Hawthorne Valley proposal revealed

Plan calls for mixed residential development on former golf course

LeAnne Rogers

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

A proposal for affordable housing — in part aimed at serving developmentally disabled adults — is being recommended for the former Hawthorne Valley property in Westland.

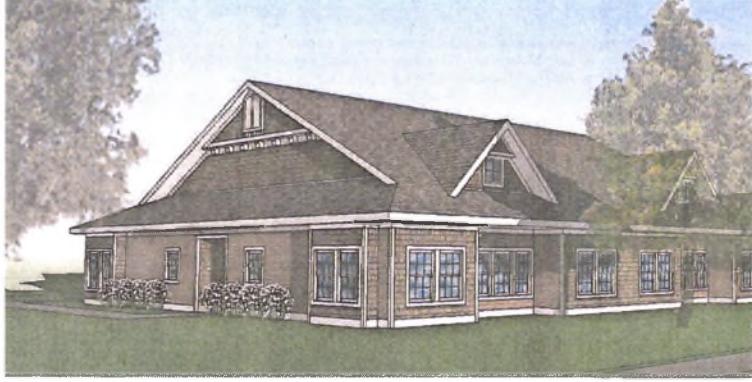

The city council will hold a study session at 6 p.m. Monday to discuss the recommendation from the city's property disposition committee to sell the property for development by Three Oaks Development and Advisory Services, based in Washtenaw County.

"The lawyers have been negotiating a purchase agreement — it's not set yet," Westland Mayor William Wild said.

"This group came in with a development to create a small residential village of condos and single-family homes for parents with adult autistic children."

Designed with Liberty Housing Services, the concept for Hawthorne Oaks is attached condominiums to provide independent living for intellectually and developmentally disabled adults, along with single-family homes built with accessibility for developmentally dis-

Ladywood closing, but sisterhood will live forever, alumnae say

Matt Jachman

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Ladywood High School may be closing next spring, but it will live on in the lifelong friendships forged there, local alumnae say.

The all-girls Catholic high school in Livonia will shut down at the end of the year because of declining enrollment. The decision, made by the Felician Sisters of North America, the order of nuns that founded the school in 1950 and continues to oversee it, was announced Monday.

Graduates said they got from Ladywood a top-notch education rooted in faith, room to grow as young women that they may not have had at a co-ed school and close friends for life.

"These women have been an anchor in my life and, without Ladywood, I would not have had those beautiful relationships," said Teri Gorski of Dearborn Heights, a 1978 graduate.

"It's a part of us," said Gorski, who has kept up with a core group of classmates for the nearly 40 years since they left Ladywood. "It's a part of our fabric."

"The sisterhood really doesn't end when you leave high school," said Kathleen Bushart of Redford Township, a 2017 Ladywood graduate and now a freshman at the University of Toledo. "One hundred percent, they'll always be my forever friends."

Gorski, who works in the area as a speech pathologist, lived in Detroit while in high school, but Ladywood drew enough girls from her area that the school bused them in, she said.

Gorski said she and her Ladywood friends get together regularly and have supported each other in good times and bad. Some, she said, are even godmothers to each other's children.

She said she appreciated the Catholic education — she later sent her daughters to a Catholic high school — and the all-female classes. "I think it

Former kennel owner found guilty of animal neglect

David Veselenak

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

A former Farmington Hills kennel owner could face three months in jail after being found guilty of animal neglect Tuesday morning.

Mary Gabriel, 74, of Rose Township will be sentenced at 10 a.m. Jan. 10 after 16th District Judge Sean Kavanagh found her guilty of four misdemeanor counts of animal abuse following several hours of trial spanning two weeks.

In finding her guilty, Kavanagh rejected claims that Gabriel, former owner of Farmington Hills-based Chien d'Or Goldens kennel near 12 Mile and Orchard Lake roads, kept the dogs in good condition before passing them off to Livonia resident Kelly Dettore back in August.

"This is long-term neglect," Kavanagh said.

Gabriel was charged in Livonia's courthouse after an animal control officer was called to Dettore's Livonia home in August on the report of her having too many dogs. When an officer arrived, he found the four dogs, two golden retrievers and two Sussex spaniels, to have feces matted in their fur along with ear infections and fleas. Gabriel returned to court Tuesday morning after her trial originally began Dec. 5.

Kavanagh found Gabriel not guilty on four counts of keeping unlicensed dogs, saying that since the dogs were brought into Livonia, city ordinance stated they needed to be licensed within 30 days. Since the dogs were recovered in less than that, Kavanagh found her not guilty.

Gabriel has faced issues in Farmington Hills before regarding the kennel.

allowed us to develop certain leadership abilities," Gorski said.

"Being in an all-girls setting, there's an element of safety and appreciation for women," said Kelly Burke of Canton Township, a 2017 graduate and a freshman at the all-women St. Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind. There was emphasis on learning together, cultivating personal growth and building each other up, she said.

"I was able to really find my identity and become the person I wanted to be," Burke said.

"The all-female environment really helped to build strong friendships," said Meghan Hanley of Livonia, a 1999 graduate who coordinates community outreach and volunteer efforts at a credit union. "I agree with that, that it was a confidence-booster."

The school was academically strong, graduates said.

"I feel really prepared at Toledo," said Bushart, who is studying to become a physical therapist. "I'm really excelling at my classes."

"The sisters were amazing. They were well-educated," Gorski said. "They had multiple degrees ... it was amazing. They were all excellent role models."

A look at the faculty roster, however, shows there is only one nun currently on the staff.

Gorski said she feels for Ladywood's current juniors, who will have to graduate from other schools.

"You do a lot of growing up in those years. Not to be able to have that closure — it's a tragedy," she said.

The Ladywood school board is planning to offer help with transfers and the Felicians are pledging $500 annual scholarships to Ladywood students who enroll at other Catholic high schools.

Bushart, who played basketball all four of her years at Ladywood, said she's talked about the impending closing with Class of '17 friends, as well as with younger former teammates who are still at the school.

"Everyone's just really shocked," she said. Bushart's roommate at UT is also a Ladywood graduate.

There were often rumors the school would close, recent graduates said, but nobody took them too seriously.

"It was kind of something that we would just throw around, but we didn't think it would actually happen," Burke said.

Burke said she hopes the closing doesn't portend bad news for other all-girls Catholic schools. Other all-girls Catholic schools in the area include Academy of the Sacred Heart and Marian, both in Bloomfield Hills, Mercy in Farmington Hills and St. Catherine of Siena Academy in Wixom.

