999, when war broke out in his native Kosovo, the U.S. Army was in need of Albanian-speaking translators. Goci said he answered the call, serving as a linguistic specialist for the Commander of the U.S. military forces, Gen. John Craddock. Sen. Carl Levin (D-Michigan), who traveled to Kosovo during the war, honored Goci for his service in a speech.

In 2000, Goci said his entrepreneurial spirit flared up again when he took his idea for a juke box that featured music videos and tried to make it a reality. He said he remortgaged his home, borrowed money where he could and founded Digital Video Jukebox Network, Inc., later to become Barden Entertainment when he partnered with the late businessman Don Barden. Goci served as president of Barden Entertainment until 2008.

As an inventor, Goci holds patents for his digital jukebox and an electronic voting system.

Being a business owner wasn't enough, however, Goci said, as he wanted to be more active in his community.

Local service

When a seat opened up on the Wayne-Westland Schools Board of Education, he decided it was time for him to serve. He said he felt his business acumen could help the district, where his four children attend school. He was elected in 2009, and then re-elected a year later. Goci now serves as the board's vice president.

As a public education advocate, he said he feels it is vitally important to ensure equitable funding for all public schools.

Like millions of other frustrated Americans, Goci has watched with dismay as partisan politics have dominated Washington, D.C., creating a never ending atmosphere of gridlock. That is why he said he has decided to follow a lifelong dream to run for Congress, which began when he took a seventh-grade class trip to Washington.

Goci is joining a crowded field of Democratic contenders in the redistricted 13th District. No Republicans have yet filed. Already in the race are John Conyers, Jr., currently representing Michigan's 14th Congressional District; state Sen. Glenn Anderson, D-Westland; attorney Godfrey Dillard; State Rep. Shanelle Jackson, D-Detroit and State Sen. Bert Johnson, D-Highland Park.

Service planned for union activist, celebrated waitress Pearl Asher

A memorial service will be held Saturday, March 3, at the First United Methodist Church in Ann Arbor for long-time Westland resident Pearl Eldora Asher.

An "uncompromising union activist," devoted mother, doting grandmother and celebrated waitress, Mrs. Asher died in her sleep on Feb. 21. She was 84.

Mrs. Asher lived at the Holiday Park Townhouse Cooperative in Westland, following a career which began in union activism that landed her in jail briefly in 1951 for her involvement in a workplace strike.

"She was a 30-year Westland resident who finished her career running the counter at the Senate Coney Island on Plymouth Road," said her son Richard Asher. "Mom hasn't worked at the Senate for 10 years, yet people still remember her."

It was during the labor strike that she met her future husband George Asher. She went on to become a celebrated waitress at many high-end Detroit area restaurants, ultimately being lauded by local media for her abilities.

Although she worked many split shifts over the years to support her children after the untimely deaths of her late husbands, George Asher and Lewis Craig, she also made time to be both mother and father to her five children and became an integral part of her nine grandchildren's lives.

Born March 21, 1927, Mrs. Asher left school before graduating in order to help her parents support a family of seven children. By the age of 16, she had become somewhat of a surrogate mother to her three-year-old sister Connie. Her involvement with her younger sister was so great that many observers who didn't know Mrs. Asher thought she actually was Connie's mother, according to her son.

She married Craig Lewis in 1946. The couple later divorced, leaving her to raise their son Patrick who was born in 1947.

In the early 1950s, she worked at Richard's Drive-In, the site of the Teamsters strike which landed her and future husband and highly successful union negotiator George in jail for contempt of court. According to a 1951 Detroit Free Press article, Mrs. Asher wept openly when her sentence was pronounced after being found guilty of failing to testify completely at the court hearings. A photo of Patrick looking up at his mother prior to sentencing was included in the coverage.

'Marvelous spirit'

In a personal letter to Mrs. Asher during the court hearings, former labor leader Myra Wolfgang wrote, "Knowing that you are the kind of person who would rather die on your feet than live on your knees, I don't think there is anything I can say to add to your marvelous spirit, inspiring courage and honorable instincts."

According to her family, Mrs. Asher's relationship with George began only after she pretended to need a ride home at the end of a long day of picketing and ultimately, she was the one who proposed marriage to him. Their wedding in 1953 was widely covered on the pages of nearly every AFL labor newspaper in the country as well as many metropolitan daily newspapers.

According to a front page article in the trade publication, Michigan Hotel, Bar, Restaurant Review,

"Meeting on the picket line of strike-bound Richard's Drive-In, the couple managed to keep a romance going in spite of the juvenile antics of irresponsible hot rodders, a flare up of violence which saw the whole complement of the Shaeffer Police Station converge on the scene and the romance-dampening atmosphere of the Wayne County Jail."

Mr. Asher's death in 1963 due to complications from hemophilia resulted in Mrs. Asher having to raise four children, ages 4, 6, 7 and 15, alone. On Feb. 1, 2012, the University of Detroit Mercy announced that a new law clinic, opening in December, would be named after Mr. Asher who was just months shy of obtaining his law degree there. However,

Mrs. Asher did not hear the news because of her worsening condition, her family said.

Mrs. Asher married Craig Lewis for a second time in 1969, but the marriage ended in divorce in 1975. He died in 1976.

and Mrs. Asher "swore off men forever, a promise she kept until the day she passed into eternal life, even though she had many suitors along the way," said her son. A year later, she changed her name back to Pearl Asher.

Renowned waitress

Mrs. Asher became a renowned waitress at a number of Detroit area restaurants, including Gagans, Thunderbird Inn, Hillside Inn in Plymouth and Carl's Chop House. She served thousands over the years, including a number of local Detroit celebrities, such as former Detroit Red Wings Sid Abel, newsman Bill Bonds and Tiger's manager Sparky Anderson.

Her ability as a waitress was so highly regarded that on Sept. 12, 1980, the Detroit Free Press's Anonymous Gourmet wrote, "Two encounters at the Hillside are not to be missed. One is the dessert tray. The other is Pearl. No restaurant serving staff should be without its own Pearl—genial, attentive, patient, accommodating. When she served our table, Pearl embodied the reason the Hillside draws such a great and regular crowd. She—and it—are warm and friendly and unpresumptuous."

Mrs. Asher her illustrious restaurant career at the Senate Coney Island on Plymouth Road in Livonia, serving a packed counter of customers with the same warmth and efficiency she had shown her entire career.

After her waitress days were over, Mrs. Asher's growing brood of nine grandchildren gave her the opportunity to become an integral part of their lives, serving as both granny and nanny to many of them.

She loved all children deeply and dearly until the day she passed away, often reaching out to any youngster who came her way for a wave, hug or smile, her family said.

The memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church, 120 S. State St., Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Asher is survived by daughter Annamarie, sons Roy, Richard and Wesley, grandchildren Patrick, Rory, Stephen, Alison, Katie, Robert, Rachel, Ryan and Matthew, brother Bill and sisters Liz, Dorothy and Connie.

She is preceded in death by husbands George Asher and Craig Lewis and sons Joseph and Patrick.

Denise Schimskey isn't giving away too many secrets about this year's spring musical. However, she promises that if you like the 1939 movie version of The Wizard of Oz, you're sure to enjoy the Garden City High School production later this month.

"We're doing it as close to the movies as we can," said Schimskey who is directing the show. "When Dorothy's in Kansas, everything, including the costuming, will be in black and white. When she gets to Munchkinland, everything will be very colorful."

Schimskey admits that the musical, which will be presented March 22-23 in O'Leary Auditorium, is very ambitious for high school thespians. She felt the same way about the staging of Beauty and the Beast two years ago. But everything is all about ambition when the thing they hear most from people is that they "can't believe it's a high school show."

The magic of Oz will be created with the help of seven professional backdrops rented from Tobin Lake Studios. A flying company out of Chicago will help with the aerial action. Yes, there will be flying monkeys - two - and Glinda will glide onto the stage in her sphere. And there will be a real live Toto, played by Jixxter Brown.