"Seeing one less outlet for high school girls to get that (Catholic) education was disappointing to me," Hanley said.

"For parents who desire that all-girls high school experience for their daughters in this area, the inner-ring suburbs of Detroit, there's not that alternative anymore," Gorski said.

"Our high school reunion is going to mean so much more now and I think the legacy of Ladywood will always live on," Burke said.

Her kennel license was not renewed earlier this year and she announced via the kennel's website that the business is for sale.

Livonia assistant city attorney Paul Bernier said in his closing argument it was clear that the dogs, known to belong to Gabriel, had been neglected for some time. He referenced testimony from the previous week's hearings from a Humane Society veterinarian, who said it was her opinion the dogs had not been cared for in some time.

"I think the dogs had been neglected for a long time," he said.

But Colleen Murphy, Gabriel's attorney, said Dettore is the one who neglected the dogs and was responsible, not her client. She cited the heavy rainfall the area had when the dogs were taken to Dettore's home in August and brought in one witness who told Kavanagh she saw the dogs shortly before Dettore began watching them and that they were in good condition.

Jennifer Elder, who formerly worked at the kennel run by Gabriel, said Tuesday she had seen the dogs a few days before and they didn't seem neglected then.

"It was three to four days before they left," she said.

Dettore's mother, Susan Collins, also testified in the continuation of the trial Tuesday morning. She said her daughter appeared well over her head in taking care of the dogs, which Collins saw an hour after Dettore took them to her home.

She said she noticed right away the dogs were in bad shape and needed care. She said she tried to remove the mats, but said they were incredibly tight against the dogs' skin.

"I went and got the shampoo and tried to cut the mats," Collins said. "I knew she needed to do something."

LIVONIA POLICE BRIEFS

Home broken into

Livonia police were called Dec. 10 to a home in the 12100 block of Cardwell to report a furnace and hot water tank had been stolen from the home.

Police checked the house when they got there and found the two items missing, along with the washer and dryer moved from their original locations. Police spoke to the real estate agent for the home, which is for sale, who told them she was there Nov. 28 for a showing. Another real estate agent was at the home that day and arrived to find the lock box missing and saw it appeared the home had been broken into. She then called police. Officers spoke to a neighbor, who said they heard something overnight between Dec. 8-9.

Retail fraud reported

Police were called Tuesday evening to Walmart, 29555 Plymouth, on the report of a retail fraud suspect in custody.

An employee told police they saw the suspect at the self-checkout, ringing up several items. The suspect appeared to not ring up several pieces of clothing and proceeded to try to leave the store with them without paying. The suspect walked out, but was stopped by an employee and detained until police arrived. Officers issued a citation to the suspect, who was released at the scene.

WAYNE POLICE BRIEFS

Counterfeit money reported

Wayne police were called Dec. 5 to Wayne Memorial High School, 3001 Fourth, on the report of some counterfeit money that had been passed.

The school's assistant principal told police someone had used a counterfeit $20 bill to pay for some concessions. All the concessions drawers were checked and other counterfeit bills were also found. The suspect reportedly left before police arrived and the school said it would review its security footage.

Car stolen

Police were called Dec. 3 to the 31500 block of Van Born on the report of a stolen vehicle.

The victim said the car was parked the night before and he discovered it was missing that afternoon. He said a wallet was inside, which contained some credit cards, his concealed pistol license and a Social Security card. The resident told police one of his cards had been used at a gas station in Detroit. He told police he knows the vehicle was locked and does not know who would have broken into it.

Livonia middle school student pens Christmas play

hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

It was one thing for Livonia resident Andreana Beard to write and direct a play three years ago at age 10. But the middle school student looks to continue on that success this year and she's got some famous talent here to help her out.

Beard, 13, has written another play that will be performed this weekend at the Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History, 315 E. Warren, in Detroit. She's penned "The Return of Christmas Love," a play she wrote several years ago and is putting the finishing touches on this Tony Grant and Andreana Beard, 13, of Livonia. Beard reached out to Grant, a California-based actor who has done work with Tyler Perry, and requested he act in her play. week before its performance Sunday.

"It's basically about how God can do all things," Beard said. "It's about a little girl and, instead of going to Santa Claus for a present, she goes to God instead."

And she has some well-known star power to help her with this performance. She reached out to Tony Grant, who has an extensive background in music, theater and movie and television performances. He's most recently known for appearing in Tyler Perry's "Love Thy Neighbor" on the Oprah Winfrey Network, which concluded its four-season run earlier this year.

Grant said he first noticed Beard during a workshop in Detroit several years ago. He said it was clear there was something special about her after seeing her in action.

"When I sat down and talked with her, I was so impressed," he said. "I was impressed with her manners, I was impressed with her spirit, I was impressed with her talent."

So when Beard and her mother, Kimberly Beard, reached out earlier this year to ask if he'd participate in the performance, he didn't hesitate before saying "yes."

"I said, 'Oh my God, this girl is gifted,'" Grant said.

This is just the most recent performance Andreana Beard will have debuted in downtown Detroit. She wrote "Christmas Love," which was performed in 2014 when she was 10.

This time around, she was also able to wrangle in Bishop Don Shelby, who oversees the three Burning Bush International Ministries churches in Ypsilanti, Jackson and Westland.

Shelby did a rehearsal Tuesday with Andreana Beard at the Westland church, 30355 Annapolis, and said this is his first time doing any kind of stage performance since he was a child.

"This is the first time for me," the Canton resident said. "I hope we don't have (Siskel and Ebert) out there critiquing me as an actor."

She said they've rehearsed since about Halloween and she's ready to take the production to the stage.

"I'm just shaking in my boots a little bit. I'm a little nervous," she said. "There's a lot of things that have been added to it. I hope it goes really well."

The show will be performed at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the museum. Tickets are $25 for general seating and $35 for VIP and can be purchased through Ticketmaster and Eventbrite.

Three Cities Art Club exhibit winners announced

Winners have been announced in the Three Cities Art Club's sixth annual juried art exhibition, which is on display through Jan. 30 at Westland City Hall. The top entrants were selected by Monte Nagler, a local photographer. Westland Mayor William Wild also chose his personal favorite for an additional award. Nagler selected his favorites in two categories, photography and all others, including oils, acrylics, watercolors, printmaking, air brush, collage, pencil and pastels.

In photography, first place went to John Mittelstadt of Bloomfield Hills and best of show went to Dennis Koski of Sterling Heights. Tim Tonachelia of Plymouth received an honorable mention award and second place, Allen Brooks of Livonia received an honorable mention award and third place and Aileen Mozug of Livonia received an honorable mention award.