The cast includes 40 students who have been rehearsing since the first of the year, and beginning next week six high school staff members will be joining the group. The production also has a crew of 36 students and a 12-member pit orchestra under the direction of music teacher Steven Olsen.

Teachers Danielle Mitoraj and Chad Davis are the artistic designers and are doing all the artwork and projection of the Great Oz and the tornado scene in which things will fly by the house, Schimskey said.

"The amount of the support from the staff here at the high school has been overwhelming," she said. "They're excited about the play, they ask about it every day," she said. "This is a big community production. I hope the community comes out and shows their support for the arts."

As for the house falling on a witch or the melting witch ... "I can't give away all of the secrets," said Schimskey.

"It takes 10 weeks to do a musical," said Schimskey who holds rehearsals for more than three hours a day Monday through Friday.

"We're in good shape, but the next four weeks will be crazy. Everyone has to come together for this."

"It's going to be very stressful for the kids. They have the Michigan Merit Exam next week, the week after is finals and the week after that is opening week and the start of the new trimester," she said.

Schimskey decided to do Oz "because so many people love it." She's also looking to fill the auditorium for the five shows which include three evening performances and two matinees.

"Last year we did more of an adult musical, this year we wanted to do something for the whole family, something for the whole community," she said.

Ticket sales help finance the show. Last year's sales provided the $6,000 to pay for the flying company. The Wizard of Oz will be presented at 7 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, March 22-24, and 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, March 24-25, and a first is their availability online. Tickets, priced at $12 for adults and $10 for students and senior citizens, are available at www.gardenCityschools.com. They're also on sale at the O'Leary box office 2:45-5 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

"We're expecting a sellout ... we're hoping for a sellout," Schimskey said. "These kids are really awesome. Every one of them looks forward to rehearsals. They keep their school work up, they know their lines and they know what to do."

District hours

Wayne County Commissioner Diane Webb, D-District 9, is holding office hours, beginning February, in Garden City, Dearborn Heights and Redford Township.

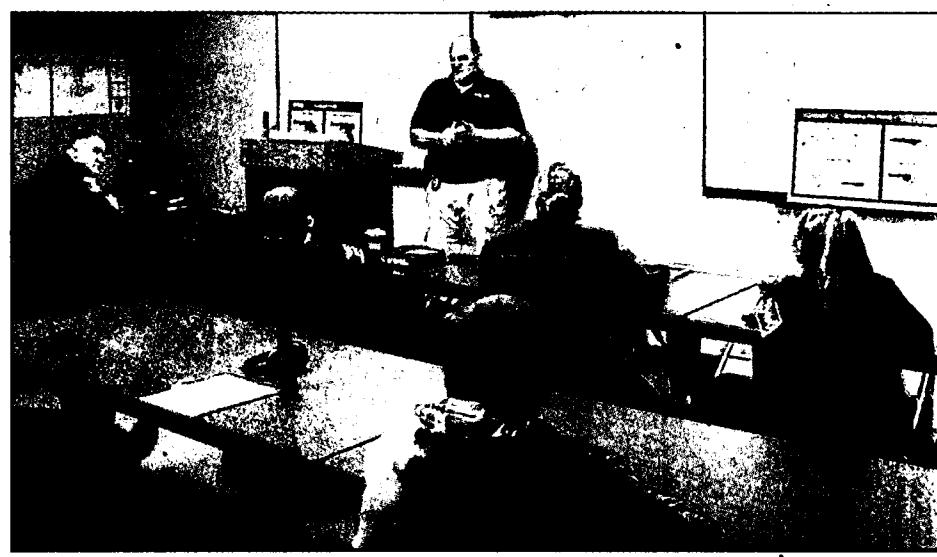

Webb's office hours will be:

- At 10 a.m. the second Monday of each month at the Maplewood Center, 31735 Maplewood, in Garden City.

- At 10 a.m. the third Monday of each month at the Berwyn Senior Center, 26155 Richardson Road, in Dearborn Heights.

- At 10 a.m. the fourth Monday of each month at the Redford Community Center, 12121 Hemingway, in Redford Township.

These hours are scheduled to permit constituents the opportunity to discuss important issues and express concerns in a comfortable setting with Webb.

Matt Bobby, a Westland police officer and co-founder of Boys in Blue Protection Education, speaks to students.

Boys in Blue business focuses on personal safety

There is a simple reason almost every police officer working the streets carries pepper spray.

"Because it works," said Matthew Bobby, a Westland police officer and co-founder of Boys in Blue Protection Education, a Westland-based business geared toward personal safety.

Pepper spray is carried by everyone from police officers to grandmas. Bobby, a Westland officer for nearly 19 years, said most people don't know how to use it properly.

Bobby said many people buy pepper spray over-the-counter not knowing that the particular formula may be illegal to possess in Michigan, one of a few states that does not have regulations on pepper spray possession, Bobby said, so for this reason it is important to take a class on legal issues pertaining to pepper spray.

"In an assault or robbery, there is going to be a critical window where a person is going to be expected to defend themselves," Bobby said. "Your police officers are going to try to get to you as fast as possible; however, that may take several critical minutes. If your closest available police officer is ten miles away, what are you going to do when faced with an attack?"

Personal defense is something most people don't think about enough, Bobby said. A person properly trained to use pepper spray can make a 120-pound housewife, 90-year old grandmother or 18-year old college student a force to be reckoned with, Bobby said.

"A good burst of pepper spray to the eyes is going to be more effective than a punch or a kick," Bobby said. "It is time our citizens raise their odds to survive a potentially lethal encounter with the criminals who are out to hurt them."

Bobby's company, Boys in Blue Protection Education, offers a Civilian Safety Awareness Program, a class designed to give students tools to defend themselves in a violent encounter.

The three-hour class also covers how to become less of a target for criminals.

"We can come to your place to teach a class or we can arrange a place for you to come take the class," Bobby said. "The great thing is our class can be taught just about anywhere."

Everyone should be armed with some type of personal defense tool, Bobby said.

"We wear our seat belts and have smoke alarms in our homes, so take your safety a step further and have something to even your odds against an attacker," he said. "You are more likely to be faced with a situation where you may have to defend yourself or another than being involved in a house fire. Still, it is wise to proect yourself and family against both."

The CSAP class is geared toward females and males, Bobby said. The cost is $65 which includes books, practice canisters of pepper spray, a certificate of completion and a can of Michigan legal pepper spray.

In the class, the student will fire inert canisters of pepper spray at targets so they can see first hand how to make an effective shot. The class can be taken by persons under the age of 18, however, the can of Michigan legal pepper spray will be given to the parent as it is illegal for a person to sell pepper spray to a person under 18.

If you would like to take your personal defense a step further, Boys in Blue Protection Education offers CCW/CPL classes and firearms training. Bobby adds that all Boys in Blue instructors are police officers at the local and federal level.

Time for digital spring cleaning

By Jon Gunnells
Guest Columnist

Don't let the snow on the ground fool you — spring is almost here. And what better time to take care of some much needed digital spring cleaning.

Many of the items you need to properly clean your electronics are already in your home, but that doesn't mean you should simply grab a bottle of Windex and start wiping down everything you own. Follow these helpful tips when it comes to cleaning and maintaining your electronic devices.

Never clean screens, monitors or other delicate devices with a multi-purpose cleaner or potentially damaging cloths. Take the same care with your computer monitors and television screens that you would with the clear coat paint on a fancy car. Use microfiber, fleece or other soft cloths to dust and use a combination of water and alcohol to remove marks and stains from screens.

Be sure to remove all excess water on screens, especially around edges so moisture doesn't reach behind the viewing surface and near speakers.

Tech Savvy

Jon Gunnells

When cleaning handheld devices like smartphones, a damp, soft cloth is all you need. Alcohol or other cleaning products could damage the touch screen on the iPhone.

Air cleaner

If you are looking to clean computer towers, keyboards or other small delicate places, try purchasing compressed air (sometimes called canned duster). A 10-ounce bottle can be purchased from ABC Warehouse for $6.99 and will come with an extension tube to help you clean crevices like the ones all over your keyboard.

Canned air is odorless and can be moisture-less in some circumstances. When used for long periods of times, however, the can and the compressed air may become cold and make devices appear frosty for a few moments. The cold air won't damage your keyboard or most household products.

Just be sure that you don't get any frost or moisture on circuits like the circuits found in your DVR, or your computer motherboard.

Digital cameras are another household item that can be cleaned with canned air, but more expensive devices and lenses require more sophisticated equipment. You can purchase digital camera, video camera and lens cleaning equipment at ABC or specialty camera stores. Many electronics stores also carry lens-cleaning products for CD players, DVD players, Blue Ray players and the discs themselves.

Cleaning tips

Nearly any electronic device in your home, from video game units to speakers, can be cleaned with dusters or whisks. Dirtier items can be wiped down with a damp cloth but, again, avoid getting moisture inside a speaker grille or video game console.

If your main goal is to disinfect your tech toys, you can always clean them with antibacterial wipes, or cotton swabs with rubbing alcohol. Cotton will clean and disinfect surfaces without leaving lint behind.

Of course, the dirtiest electronics you own are almost assuredly your cell phone and your tablet. Those filthy items that you touch with your dirty hands hundreds of times a day might be damaged with rubbing alcohol.

A solution: Wipe the screen down more often with water, and wash your hands with soap and water even more.

Right sizing

Faith carries one despite church closings

Right sizing is a phrase that has been used by school districts and manufacturers to talk about the layoffs of thousands of workers and the closing of schools, plants and businesses.

It's not a word you would expect to associate with religion, but last week the Archdiocese of Detroit did just that in announcing what will happen during the second phase of its Forward in Faith plan. Its footprint - the number of churches it has in the metro Detroit area - will shrink as it right sizes to accommodate the problem of too many churches and too few priests.

The decisions are painful for the churches involved like those in Westland. St. Richard will eventually merge with St. Mary of Wayne. St. Damian and St. Theodore have to develop a plan to merge and submit it to the archdiocese by no later than June 30. And a new parish will need to partner with Divine Savior and develop a cluster plan to be implemented when a current pastor is no longer available, if a replacement is not available to be assigned, or when either parish begins to experience a deficit.

The losses of the churches will be profoundly felt by those who have considered them the rock of their faith and an important part of their social and cultural life.

We are not surprised at the scope of the plan, after witnessing the cataclysmic changes following the economic collapse in 2008. Auto companies shed hundreds of thousands of jobs and shuttered one plant after another and cities. Families fled the state in search of work, forcing school districts to close schools and lay off employees to stay fiscally viable.

For the archdiocese, the mission of the church is harder to accomplish with fewer and fewer priests. The statistics speak to the problem. Across the archdiocese, the average priest-to-people ratio is 1 per 2,839 parishioners, compared with 1 per 2,135 10 years ago.

The archdiocese is projecting a loss of nearly one-third of 290 priests who now run parishes in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Lapeer and St. Clair counties. By 2021, it's looking at having 192 priests to serve the faithful. And with the average age of priests serving in parishes about 57, the archdiocese could lose almost half to retirement and death in the next 10 years. It's a loss that's hard to cover when an average of only four priests are ordained each year in the archdiocese.

The loss of these churches to the local communities cannot be overlooked. A closed church is another, vacant building on a landscape filled with vacant homes and businesses. Finding someone to buy them will be a challenge at best, until the economy turns around.

We understand the need for these changes. We understand that it will be painful for parishioners. And we also understand that there needs to be more to the second phase of Forward in Faith.

Archbishop Allen Vigneron has said that the mission of the church is evangelism, but that "you can't do your mission, if you can't pay your bills."

This is not an attempt to weigh in on the decisions made by the church hierarchy, which has spent much time studying the issues.

Instead, we want to offer encouragement to those who will be making adjustments. After all, what is a church? Does brick and mortar cement one's faith?

No, the body of a church lies with its people who gather together for everything from Sunday worship services to St. Richard, Divine Savior and St. Damian.

With determination, nothing will change that faith in God and in each other.

Numbers deceiving

I am very appalled by the deceiving numbers that the Westland City Council used in their so called 12.1 percent water rate increase.

Sure the water and sewer rate is a combined 5.7 percent rate increase, but when the bi-monthly current fixed rate charges increase from $14.45 to $24.50 that is a 58 percent increase. If my heating costs rose 58 percent, I would get a different carrier. If my phone company raised my rates 58 percent, I would find a new company.

A government monopoly is the only entity that can get away with a rate increase like this. Citizens of Westland you have been deceived by the city council and should remember who voted for this rate increase come next election.

As we approach spring break season, take a minute as a parent to talk with your child and consider safer options for them. Many parents think it is a rite of passage for our kids to take spring break vacations with no adult supervision.

"Let kids be kids" we say before they enter the real world. I urge you to think again.

When we let them go off to Mexico, Florida, etc., and join in with other students who are under age, drinking, possibly doing drugs and staying out all night, we are setting them up for many possible poor outcomes. Some may get arrested, suffer car accidents and sustain injuries, or possibly suffer from alcohol poisoning or drug overdoses and may possibly die as a result. Fights and sexual assaults are also common when kids are impaired.

I implore you to think of different and safer options for your kids to enjoy Spring Break. There are many fun and safe ideas right here close to home. Consider accompanying them, if you choose to let them go out of the country or state. Make it a family week vacation, if you can. Spend some quality time with them here, if you can or take a few days to see and do things here in Michigan.

We have many water parks close by, such as Avalanche Bay, Kalahari in Sandusky, Ohio, visit Frankenmuth, or maybe rent a cottage here in Michigan. The Double JJ Ranch located in Rothbury, Michigan, has an indoor water park along with horseback riding and other options for things to do that are right here close to home.

We as parents need to think out of the box and go the extra mile to keep our kids safe and offer them alternative ideas to the traditional Spring break vacation. We are their role models and, if you work with your teen to come up with safer ideas on how they can celebrate this time safely, you will thank yourself in the end.

As a parent you always need to "Be Aware and Show You Care."

GUEST COLUMN

Cut tax loopholes to reduce the deficit

By Sen. Carl Levin

Guest Columnist

Recently, I introduced the Cut Unjustified Tax Loopholes Act, or CUT Loopholes Act. Sen. Kent Conrad of North Dakota, the chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, joined me in proposing this legislation to help us meet three important goals: Reducing the budget deficit, protecting important priorities, and restoring some of the fairness to our tax system.

Our legislation would reduce the deficit by $155 billion by closing tax loopholes that favor wealthy individuals and corporations, loopholes that raise the tax burden that American families must carry. It would provide more than enough revenue to pay for a full-year extension of the payroll tax cut now in place, or put a significant dent in the deficit reduction we need to avoid draconian automatic cuts that could take effect next year.

It is clear to almost everyone that revenue must be a part of our deficit reduction strategy. Presidents from Reagan to the elder President Bush to Clinton have used balanced strategies that included revenue as well as spending cuts to reduce deficits. I will continue to fight for a number of other revenue measures, such as a surtax on millionaires and billionaires; eliminating tax subsidies for oil and gas companies; ending the Bush-era tax cuts for those earning more than $250,000; and ending the carried interest loophole. We need to make those changes. But so far, they have run into an ideological brick wall, as too many in Congress refuse to consider reasonable revenue measures. But even that rigid ideological stance should allow for ending the kinds of egregious loopholes our bill would combat.