In all other two-dimensional works, Mireille Ripley of Ann Arbor took home first place, best of show and an honorable mention. Kay Masini of Plymouth received an honorable mention and second place, Jon Lange of Livonia took third place and Susann Smith of Westland received an honorable mention.

Wild selected his favorite piece for the Wild About Art Award, which was awarded to Laurel Raisanen of Wayne.

The Gallery at City Hall, 36300 Warren Road, in Westland's City Hall, is a beautiful venue for showcasing the works of Children get their chance to Shop with a Hero

David Veselenak
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

For a few hours Monday night, the Livonia Meijer was arguably the safest place to be in western Wayne County.

That's because police officers, firefighters and some members of the military could be seen throughout the store shopping with 39 children during the annual Shop with a Hero event at the store, located at 13000 Middlebelt.

Sponsored by the Goodfellows in Livonia, Redford Township and Garden City, public safety officials from those three communities could be seen in the toy and electronic department of the store, shopping with children for Christmas presents.

One such child was 8-year-old Keith Landau of Livonia, who picked up a small drone he wanted to purchase. He was shopping with Livonia police officer Sam Tamer, who was in his second year of doing the event after trying it in 2016.

Tamer said he came back because he enjoyed himself and wanted to give back.

"I just thought it was an awesome experience and had a lot of fun," he said.

Garden City firefighter John Smith was taking part in his first Shop with a Hero event, shopping with 8-year-old Ladiarion Byrd of Garden City.

He said it was an option he had presented to him and decided he wouldn't turn it down.

"It was just an opportunity I had never been presented with and I thought it'd be awesome," he said. "I think it's one of those things that you don't want to hose yourself out of, but if you're asked to do it, it's really cool."

Jayden Crawford, 9, of Livonia spent his time wandering the aisles with Livonia police officer Dan Moilanen pondering his decisions.

He'd select one thing, then decide it wasn't the right move. He tried to maximize his dollars, just as any good shopper does.

"It's just that, I'm trying to spend my money wisely," he said.

His grandmother, Clarissa Thomas of Livonia, said the opportunity to head out to the store and spent some time with some public safety officers was "awesome."

"They will remember this," she said.

The event takes place each year to help those the area Goodfellows identify as needing some assistance around the holidays. It's just one event the Goodfellows do to help the communities the club serves.

John Buck, president of the Redford Goodfellows and a former Redford police chief, said the event is perfect to give the children some positive interaction with law enforcement officers in a time where some officers may be viewed in a bad light.

"It gives the children an opportunity to provide some kids that otherwise might not be able to do that," he said. "They thoroughly enjoy the activity."

Totten to speak at luncheon

Jeff Totten will talk about his career, life and faith at the Compass Christian Business Alliance, Western Wayne, luncheon from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 4, at Dave & Buster's, 19375 Victor Parkway, in Livonia. The fee for the lunch is $20. Totten has a vast portfolio of experiences working with athletes, including serving as chaplain to athletes in Olympic Village at the 2002 Winter Games in Salt Lake City.

Born and raised in the Detroit area, Totten has worked with the Detroit Rockers and the Detroit Fury, as well as other professional and amateur athletes.

The public is invited to attend all Compass meetings. To sign up for luncheons, go to michigancompass.org/westernwayne. Visit the group on Facebook at compasswesternwayne.

Wayne Memorial parents night

Wayne Memorial High School will be hosting an eighth-grade parents night at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 6, at the Wayne Memorial High School Stockmeyer Auditorium, 3001 Fourth Street.

This evening is for current eighth-grade students and their families or families interested in getting more information about Wayne Memorial High School for the 2018-19 school year. Students do not have to be currently attending a Wayne-Westland Community School to participate in this event.

Topics covered will include scheduling, graduation requirements, testing out requirements, direct college courses, AP courses, extracurricular activities and much more. All are welcome to attend and questions are encouraged.

Parking is available in the Glenwood Street parking lot and guests should enter through the front of the auditorium. For questions, contact the Wayne Memorial counseling department at 734-419-2215.

Livonia's 100 Days to Health

Registration is underway for Livonia's 100 Days to Health 2018 at the Kirksey Recreation Center, 15100 Hubbard. The community-wide event, which benefits the entire family for the first 100 days of 2018, is presented by Mercy Elite and sponsored in part by Vibe Credit Union, Dick's Sporting Goods, Jimmy John's, Nestle Water, Sport and Spine Performance Institute, Time to Savor and Oberweis Dairy.

The program offers the opportunity to participate in a range of activities, including exercise classes for all ages, nutrition and wellness seminars, rock climbing, free Friday workouts, open swim and more. Additionally, adults can take part in the 100 Day Weight Loss Fitness Challenge. Register for the challenge and be eligible for monthly prizes. Last year's participants lost a total of 578 pounds, with the winner losing 67 pounds.

The kickoff event will take place at 9 a.m. Sunday, Jan. 7. The event will feature keynote speakers, raffle prizes, refreshments and free workout and open swim for the day. For more information, call 734-466-2912 or go to www.livoniaparks.org.

Father-son weekend a smash

Inaugural event blends hockey, fun and togetherness for Plymouth Wildcats squad

Tim Smith

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Do those Plymouth hockey guys know how to have fun or what?

In just over a 48-hour period, from Nov. 30 through Dec. 2, Plymouth varsity boys hockey players — and their dads — enjoyed father-son bowling, pizza and steak, a visit to Grand Valley State University and good ol' camaraderie and kibitzing.

There even was enough time for two Wildcats hockey games (against Forest Hills North-East and Grandville), as well as morning skates where dads were invited to lace up their skates and get out on the ice.

Book ending all the fun, of course, was a chartered, two-hour bus ride between Canton's Arctic Edge Arena and Holiday Inn Express in Grand Rapids.

"Anytime you can go on a road trip with your team, it is always great in helping to build team chemistry, which you hope transpires on the ice," Plymouth head coach Gerry Vento said. "The more time players can spend with each other in a relaxed environment away from the outside pressures, it really helps them to get to know each other as individuals and not just hockey

Spartans roll to lopsided win as wheels fall off for Patriots

hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

After a Jekyll-and-Hyde first half for host Livonia Stevenson, the Spartans boiled things down to their simplest terms during halftime Tuesday: play team defense and let the offense flow from that.

The pep talk from head coach Ka-reem Smart paid fast dividends, as Stevenson outscored Livonia Franklin 23-10 in the third quarter and pulled away for an 83-62 KLAA boys basketball victory.

"Our main thing we talked about in the locker room was defense," Stevenson senior guard Devin Dunn said. "We weren't playing any defense at all the first half. So we kicked it up a notch in the second."

Stevenson trailed 44-42 at the intermission, letting an early lead (it was 14-2 just minutes into the contest) evaporate as Franklin senior power forward Mark Mettie (30 points, 21 in the first half) spearheaded a Patriots rally.

That the Spartans (1-0) were able to hit the reset button and come away with the victory "feels great," Dunn said, and, "gives them (Patriots) a little payback from football."

In Week 9 of the football season, Franklin defeated Stevenson 35-21 and then rolled all the way to the Division 2 belt Paul George and second-degree black belt Rohini Sonawane also attended the hour-long gathering.

Wiest — a black belt like the majority of his friends — is by far the group's senior member. The next closest is Kittinger, 10 years younger.

Despite the age disparity, Wiest is a respected workout participant.

"Mike is a wonderful guy and is revered by everyone here," said Kittinger, a Farmington Hills resident. "He likes the camaraderie of the group. We do a lot of trash talking, too, and it's all in fun."

"His cardiovascular system is awesome. He is very, very strong and he can keep up with the best of us," he added. "He's in super shape and he's a wonderful example to all."

Sonawane, 44, a native of India, earned her black belt in 2011, just four years after she took up the Olympic sport that emphasizes head-high, jumping and spinning kicks. The Farmington Hills resident is absolutely inspired by Wiest.

"Mike is one of my idols. When I look at him and see him going on with his daily life, it is so motivating," Sonawane said. "I want to be like him when and if I'm lucky enough to reach his age. He is a good friend and he's very humorous."

"We will spar, we kick each other and he likes the competition," she added. "He still keeps up his energy levels and his health. He is a regular (student) here, he does not give up for any reason and I'm so honored to have him as my friend."

Drive overrides age

Wiest, a.k.a. "The Beast," does not let age affect his drive.

The former U.S. Marine lieutenant is an energetic octogenarian who simply wants to remain active and healthy.

A Northville resident married to his wife Isabella for 60 years, Wiest seriously got involved in tae kwon do after retiring from his job as an insurance executive in 1999. He successfully ascended the 11 required degrees to become a black belt, averaging a level per year as he attained the coveted belt in 2010.

It was a personal challenge in which he takes great pride. "I got two of my grandsons involved in it years ago and I figured, as long as I was taking them, I might as well get involved with it, too,"

Wiest said. "I never played any contact sports when I was younger and I thought (tae kwon do) would be good for me. It's turned out to be the best thing I ever did."

"I've been here with Jack for 15 years and I did a little before that, so I would say I've been involved with the sport for about 20 years. I'm motivated to do it. You develop a lot of confidence when you do this — and I like the camaraderie.

"You become real friends, even though you're in competition with them," he added. "You're out there kicking and punching each other, but you don't take it personally. I wish I started it when I was 15 years old, but the past is the past."

Staying in shape

Wiest's ultimate passion is to stay in shape.

He works out twice a week for 60 minutes at Kil's Tae Kwon Do, which was elevated to Family of the Year status in 2011 by USA Taekwondo for its service in advancing the sport. In addition, he lifts light weights three times a week at his house.

The native Pennsylvanian, who grew up in New Jersey, is also a big proponent of meditation to help reduce stress. He said working in life insurance taught him how to deal with life experiences.

"I was a life insurance underwriter for my whole career and I would look at people's medical history, their mental history and I would see what really hurts people," Wiest said. "Three of the big factors are stress, lack of exercise and loss of motivation. If you sit around and watch TV too much and start to eat junk food, you're going to get fat and clog your arteries up."

Mike Wiest is 83 years old and still practicing the sport of tae kwon do. BILL BRESLER | HOMETOWNLIFE.COM

"I like that (the sport) forces you to stay in shape. If you put on too much weight or you slow down or don't have the motivation, you're going to miss this opportunity. It's a motivator for me to stay in shape and watch what I eat. I like to read, but reading is not physical enough."

"I get a kick out of this, because it's competitive. It's friendly competition," he added. "Nobody's trying to hurt you, but you don't want to look like a shmuck out there. I don't want to look like an old man who can't compete. I love this and I have some great friends here."

Kittinger is so enamored with the inspiration Wiest provides that he made a specially-designed shirt which he unveiled Tuesday. It reads: "Mr. Wiest (a.k.a. 'The Beast') may be 83, but he can still kick my a--."

Now, that's respect.

players.

"Add to that the fact they are spending it with their dads in a one-on-one setting makes it even better. It was great to see the players interacting with their dads at the various events we had planned outside of your typical hockey setting."

"And it was really rewarding seeing the dads get to know each other in a way they wouldn't typically be able to do by simply seeing each other at the rink on game day."

Bowl 'em over

The highlight (or low light, depending on whom you talked to) of the inaugural Plymouth hockey father-son weekend was a bowling outing Dec. 1 at Northfield Lanes.

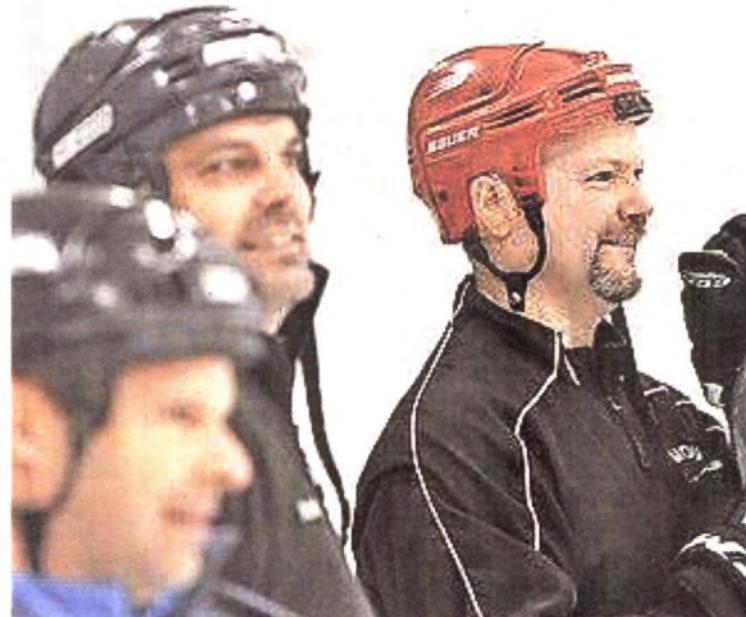

"I learned that when it comes to bowling, my son (Jack Chumley) should stick to hockey," Todd Chumley, one of the dads on the junket, said with a laugh. "I'm no (professional bowler) Earl Anthony, so he gets it from me."