First is offshore tax haven abuse. The Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, which I chair, has spent years shedding light on how these abuses aid the wealthy and corporations.

The bill would give the Treasury Department authority to combat tax haven banks and jurisdictions that help U.S. clients hide assets and dodge U.S. taxes; crack down on offshore corporations that are managed from the United States from claiming foreign status to dodge taxes; eliminate tax incentives for moving U.S. jobs overseas or for transferring intellectual property offshore; and establish the presumption that, unless a taxpayer proves otherwise, a corporation formed by receiving assets from or benefitting a U.S. taxpayer is considered under that taxpayer's control for tax purposes.

These provisions and others would reduce deficit by at least $130 billion over 10 years.

The bill's second focus is on a tax loophole that subsidizes corporations giving stock options to corporate executives. Today, corporations can take massive tax deductions for stock options, but usually show a much lower expense on their books. Our subcommittee found that from 2005-2009, this loophole allowed excess tax deductions ranging from $12 billion to as high as $61 billion in a single year.

The CUT Loopholes Act would prevent corporate income tax deductions for stock options that exceed the expense shown on company books. It would preserve current tax treatment for individuals receiving options and for incentive stock options used by start-up companies.

According to Joint Committee on Taxation, these measures would reduce the deficit by $25 billion over 10 years.

The time for these measures is now. Here's why.

First, the math is inescapable. We can't reduce the deficit and do other important things - protect our country, care for our seniors, educate our young - if tax revenue remains at its lowest level in decades, and if the effective corporate tax rate is at historic lows, thanks in part to these and other tax loopholes.

Second, there is a growing recognition among Americans that loopholes like these and many others leave the deck stacked against them and their families. Overwhelmingly, Americans tell us: Close those loopholes down. Public opinion polls show strong support for closing tax loopholes, support that crosses partisan and ideological lines.

Reducing the deficit and protecting important programs is hard. We face many tough decisions and difficult fights in the months ahead.

But this decision should be easy. We should close these loopholes and make a strong statement that we can reduce the deficit, serve important priorities and restore fairness to the tax code.

Carl Levin is the senior U.S. senator from Michigan.

Look at investments in considering Social Security

By Rick Bloom
Guest Columnist

I recently gave a speech at the Plymouth District Library and was asked when should one start collecting Social Security - at age 62, 65 or at 70?

Like most things in the world of personal finance, there is no one right answer. Everyone's situation is different. However, I explained there are some issues to consider in reaching an individual decision. The first issue to consider - and as far as I'm concerned the most important - is do you need the income?

Money Matters

Decision making

Some people have pensions, a working spouse, or other sources of income that cover living expenses. Do you have your living expenses covered without Social Security and without drawing from your investments? If the answer is yes, then generally you want to defer Social Security for as long as possible.

On the other hand, if you don't have other sources of income to cover living expenses, then taking Social Security is the way to go.

Where it gets a little difficult is if you need income from either Social Security or your investments, which one do you access first?

One of the key issues to look at is the type of investor you are. If you're a conservative investor who feels comfortable in CDs and U.S. treasuries, use investments first.

My reasoning is based upon the return on your investments in CDs and treasuries, versus the return you get by delaying Social Security.

Are you a risk taker?

On the other hand, if you're an investor who understands risk and you feel comfortable having equities in your portfolio, I recommend taking Social Security now and letting your investments reinvest and grow. Once again, the theory being that the return on your investments over the long run will be a greater rate of return than by delaying Social Security.

The key is to be honest with yourself as to the type of investor you are. Looking at how you invested over the last few years is a great way to determine this. If over the last few years you've kept your money in CDs and treasuries, then you are a conservative investor and you should use investments first.

If, however, you stayed invested in the market, that's a sign that you are a more moderate risk investor and delaying Social Security may be the way to go.

When it comes to personal finance, there is rarely, if ever, one right answer for everyone. When you read advice, whether it's in my column or elsewhere, always remember to apply it to your individual situation.

What's wise for you

Unlike the past when everyone in a certain age group was pretty much in the same financial condition, that's no longer the case. Don't do what's good for the majority of people but rather make financial decisions that work best for your individual situation.

One last note, don't beat yourself up if you make the wrong decision. That accomplishes nothing. Some mistakes are irreversible and you have to make the best out of it. However, other mistakes can be fixed.

The bottom line is don't focus on the past, always look to the future and what you will do now to put yourself in a better financial position. Good luck!

The pill: From controversy to acceptance

Recently there was much uproar when House Republicans held a hearing on women's reproductive rights without any women having a say in the matter. The hearing was supposed to be about religious freedom in relation to the mandate that health insurers must cover birth control in the United States. Supposedly this could be done without a single female voice being represented.

This throwback released a wave of criticism and even led to a sharp and funny spoof by Amy Poehler on Saturday Night Live.

Birth control was once a highly controversial topic. But nowadays, it is something widely accepted and desired by the majority of the population. When the pill was first developed, President Eisenhower stated in 1960 that birth control "is not a proper political or government activity or function or responsibility." In addition to preventing pregnancy, birth control pills are also used to treat some severe women's health disorders.

By the 1980s, it was estimated that between 50 and 80 million women were on the Pill. As a result, 60 percent of women of reproductive age were employed. The Pill, along with other forms of contraception, allowed not just a new found freedom and autonomy, but also provided treatment for health risks for women. After all this time, it is difficult to understand the benefit of debating women's contraceptive rights now.

For an understanding of the positives of birth control, check out Matthew Connelly's Fatal Misconception: the Struggle to Control World Population. To see how the U.S. government has played a role, there is Donald Critchlow's Intended Consequences: Birth Control, Abortion, and the Federal Government in Modern America.

Suspect arraigned in 37-year-old Livonia murder case

By Ken Abramczyk
Observer Staff Writer

A national database of DNA has helped Livonia police locate a suspect accused in the 1975 double homicide of two brothers in Livonia.

During Monday's arraignment on first-degree murder, a plea of not guilty was entered for David Glenn Fowler, 55, in connection with the murders of Michael Belt, who was 34 at the time of his death, and Jeffrey Belt, who was 18. The victims were beaten with a wooden board and stabbed in their home on the 37000 block of Plymouth Road. Robbery was the motive, said police.

Fowler was remanded to Wayne County Jail without bond by 16th District Judge Sean Kavanagh. A preliminary examination is scheduled for 9 a.m. Thursday, March 8. Fowler requested a court-appointed attorney.

Livonia police arrested two suspects early in the investigation in 1975. They were charged, tried, convicted and served time in prison for their roles in the crimes. The police investigation also led to Fowler, but he fled the state in 1975.

An open murder warrant and a federal warrant for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution was issued at that time.

Fowler and the other two men who were convicted knew the victims. "They were acquaintances," said Police Lt. Tom Goralski.

Fowler was located and identified using technology not available at the time he fled the state, according to Goralski.

"DNA at the scene was recovered," Goralski said, but he would not comment on specifics. "It was put into the nationwide CODIS database."

In June 2011, a hit on that DNA occurred in Georgia on a subject known as Richard David Taylor, who was in a Georgia prison on a car theft conviction.

Livonia Police Detectives went to Georgia and, with the assistance of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation, were able to locate and confirm that Taylor was the wanted fugitive, David Glenn Fowler, Goralski said.

An extradition hearing took place Friday, Jan. 13, and Fowler was ordered back to Michigan to face the murder charges. He was transported back to Michigan on Sunday.

Fowler managed to elude police by using an alias and varying his Social Security number, police said, but the DNA database helped investigators locate the suspect and make an arrest.

Usually, DNA links a suspect found in prison to a crime, but in this case, police knew the identity of the individual they were looking for, Goralski said. The Livonia Police Department is pleased with the arrest of the suspect in the case.

"It allowed us to find a fugitive who had fled after 36 years," Goralski said.