Todd then put the bowling event — and fun-filled weekend — into perspective.

"That was a great moment, just hanging out in a bowling alley on a Friday afternoon," he said. "It had nothing to do with bowling. Just being with my son and the dads, laughing, not thinking about work and life's other responsibilities and enjoying a moment that I may never get to be a part of anything like it again. It really was a special couple of days."

Jack Chumley also said bowling was a blast, but so was every other entry on the jam-packed schedule. (Steak at Brann's and a catered team meal at Smokey Bones, what's not to like?)

"The trip was definitely something I'll never forget," said Jack, a senior forward and team captain. "I had a ton of fun and it was just such a great experience.

7:30-8 p.m.: Bus departs for Arctic Edge

"I wouldn't say I was surprised by anything my dad did. He's a really funny guy, so it's never a surprise that wherever he goes, everybody's laughing."

It's all good

If the Chumleys struggled with their strikes and spares, that wasn't the case for dad Mike Baldwin and son Tim (a senior forward and assistant captain). The third player with a letter on his jersey is senior forward and assistant captain C.J. Mullenax.

"The father and sons teamed up for a bowling match," Tim Baldwin said. "Our team came in second overall. My dad is a good bowler and it gave me motivation to keep up with him and help the team win. It was a fun time."

Although doing well at the bowling event was a bonus, it wasn't the prevailing takeaway for Mike Baldwin.

"Getting to know all the new dads and watch the boys interact with each other," he said, responding to a question about his favorite non-hockey moments of the trip. "It was fun to see how well they all really get along."

Another positive part of the weekend was a chance to visit Grand Valley State University for a campus visit Dec. 2. Leading the tour was Corey Smith, a former Plymouth Wildcats player now skating for Grand Valley. Smith is one of six Plymouth alums now playing club hockey at GVSU, Vento said.

Smith went over everything from where to live to what to eat to potential classes and extracurricular activities.

Later that afternoon, Plymouth played Grandville at Georgetown Ice Arena, enjoyed post-game pizza with their teammates and dads and listened to a presentation by Charlie Link about potential opportunity after graduation, whether at GVSU or in junior hockey.

"Charlie stressed to the players that finding the right college for your future is far more important than the hockey program it may have," Vento said.

Of course, the weekend had plenty of hockey. The morning skates were a chance for the dads to join their sons on the ice.

Plymouth split the games, defeating Forest

Hills North-East (ranked No. 6 in Division 2) 4-3 and losing 3-2 to Grandville (No. 6 in D-1).

Family time

Jack Chumley and Tim Baldwin concurred that memories from the father-son weekend will never fade — and that the 2017-18 Wildcats might very well have a secret ingredient when they need to come together during tough times on the ice.

"I think that the trip has had a positive effect on the players, because it shows what a good environment we have around," Chumley said.

"There's support from everyone. All of the dads are such nice people and getting to know some of them just makes you realize that our whole team is really a family and, with what we want to do this year, that's important."

"This team is very close," Baldwin said. "Everyone gets along and we all work hard. We work together. Each player helps the other and we push each other to be better. We have one goal for this season. This weekend strengthened that goal — one team!"

PREP GYMNASTICS

Chiefs squad looking to hit the 'reset button'

Tim Smith
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

Year after year, the Canton Chiefs literally are on the beam as among Michigan's elite high school gymnastics teams.

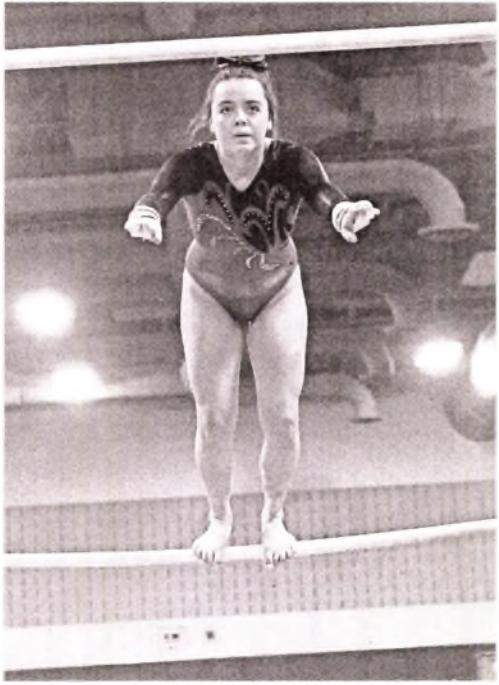

Veteran Canton head coach John Cunningham always finds a way to guide teams to the top and 2017-18 shouldn't be any different. But Cunningham recently acknowledged that the Chiefs will need to jell after losing key gymnasts to graduation.

"With the graduation of team leaders Jana Hilditch and Canton's female athlete of the year Kelsea Kernosek, this year's squad will take some time to reset," Cunningham said.

Canton, last year's runner-up in the MHSAA state finals, opened the season losing 140.7-134.25 to a strong Farmington United team that placed fourth in the state finals last season.

Farmington United posted at least 9.0 in three events, led by Elisa Bills (9.45 on vault; 9.25 on balance beam and 9.35 on floor exercise). Ava Farquhar and Emily Stecevic registered 9.1 and 9.025, respectively, on beam.

For Canton, the lone performer to reach 9.0 in any event was Annika Wang, who tallied 9.1 on beam.

Cunningham said his team's best event of the night was vault, led by Katherine Najduk's 8.95 score. Other Chiefs to perform well in that event were Rachel Socha (fourth, 8.75), Zoe Graves (fifth, 8.7) and Nehal Harish (sixth, 8.65).

Other Canton scores of note included Graves's second-place finishes on uneven balance bars (8.55) and floor (8.675) and Socha's fifth on floor exercise (8.525).

"Generally, it was a good overall team showing with 25 of the individual performances achieving regional qualifying scores," Cunningham said.

USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

Hockey indeed has heart, especially around the holidays.

On Wednesday, Dec. 27, at Arctic Edge Arena in Canton, folks who bring a new pair of gloves or new winter hat will receive free admission to the 8 p.m. varsity rivalry boys game between the Plymouth Wildcats and Canton Chiefs.