Wayne bowlers Battle Creek-bound

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

The Wayne Memorial boys bowling team appears to be peaking at the right time.

The Zebras, a state semifinalist a year ago and recently coming off a first-place finish in the Kensington Lakes Activities Association tournament, ran away with the MHSAA Division 1-Region 5 team tourney title last Friday at Westland Bowl with a total of 4,170 pins.

Also qualifying for a trip to the Division 1 state finals this weekend at M-66 Bowl in Battle Creek were region runner-up Howell (3,942) and third-place finisher Canton (3,820).

"Getting ready for the regional they practiced a lot, drilled some new balls, and some practiced on their own," Wayne coach Bob Jawor said. "They deserve all the credit for what they accomplished, and I couldn't be more proud or any happier for them."

Last year's Division 1-state runner-up, Westland John Glenn, missed the cut in fourth place with a 3,771 total. The Rockets failed to qualify for the first time in three years.

The tourney format consisted of six Baker games

(alternating shots) and three match games.

Wayne posted a high Baker of 221, while going 1,098, 919 and 971 in match games.

"I thought all season long we had a very good chance to make it to the state finals," Jawor said. "But with only two players returning from last year's team — Elliot Arnold and Zack Huffman — sometimes it takes a little time for things to come together."

Matt Mikulec improved greatly over the last year, while Shane Rambaldo has bowled very well, especially in the tournaments. And Kody Wojewski, fortunately for us, got dropped into my lap on a transfer. Austin St. Peter and Darrick Craig, while they didn't bowl much, never complained, never missed practice, supported the team on the bench, and performed admirably

Stevenson eliminated by Flyers

North Farmington-Harrison achieved a first in the seven-year history of its hockey program by winning a pre-regional tournament game Monday night.

Senior Derek Ried completed a hat trick with BOYS HOCKEY 50 seconds remaining in the third period to give the Flyers a 4-3 win over Livonia Stevenson.

Ried scored on a power play, assisted by Eric Stanis and Reece Burnett, in the Division 1 tournament game at Orchard Lake St. Mary's Arena.

"I couldn't be more proud of this team," North-Harrison coach Ken Anderson said. "They've battled through some injuries this year, worked hard as a team, supported each other all year and never quit. I'm just very happy for them."

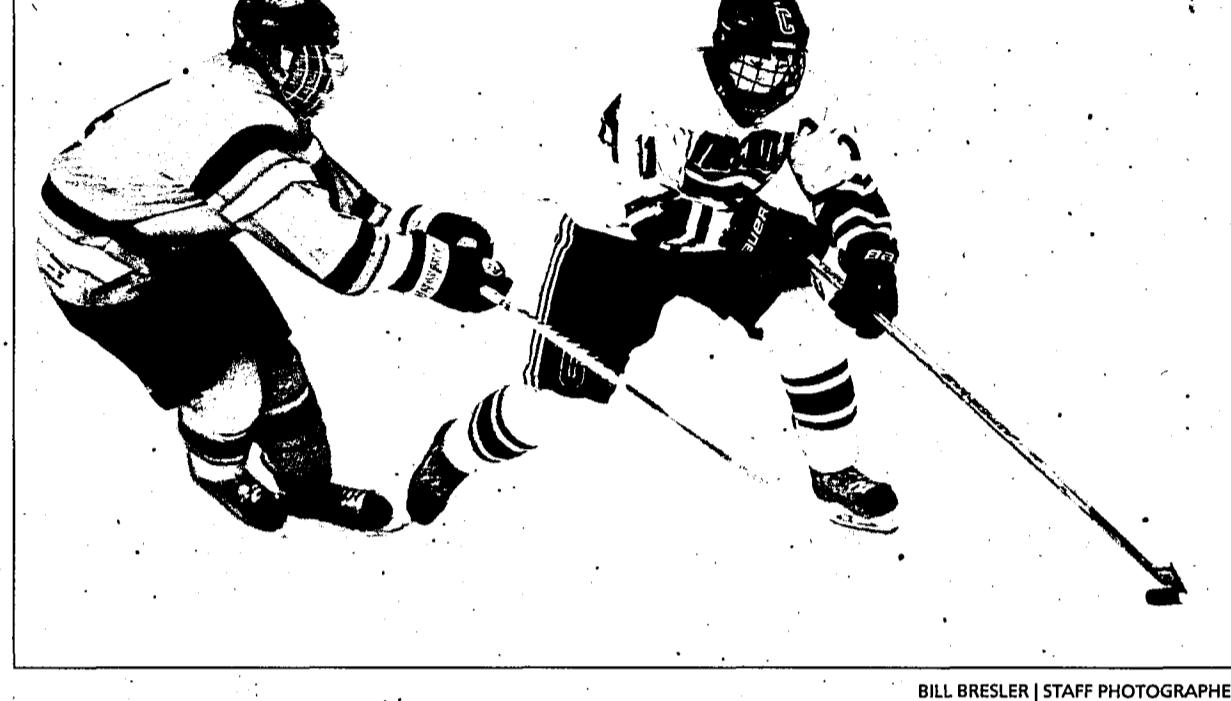

North-Harrison (15-7-2) advanced to the second round Wednesday night to play the host and No. 2-ranked Eaglets on the same ice.

In the time remaining Monday, the Flyers didn't let the Spartans get too close to their net, even when Stevenson pulled goalie Connor Humitz (19 saves) for an extra attacker.

The Flyers started with two first-period goals by Jared VanValkenburg (from Stanis) and Ried (from TJ Zak). Ried buried a slapshot from the top of the circle for a 2-0 lead.

Tournament tested Churchill icers stymie Plymouth, 4-1

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

It's only the first leg of the MHSAA Division 1 boys hockey tournament, but Livonia Churchill appears poised for another strong run.

The Chargers, who reached the state quarterfinals last year before losing in four overtimes to Orchard Lake St. Mary, improved to 19-6 on the season with a 4-1 pre-regional victory Monday night over Plymouth at Livonia's Edgar Arena.

Churchill, avenging a 4-3 OT loss on Feb. 4 to the Wildcats, moves into the pre-regional final Wednesday to face Canton, which also advanced Monday night at Edgar with a 4-3 victory over rival Salem.

Plymouth led 1-0 after one period thanks to a power play goal from John VanDenBeurgen off a two-on-one play from Cody Staub.

Churchill then came back at 5:09 of the second period to tie it on Kevin Louwers' rebound goal off a shot from the left circle by Tommy Carey.

And at 8:16 of the second, Churchill took the lead for keeps on senior defenseman Jim Lelekatch's goal from Nick Proben and Riley Brown.

"I thought the first period both teams were kind of feeling each other out a little bit, then in the second period we kind of took it to another level," Churchill coach Pete Mazzoni said. "And I thought we were really able to maintain the puck down in their zone. I think we just kind of wore them out."

Plymouth took four penalties during the second period and successfully fought off a 5-on-3 situation for over a minute, but that couldn't prevent the Chargers' building momentum.

"We took the penalties because we weren't moving our feet," Plymouth coach Gerry Vento said. "They were beating us to every puck. They were more physical than us. But give our guys credit, they battled and killed them off."

"But you expend a lot of energy killing off penalties like that and Churchill had a lot of jump tonight, and took it to us. They're a heckuva team and we saw it tonight."

Churchill's third goal — 1:29 into the third — came on Devin Smythe's opportunistic short-handed effort from Jake Otto.

"We've really emphasized special teams this year," Mazzoni said.

"We actually have more short-handed goals than we've given up on the PK. It was 'Johnny on the Spot,' a big momentum swing right there. That's kind of what play-off hockey is."

The goal came as a result of a mix-up in the Wildcats' end as they were trying to move the puck out of their own end to start a power play.

"It was a little bit of a breakdown," Vento said. "We kind of rushed it

Difficult schedule awaits Crusaders

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

The old expression, "Out of the frying pan, into the fire," certainly applies to the 2012 Madonna University softball team.