Those items then will be distributed by Plymouth Community United Way for its Hats for the Homeless drive.

at Arctic Edge Arena

Bring a NEW pair of gloves, or a NEW warm winter hat, and receive FREE entry! All items will go to benefit Plymouth Community United Way's "Hats for the Homeless" Drive.

The Dec. 27 Plymouth-Canton hockey game at Arctic Edge will give fans a chance to help the needy.

And the varsity game won't be the only hockey fun at the arena, located at 46615 Michigan Avenue, west of Canton Center Drive.

Alumni game, too

Plymouth's alumni hockey game is scheduled 6-7:30 p.m., with players from the decade-plus history of the Wildcats to go up against each other. Efforts are ongoing to recruit as many alums as possible; cost to play is $20. A vintage Plymouth varsity jersey will be auctioned off to an alum.

"It will be a great opportunity for alumni to reconnect with each other and bridge the gap between current and former Wildcats," current varsity coach Gerry Vento said. "In addition, it allows everyone the opportunity to help with a great cause."

Vento said up to 36 former skaters "plus goalies" will participate in the alumni game.

state final.

It starts with defense

According to Smart, the second half showed that his team knows how to rev it up defensively in crucial time.

"The first half, we were kind of playing passive and letting them do what they wanted to do," Smart said. "In the second half, (we) turned it up, (senior guard) George Ferguson, especially, and it was just a collective effort. We began rebounding and playing better team defense than we did in the first half."

Leading Stevenson with 21 points was senior guard Chris Fazica, a career best.

Fazica buried a trey from the right wing in the opening minute of the third quarter to pull the Spartans back to within 46-45 and that launched a 23-point quarter. A close game at halftime was 65-54 Stevenson after three.

"(The Patriots) showed us what they got and we just put it to them the last two quarters," Fazica said, adding that he thought Stevenson's full-court press seemed to tire out the Patriots down the stretch.

Ferguson had a solid all-around night for the Spartans with 14 points and 10 rebounds, while senior center Thomas Demers and Dunn registered 15 and 10 points, respectively.

Scoring seven points each for Franklin (1-1) were senior center Jacob Mass and senior guard Roger Carpenter.

Franklin head coach T.J. Hurley, whose squad dropped to 1-1, said his team just did not play consistent defense.

"You don't want to give up 40 first-half points or second-half points, obviously," Hurley said. "Defense is what killed us."

Wrestling

WATERFORD MOTT INVITATIONAL

North Farmington's young wrestling team went 1-5 in the Waterford Mott Invitational on Dec. 9. The Raiders defeated Pontiac, 42-12, and, even though they avoided five weight divisions, lost in a nail biter to Bloomfield Hills, 39-31. North Farmington junior Scott Hampton had an excellent showing, winning all five of his matches to remain undefeated on the season. He won a pair of matches by technical fall and survived another with a tough 5-3 decision over a Salem opponent. Anthony Williams went 2-1 on the day while sophomore Aiden Keenan had a big pin over a foe from Dearborn Heights Crestwood to earn to his varsity letter. Freshmen Peyton Williams and Matt Myles both earned letters with wins over Bloomfield Hills foes.

"We are wrestling tough," said North Farmington head coach Jon Castle. "We're young and we're working through the growing pains every program that has to rebuild goes through. The key is the progress being made from week to week, and match to match. We've made some steps forward from Wednesday night and now we need to get back in the room and get ready for the (Oakland) County meet next Friday."

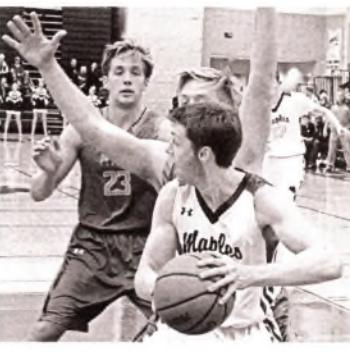

HAWK HAVOC INVITATIONAL

Farmington placed third in the Hawk Havoc Wrestling Tournament held Dec. 9 at Harrison High School. The Falcons went 3-2, beating Livonia Clarenceville (57-19), Royal Oak (48-29) and Livonia Stevenson (54-30). Farmington's losses were to Southfield A&T (48-27) and Fenton (61-18). Farmington's featured wrestler for the day was Anthony Averiette III who posted five wins. Aidan Kilcline, Jack Fowler and Trevor Averiette logged four wins each.

HARRISON-FARMINGTON 99, TROY 86

Harrison-Farmington made a successful debut in the OAA Red Division. The Phoenix, which won the OAA White Division title last year, were moved up to the Red and opened with this 13-point road victory on Tuesday. Senior captain Drew Hinckley (50- and 100-free) and freshman Trevor Jones (100-fly, 200-free) were double individual winners for the Phoenix.

Sophomore Brody Jamison (200-IM) and senior captain Charlie Jones (500-free) were the team's other individual winners. The 200-free relay team also came up with a strong effort and earned a Division 1 state-meet qualifying time. Harrison-Farmington will host perennial power Birmingham Seaholm in another OAA Red Division battle on Thursday.

Boys basketball

SEAHOLM 49, CLAWSON 36

After falling to Catholic League foes Catholic Central and Brother Rice to begin the season, Seaholm captured its first victory of the season Tuesday. The host Maples registered this 13-point non-league victory over Clawson without one player reaching double figures. Senior Cooper Mixon led Seaholm with nine points while senior Zach Ziegler followed with eight.

ANN ARBOR GREEN-HILLS 52, BIRMINGHAM ROEPPER 34

Roeper dropped its first game in two outings Tuesday evening. Despite the defeat, the Roughriders had a pair of double-figure scorers. Josiah Smith finished with 18 points and Evan Akashain mustered 11.

Girls basketball

MERCY 41, LUTHERAN NORTH 30

The final score reads Mercy won by 11 points, but the game was much closer than it appears. Mercy trailed after the opening quarter but went to lead 22-20 at the half. The Maples held a slim 30-26 lead after three quarters and outscored the Mustangs by an 11-4 fourth-quarter margin. "It was a hard-fought game. The final score is a bit deceiving, but we managed to get the win," said Mercy head coach Gary Morris. "It was very tight right down to the end. We made out free throws down the stretch which really helped." Mercy was 17-of-22 from the Sam Cherney had another strong game for host North Farmington in this OAA crossover victory Monday night. The senior center logged a double-double (20 points, 18 rebounds) and also had six blocked shots. Maya Kelly added 17 points, six rebounds and four assists for the Raiders.

Patil Tcholakian (14 points, five steals), Molly Simpson (six points) and Abby Hanus (six points) also had strong games for undefeated (3-0) North Farmington.

"He's a spark-plug, he's a tough kid and that's what we really like about him," Hurley said about Crespi. "He's not afraid to take the three. He really helped us out. That's two games in a row Chase has hit a couple threes (coming off) the bench."

MOMENTUM SWING

Ferguson keyed Stevenson's decisive run in the third quarter. Midway through, he stole the ball and went in for a base-line layup.

Seconds later, Ferguson took a perfect pass from senior forward Parker Graham and connected on a triple to put the Spartans up, 54-48.

OUT OF RHYTHM

Hurley said Stevenson's relentless pressure in the second half gave his team fits and the Patriots could not recover.

"Their guard, Devin Dunn, did a great job pressuring our guards and throwing us out of rhythm and, once we cross half court, we weren't getting into our motion offense at all," Hurley said. "Once it was the fourth quarter, we started down 10 and we started to panic a little bit and try to play a little hero ball. That being said, that's something our guys can work on and fix."

WORTH A SMILE

With Stevenson already up 67-55 early in the fourth quarter, Dunn sank a trey from the left corner. He turned toward his teammates on the bench, flashed a grin and proceeded to run back down the floor.

"That really gave us a boost," Dunn said. "Right out of halftime, we started playing defense and then we started hitting our shots and that just got us more hyped."

MICHIGAN

Things couldn't have worked out any better for Jessica Wieseler.

After taking off a year from coaching, Wieseler was hired last June as the Birmingham Groves girls basketball head coach. The fact that she lives in Beverly Hills, about a mile away from Groves, makes it that much sweeter.

"This is our (family's) home district and we always followed Groves a bit," Wieseler said. "So this is like the dream job for me. This is very exciting to be coaching right in my own district. This was always the goal for me."

Wieseler, who teaches honors and organic chemistry at Grosse Pointe South High School, most recently served for two years as the varsity girls basketball head coach at Hazel Park. She had previously been an assistant and JV coach at South and Novi High School, where she played prep basketball for Bill Kelp.

"I love basketball and the goal was always to teach and coach," said Wieseler, who graduated from Michigan State University, but did not play college basketball.

"I knew I wanted to stay involved in basketball, so anywhere I did any student teaching or any volunteer work while I was at Michigan State, I coached with their programs also," she added. "So it gave me a lot of exposure coaching with a lot of different people and getting a lot of different ideas from there."

Inheriting a talented team

Wieseler inherits a talented Groves team that finished last year with an 18-3 record en route to the OAA Gold Division championship. The Falcons enjoyed a 17-game winning streak, which was snapped in the Class A district opener by arch rival Seaholm.

She plans to have Groves play a controlled style of offense, with a renewed emphasis on strong defensive play.

"I like to emphasize defense and I like my teams to play fast, but under control," Wieseler said. "So this team is very athletic and this team kind of fits right in that wheelhouse. I'm asking a lot of them and they are stepping up."

"It's a big change for them to play in a completely different system, to play a different structure," she added. "I'm asking a lot of them in terms of sets and offenses and plays and things like that. Plus, we're focusing a lot on team defense and being in the right positions."

Groves has eight returning players (five seniors), including all-state guard-forward Sha Carter.

An athletic player with all-around skills, Carter averaged 21 points per game last year and led the Falcons in rebounds and assists. She scored a game-high 25 points in the season-opening victory over Lake Orion and figures to again be the cog that keys the Falcons this year.

"The first thing people notice about Sha is her speed, her athleticism and the way she can finish around the basket," Wieseler said. "She's the complete package. Her leadership is really impressive and a really vital part of our team. She's really a team player and that's not speaking about the obvious skills she has on the court.

"She can run the floor, she finishes around the basket, which is one of her best attributes, and she sees the court, so it's great when she has the ball," she added. "We're working a lot on her defensive positioning and making her a really complete player."

Talent alongside Carter

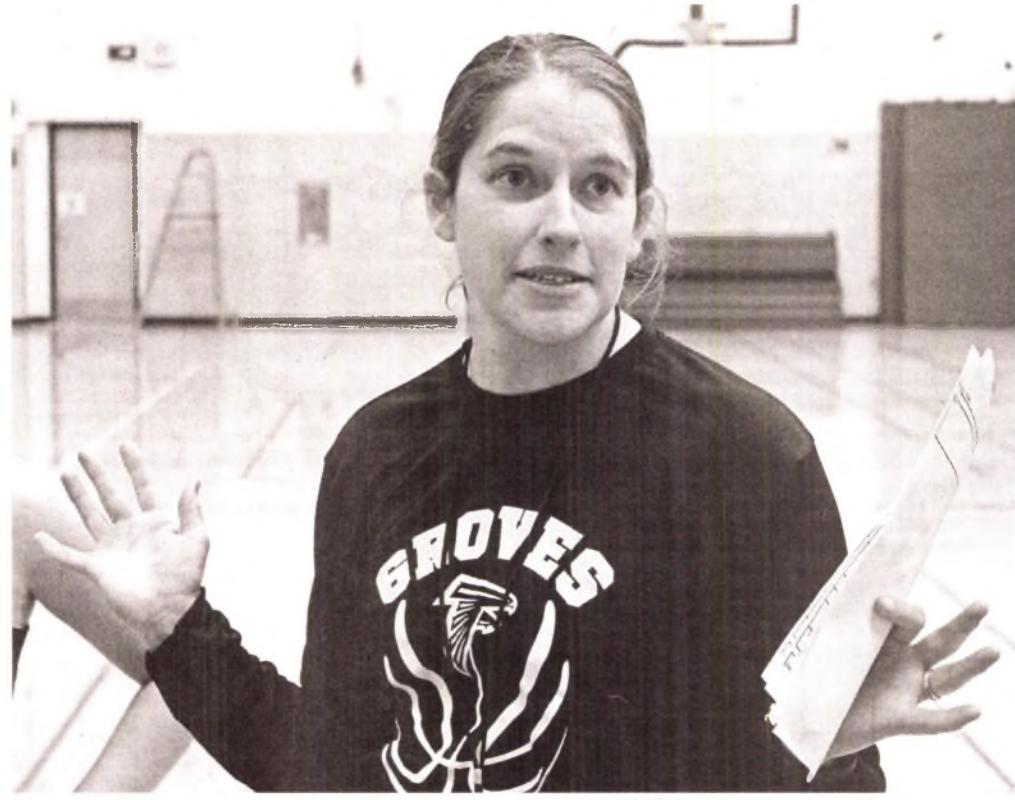

Carter should have plenty of help from fellow senior captain Lauren Palmer, who also hit double figures in the opener with 11.