The Crusaders launch their season Friday in Panama City, Fla., in the prestigious three-day National Fastpitch Coaches Association Leadoff Classic before moving on to a pair of tournaments the following week in Mobile, Ala.

And before returning for their first home game March 24, MU will have already played seven nationally-ranked opponents and two other teams that have received votes in the NAIA coaches poll.

So much for a spring break.

"We're nervous, scared and excited all at the same time with this team," said MU coach Al White, who guided the Crusaders to a 38-12 record a year ago.

"With the caliber of teams that we're playing, we really don't have any easy games. We have to play good. But our coaching staff has done an outstanding job getting these kids prepared, and that's all you can do."

Four key players graduated from a year ago, led by four-year starting pitcher Jess Irwin, who owns just about every mound record in MU history. Irwin, now an assistant coach, went 19-8 as a senior with a 1.71 earned-run average. The hard-throwing right-hander struck out 252 in 175 1/2 innings.

Senior Hallie Minch (Garden City) assumes the ace role after putting up good numbers as a backup a year ago, posting a 19-4 record with a 2.33 ERA in 153 innings. Minch also remains a valuable asset in the outfield, where she hit .308 as a junior.

"Minch has done really well," White said. "We're excited about her. She uses control, changes speeds and she's got the experience, which makes her so tough."

"And when she doesn't pitch, she'll play left field where she's one of our best defensive outfielders."

Freshman Angela Pavilanis (Flat Rock) will be Minch's backup, while sophomore Kristen Drabek (Monroe St. Mary Catholic Central) takes over behind the plate to replace the graduated Ashley Shay (.350, 33 RBIs).

Drabek will probably play 75 percent of the time (and (Caitlyn) Keuve-

Shawnica Thomas added 14 points and eight rebounds for the Lady Ocelots, who improved to 23-5 overall and 14-3 in the MCCAA's Eastern Conference.

St. Clair (15-15, 8-9), unable to overcome a 42-22 halftime deficit, got 14 points from Heidi Highstreet.

MU's Lindsey earns honor

Madonna University junior forward Michelle Lindsey (Bloomfield Hills Marian), who averaged 13 points per game, was named Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Newcomer of the Year and earned third-team All-WHAC honors.

Junior guard Shantelle Herring, who averaged 2.7 steals per game, was named to the WHAC's All-Defensive team, while head coach Carl Graves earned the Coach of Character award which best displays the NAIA's five core values.

Making All-WHAC Academic honors included Erin Bentley, Katie Martin Kaylee McGrath (Livonia Stevenson), Megan Murphy, Kristie Porada and Heather Pratt.

To earn the academic salute, you must be an upperclassman (junior or senior) and carry a cumulative 3.25 grade point average.

BISHOP, MATILDA C.

Passed away peacefully in her sleep at her home in Ann Arbor on February 25, 2012, at 12:30 AM. She was born on September 29, 1911 in Hazelton, PA, this youngest of 12 children of Mary and Sylvester Jason. Preceding her were her parents, her husband, Frank H. Bishop, and her son, Christopher J. Bishop. She is survived by her daughters, B. Susan Bishop, Lydia K. Lotz, Ellen R. Bishop, and Katherine A. Smathers, and her step-son Daniel F. Bishop; her granddaughters Brooke Lotz, Jennifer Molina, Aimee Smathers, and Lynne Jay; and grandsons Eric Lotz, Andrew Molina, Alex Smathers, C.J. Bishop, and Daniel F. In her early 20's she worked as a model and merchandise manager for Halle Bros. and Milgrim's. After her marriage, she moved to Birmingham, MI, where she found much joy in raising her 5 children. She gave us all good solid values, curiosity, humor, and her wonderful problem-solving ability. When her children were grown, she went back to work as the Manager of the Maternity Department at Saks Fifth Avenue in Troy, MI. She was business savvy and a saleswoman par excellence. She loved music, traveling, was an avid photographer, and enjoyed the wonders of nature. She traveled frequently to Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and Florida to visit her children and her niece, Carol Fox. And she had wonderful stories to tell about the century in which she lived. We will all miss her love, her strength, her wonderful smile and that twinkle in her beautiful blue eyes. Her family appreciates the compassionate and skilled care given her by Dr. N. Cary Engleberg, and the decades long spiritual support provided by Bishop Bernard J. Harrington. The family will receive friends at Nie Funeral Home, 3767 W. Liberty Street, Ann Arbor, MI on February 29, 2012, from 2 PM to 4 PM and from 6 PM to 8 PM. A funeral mass will be held at St. Francis of Assisi Church, 2150 Frieze Avenue, Ann Arbor, MI 48104 on March 1, 2012, with visitation from 10 AM to 11AM. The Mass will begin at 11AM. Livonia Civic Chorus gets a bite out of restaurant's sales

The Livonia Civic Chorus performs its winter 2011 show. The Chorus' spring show is May 6.

By Sharon Dargay
O&E Staff Writer

The Livonia Civic Chorus will hold its first fundraiser Monday, March 5 — 47 years after its members began singing together.

It will participate in the Good Neighbor Rewards program, 11 a.m.-midnight, at Max and Erma's restaurant, 37714 Six Mile, Livonia and will earn 20 percent of sales from supporters' lunches or dinners that day. Patrons must submit an event flyer along with their bill when they pay for their meals. Flyers are available on the Chorus website, <http://www.livoniacivicchorus.org>, at the UPS Store at Five Mile and Newburgh, from a Chorus member, or call (734) 542-9071.

Why did the Chorus wait 47 years to raise money in partnership with a local business?

"The issue is we weren't eligible because we weren't a 501c3 organization," said Peggy Gaskill, publicity chair. "We just acquired the designation in the fall. It's a designation from the IRS."

"Organizations from Max and Erma's to other restaurants make that a requirement."

The all-volunteer group decided to start the move toward becoming a nonprofit, 501c3 organization approximately two years ago. The change creates more opportunities for fundraising partnerships and grants.

"We didn't have the tax advantages and designations for people who make donations," Gaskill. "When we'd do a spring show, we'd have a patron section in our program. We'd ask people to donate money and we'd put it in their name in recognition. Now, if they chose to do so, they can deduct that donation from their taxes."

The chorus performs two shows every year. Members who sign up for the fall-winter semester pay $50 in dues and sing at a show in December. Those who participate in the winter-spring session also pay $50 in dues and sing at a concert in May.

Scholarships

Dues, ticket sales and patron advertisements in the show programs raise money for venue rental, a portion of costume costs and other necessities, in addition to funding annual scholarships. Livonia Civic Chorus awards two scholarships annually to Livonia students for Interlochen Academy or Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp. It also gives a scholarship each fall to a music student at Madonna University.

"Another thing the 501c3 allows us to do is to apply for possible grants from organizations," Gaskill said. "We applied for a grant from the Livonia Community Foundation. It opens up a number of doors."

Gaskill said the chorus' 45 members chose Max & Erma's for its first fundraiser through a survey.

"We looked on websites to see what policies were and saw several restaurants. We did a survey of members and asked where they'd want to go out to eat to support the chorus."

Upcoming shows

In addition to the fundraiser next week at Max & Erma's, the Livonia Civic Chorus will perform at the Livonia Symphony Orchestra's "Water Music" concert, 4 p.m. Saturday, April 28, at the Louis Schmidt Auditorium, Clarenceville High School, 20155 Middlebelt, in Livonia.

The chorus' spring concert, "Legends" is planned for 3 p.m., Sunday, May 6, also at Schmidt Auditorium.

The program will include music from the 1930s-50s, such as I Left My Heart in San Francisco, Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy and Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend.

"We don't hold formal auditions. We love to sing...and all of our music has to be memorized for concert performance."

Zoo seeks volunteers to assist visitors

The Detroit Zoological Society will offer four monthly orientation sessions through June for prospective volunteers.

The organization seeks individuals 18 and older to guide and assist visitors at the Detroit Zoo for 2012 season.

Recruitment and training of volunteers begin in the spring to prepare for the peak summer season, starting with the Detroit Zoo's annual Bunnyville event on April 7. Training will be offered for both seasonal and year-round opportunities in the Zoo's Arctic Ring of Life, Australian Outback Adventure and Wildlife Interpretive Gallery.

Volunteer positions at the zoo include:

- Docents train to become educators and interpreters at animal habitats throughout the zoo. They also lead tours and assist with educational programs at the zoo and in the community.

- Mob Squad members volunteer at the Australian Outback Adventure, where visitors get a close view of kangaroos, wallabies and emus.

- Gallery guides are based in the Wildlife Interpretive Gallery and spend their time talking about butterflies.

- Ford Education Center assistants help as needed. No specific training is required.

- Arctic Ring of Life guest assistants help with crowd control in the exhibit.

- Staff aides offer clerical and telephone skills
- Special events offer opportunities to volunteer as greeters, craft assistants, face painters, storytellers, costume wearers and registration helpers. Each event has its own list of specialized assistance. No specific training is provided.

Orientation times and dates are:

• 9-11:30 a.m., Saturday, March 24

• 6-8:30 p.m., Thursday, April 19

• 9-11:30 a.m., Saturday, May 12

• 6-8:30 p.m. Thursday, June 7

"Volunteering with the DZS is fun and interesting for individuals who enjoy continuing education. A minimum commitment of 20 hours annually makes it easy for those with busy schedules."

Try it out for one season, April to October, and see how it fits," stated Linda Denomme, volunteer services manager, in a press release.

No experience is necessary to become a Detroit Zoological Society volunteer — just a friendly and outgoing personality. Volunteers enjoy benefits in exchange for their valuable time, including discounts and an annual volunteer appreciation party.

Volunteer orientation sessions are held in the Detroit Zoo's Ford Education Center. Advance registration is required. For information and an application, call (248) 541-5717 ext. 3802 or e-mail volunteer@dzs.org. Last year, 1,133 volunteers contributed 98,195 hours of service to the Detroit Zoological Society, representing $2,097,445 in support. The Detroit Zoo is located at 10 Mile (I-696 service drive) and Woodward Ave., in Royal Oak.

You can have fries

Add potatoes to the plate for a boost of healthy potassium

Do your heart a favor and add the largest and most affordable source of potassium of any vegetable or fruit to your plate — potatoes. Potassium has been shown to help reduce the risk of high blood pressure.

In addition to potassium, potatoes, a mainstay of traditional diets for centuries, contain essential vitamins and minerals, fiber, and antioxidants. At just 110 calories, one medium-size (5.3 ounce) skin-on potato has more potassium (620mg) than a banana (450mg), provides almost half the daily value of vitamin C (45 percent), and contains no fat, sodium or cholesterol.

So, craving a burger and fries? Believe it or not, it's easy to make this traditional comfort food into a healthful meal. Use lean ground beef for the burger patty, and skip the cheese to lower saturated fat. Top with healthful veggies, and go light on the condiments to create a well-balanced meal. Even frozen fries are lower in fat and sodium than in the past.

Burger and Shoestring Fries

This meal is an excellent source of potassium, fiber, protein, vitamin C, riboflavin, vitamin B6, folate, vitamin B12, iron, phosphorus, magnesium, zinc and copper, and a good source of vitamin A, vitamin E, niacin, pantothenic acid and calcium.

1 pound lean ground beef (5% fat), thawed

½ teaspoon garlic powder

¼ teaspoon onion powder

¼ teaspoon ground black pepper

2 medium tomatoes, sliced

4 whole wheat hamburger buns

8 teaspoons ketchup

2 teaspoons mustard

4 cups frozen shoestring French fries

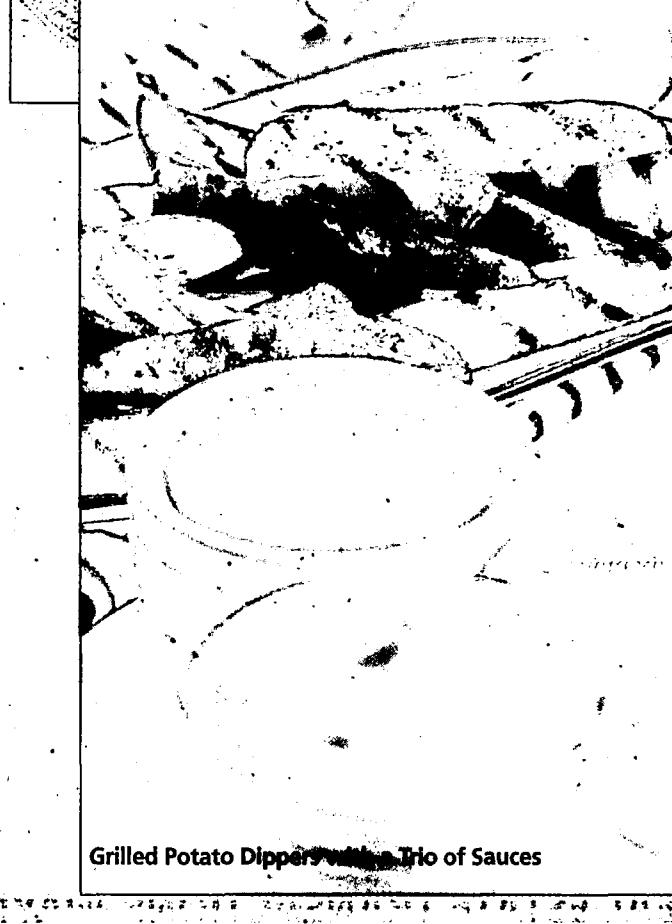

In a medium bowl, mix ground beef with seasonings; shape into patties. Grill or pan fry. Bake shoestring French fries according to package directions.

Potato and Egg Dinner Bake

Breakfast for dinner is one of our favorite things. Just whip together this veggie-filled potato-and-egg casserole and pop it in the oven. In 45 minutes you'll have a nutritious and delicious dinner that's easy on the budget at just $1.62 per serving.

1 pound red potatoes, cut into ½-inch cubes

½ cup sliced green onions

2 cups coarsely shredded 2% or regular sharp cheddar cheese

8 eggs

3 tablespoons flour

½ teaspoon baking powder

1 teaspoon garlic salt

1 cup low-fat cottage cheese

In a separate bowl, whisk together eggs, flour, baking powder and garlic salt. Stir in cottage cheese and pour into prepared dish; stir lightly. Creamy Potato Leek Soup with Tangy Tarragon Drizzle

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons olive oil
5 cups leeks, cleaned and thinly sliced (white and light green parts only)
½ cup chopped shallots
½ cup diced onion
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon freshly ground pepper
5 cups reduced sodium chicken broth
3 medium (5.3 ounce) russet potatoes, peeled and cut into ½-inch cubes
2 bay leaves
1 slice whole wheat bread, lightly toasted and torn in to small pieces
1 cup low-fat evaporated milk
Tangy Tarragon Drizzle:
½ cup reduced fat or fat-free mayonnaise
6 tablespoons buttermilk
2 teaspoons chopped fresh tarragon
2 teaspoons Dijon mustard
Salt and pepper to taste
Tarragon leaves for garnish (if desired)

In a large Dutch oven or heavy pot, melt butter and olive oil together over medium heat. Add leeks, shallots and onions and stir to combine and coat with melted butter. Season with salt and pepper. Reduce heat to medium and cook until vegetables are softened, stirring frequently, about 10-15 minutes.

Increase heat to high and add chicken broth, cubed potatoes and bay leaves. Bring mixture to a boil, reduce heat and simmer until the potatoes are soft and tender, about 12-15 minutes. Remove half the potatoes and set aside. Add toasted bread and cook until bread begins to dissolve, about 5 more minutes. Remove bay leaves. Puree soup until smooth using a blender or food processor. Stir in reserved potatoes and evaporated milk. Top with Tangy Tarragon Drizzle before serving.

Tangy Tarragon Drizzle:

Mix all ingredients in a medium bowl. Season with salt and pepper. May be covered and refrigerated until ready to use. To serve, drizzle on soup and garnish with tarragon leaves.

Buffalo Chicken Potato Skins Recipe

12 ounces boneless, skinless chicken breast

1 cup water

4 medium russet potatoes (about 6 ounces each)

3 tablespoons hot pepper sauce (like Frank's, not Tabasco)

½ cup non-fat milk

½ cup fat-reduced sour cream

1 tablespoon margarine

½ cup crumbled blue cheese

2 green onions

2 medium tomatoes

4 celery stalks

Center oven rack and preheat oven to 425°F. Place chicken in a sauté pan, add water, and cover. Simmer for 20 minutes and remove from pan; let cool slightly. When chicken is cool enough to handle, shred using two forks, one in each hand.

While chicken is simmering, prepare remaining ingredients. Wash potatoes and slit each one lengthwise about 1-inch deep. Place potatoes in a microwave-safe dish and microwave on high, uncovered, for about 10 minutes. Let cool slightly. Slice each potato in half length-wise, scoop out potato, leaving a ¼-inch shell. Mash potato together with hot pepper sauce, sour cream, margarine, and milk. Fold in blue cheese and shredded chicken. Spoon mixture into potato skins slightly denting center (to hold fresh toppings after baking).

Place filled potato skins on a 9- by 13-inch baking sheet and bake about 15-20 minutes until tops are golden brown. Dice tomatoes and green onions. Cut celery stalks into four-inch sticks. To serve, top potatoes with onions and tomatoes. Serve celery sticks on the side for scooping potato contents.

Report: Metropolitan Detroit housing market improves in recent months

The list of housing markets showing measurable improvement expanded by 29 metros in February to include a total of 98 entries on the National Association of Home Builders/First American Improving Markets Index (IMI), released Feb. 6. Thirty-six states are now represented by at least one market on the list.

Michael Stoskopf, CEO of the Building Industry Association of Southeastern Michigan, said the market has improved recently. "Over the last couple of months, locations in Michigan start showing up," he said. Those included Grand Rapids and Muskegon.

The metro Detroit area showed up in February's report, for the four counties of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and St. Clair.

"They look at three factors." Those are sustained improvement in home sale prices, new home permits, and employment.

"All three of those areas have improved consistently," a pleased Stoskopf said.

"Pleasantly surprised. You hope that the Lions make the playoffs and all of a sudden they do. Hopefully we stay on this list for a while."

He had looked monthly at statistics, and found "all of those factors are holding. It comes down to jobs."

"Once they get back to work and they feel secure in that job ... Typically consumers who feel secure will begin to move or perhaps buy a car."

"That economic activity spurs additional activity. I think that's really what we're seeing," Stoskopf said.

In the last six months in the four-county metro area, 27,000 people have returned to work, he said. "That's 27,000 people that now have that potential to buy a home."

"It's pretty good news, we're very excited about it. Hopefully we can sustain the momentum," Stoskopf added.

The index identifies metropolitan areas that have shown improvement from their respective troughs in housing permits, employment and house prices for at least six consecutive months. The February index adds some metropolitan areas that have been particularly weak; this is due to the fact that the IMI measures improvement from a bottom, and some of the hardest hit markets are showing signs of coming off of extreme lows. Keeping this in mind, notable new entrants to list in February include Miami, Fla.; Boston; Detroit; Kansas City, Mo.; Portland, Ore.; Memphis, Tenn.; and Salt Lake City.

"The number of improving housing markets has risen for six consecutive months, and 36 states now have at least one metropolitan area on the list," said NAHB Chairman Bob Nielsen, a home builder from Reno, Nev. "This indicates that despite the many challenges that continue to drag on a housing recovery — including the tight lending environment for builders and buyers — improving conditions are slowly but surely spreading from one housing market to the next."

"While many of the markets on the February IMI are far from fully recovered, the index points out where employment, home prices and housing production are no longer retreating and have held above their lowest recession troughs for six months or more," said NAHB Chief Economist David Crowe. "This is a sign that a large cross section of the country is starting to turn the corner as local economic conditions stabilize."

"The fact that there are nearly 100 markets now on the improving list shows that the momentum is building for a housing recovery and that more buyers and sellers are starting to feel confident enough to return to the market," said Kurt Pfotenhauer, vice chairman of First American Title Insurance Company.

The IMI is designed to track housing markets throughout the country that are showing signs of improving economic health. The index measures three sets of independent monthly data to get a mark on the top improving Metropolitan Statistical Areas. The three indicators that are analyzed are employment growth from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, house price appreciation from Freddie Mac, and single-family housing permit growth from the U.S. Census Bureau. NAHB uses the latest available data from these sources to generate a list of improving markets. A metropolitan area must see improvement in all three areas for at least six months following their respective troughs before being included on the improving markets list.

Seven markets dropped from the NAHB/First American Improving Markets Index in February as they experienced softening house prices. These metros include San Jose, Calif.; Washington, D.C.; Kankakee, Ill.; New Orleans; Worcester, Mass.; Jackson, Miss.; and Sherman, Texas.

A complete list of all 98 metropolitan areas currently on the IMI, and a separate breakout of metros newly added to the list in February, is available at: www.nahb.org/im

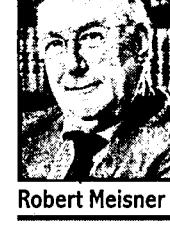

O&E staff writer Julie Brown contributed to this report.

Nashville shows some high notes

By Robert Meisner
Guest Columnist

Q: I understand that downtown Nashville is a source of redevelopment, but do you have any information about it?

A: Like many cities, including Detroit, there was a mass exodus of commercial and retail from downtown Nashville about 20 years ago. Slowly, but surely, however, retail and office building development has returned to downtown Nashville particularly with the stadia that have been constructed as well as the commuter railroad which offers an opportunity for people to come directly to the downtown area have helped revitalize the area. Of course, there is still the honkytonk streets filled with bars providing all sorts of music which is a major attraction and results in increased activity. Also, a new convention center is planned which will also spur development and the increase in real estate property values.

Q: Our board has some concern about coyotes and other potentially dangerous animals entering our condominium project. Are we, in effect, responsible for the behavior of indigenous wild animals?

A: Generally not. Generally speaking, community associations are not responsible for the behavior of indigenous wild animals — a legal doctrine known as ferae naturae. However, a recent ruling in Georgia poses an inroad into the blanket immunity that community associations have enjoyed. In that case, the majority in the Appellate Court said that it is reasonable to consider whether liability exists for the association, based in part on its policy of removing alligators that were more than seven feet long. In that situation, the alligator that killed a woman was more than eight feet long. So in any situation, you should consult with your community association attorney and insurance carrier.

On the job

RE/MAX Classic announced Teresa McCollom has joined the Canton office. McCollom is a longtime resident of Canton and has branded herself as a real estate professional in Western Wayne, Oakland, Livingston, Washtenaw and Macomb counties for the past 10 years. She specializes in residential and commercial sales and leasing, executive properties, golf course communities and buyer representation. McCollom is certified as a Short Sale and Foreclosure Resource Specialist and brings with her a strong background in interior design and staging offering home sellers a unique edge selling their home in today's market.

Teresa is genuine, professional and extremely dedicated when it comes to servicing her clients. Her knowledge and exceptional communication skills and caring have made her a much sought after Realtor in the industry," said Carol Boji, broker/owner of RE/MAX Classic.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