Lauren is another great leader, more of a quiet, lead-by-example kind of kid, which everybody needs on the court," Wieseler said. "She has really stepped it up defensively by pressuring ball handlers and really making them work. And she runs the floor well, too."

Seniors Bella Boarman (the team's third captain), Sacha Tyler and Kayla Nelson, junior Emilie Felix and sophomore twin towers Ellie Ruprich and Jasmine Worthy are other returning players. All of them are expected to get a lot of playing time and give Wieseler much-needed depth.

The team's other seniors are Skye Taylor and Kendall Pollard.

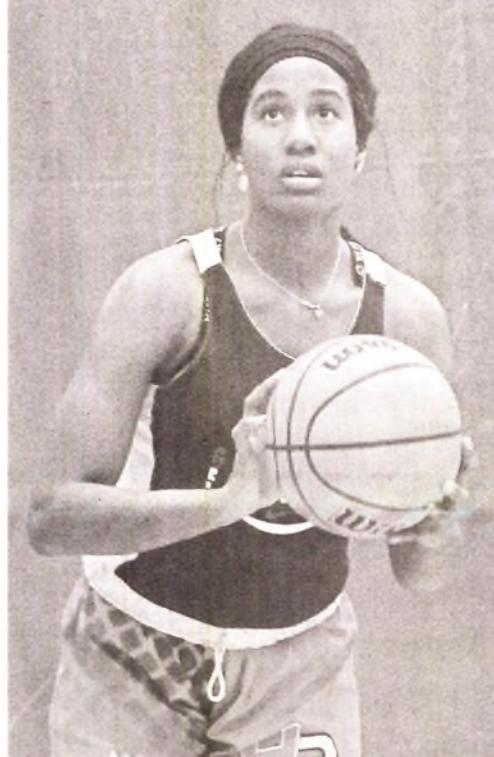

"I knew that they had a lot of success last year in the Gold and that was probably lower than they should have been, so I

Jessica Wieseler takes over the Groves girls basketball program this season and will emphasize strong defensive play. MARTY BUDNER

Moving up to the White

After winning the now disbanded Gold Division, Groves has moved up two spots to the OAA White Division. The Falcons will face much stiffer competition against division foes like Seaholm, Royal Oak, Rochester, Troy and West Bloomfield.

"They are very coachable, they are learning a lot, they are changing a lot and they are working hard to get into those positions that we're talking about," she added. "I've been amazed at what I can ask them to do athletically and they can do it. They are smart and they are great girls."

wasn't completely surprised to see them keep winning last year," Wieseler said. "I knew some of the players, but I didn't know exactly who was coming back. So I just went in with an open mind and I was going to work with whoever I had and I've been very pleasantly surprised at how athletic we are."

"Our two major goals are to make a run in the postseason and to also make a good showing in the White. We think there is no reason why we can't compete to win it. There are some good teams in there, but we think we can hang with the best of them."

"You know, I have seven seniors this year and I want to do justice for them," she added. "But at the same time, I'm looking to build a sustainable program that's going to continue to grow year after year after year. I hope to be around for a while."

Birmingham Unified, Farmington register victories

To report winter season high school sports results, email directly to LIV-sports@hometownlife.com.

Birmingham Unified remained undefeated in the Oakland Activities Association White Division at 3-0 following a 4-2 victory Dec. 9 over West Bloomfield at the Birmingham Ice Arena. The Bulldogs scored twice in each of the first two periods while the Lakers scored once in each of the first two periods. The teams played a scoreless third to account for the final score. Birmingham's offense featured four different goal scorers — Jack Muir (even strength), Dane Hamilton (power play), Matthew Bachand (power play) and David Breau (even strength). Daniel Zalesin had a pair of assists to lead Birmingham. Brett Hutchison, Andrew Beggs, Will Sanders, Bachand and Muir also were credited with assists. BU goalie Gabriel Barish registered the victory.

FARMINGTON 7, GAYLORD 2: Farmington defeated Gaylord in the second game of the D-3 tournament Dec. 9 by five goals. The Falcons held a 2-0 lead after the opening period and iced the game with a four-goal second. Tanner Neill (two), Joe Carbone (two), Nate Arnold, Will McCrary and Collin Rea were Farmington's goal scorers. The game featured 19 penalties.

HANCOCK 6, BROTHER RICE 4: Brother Rice traveled to the Upper Peninsula last weekend and dropped this high-scoring affair by two goals Dec. 9 to host Hancock. The teams were tied 1-1 after the opening period and the visiting Warriors held a 3-2 lead heading into the third. However, Hancock, the 2016 Division 3 state champion, rallied by outscoring Rice 4-1 in the final period. Rice's goal scorers were Joe Serra, Connor Cadieux, Chris Andoni and Nick Marone. Garrett Moore was credited with two assists. Pierce Cadieux played in goal for Rice.

GROSSE POINTE SOUTH 3, CRANBROOK KINGSWOOD 2: In this tightly contested game Dec. 9 in Grosse Pointe, the host Blue Devils broke a 2-2 tie halfway through the third period. South scored the first two goals, but the Cranes countered with power-play goals by Connor McGrath and Hugh Lambert to forge the tie. South's Connor Kckenna put in the game winner at the 8:29 mark of the third period on assists from Garrett Bollenbacher and John McShane. Cranbrook outshot South by a whopping 46-19 margin, but could only put two shots past Blue Devils netminder Camden Mills. Drake Bradshaw played between the pipes for CK.

ROYAL OAK 5, BLOOMFIELD HILLS 4: Royal Oak scored a late goal Dec. 9 to slip past visiting Bloomfield Hills at Lindell Ice Arena. Each team scored once in the first and twice in the second. The Ravens scored twice in the third, including the game winner by Stephan Metcalfe with 1:13 remaining to break a 4-4 tie. Jonah Stone (power play, even strength), Colin Segasser (power play) and Nolan Wooley (even strength) were the Black Hawks goal scorers.

FARMINGTON 4, BIG RAPIDS 2: In the opening game of the D-3 tournament Dec. 8, Farmington doubled up Big Rapids. Big Rapids took a 2-1 lead early in the third period to break a 1-1 tie, but the Falcons rallied for the next three goals. Joe Carbone, Nate Arnold and Tanner Neill (two) were the Falcons goal scorers. Tony Eaton assisted on all three of Farmington's third-period goals. Nick Rogers earned the victory in the nets by making 19 stops on 21 shots.

BROTHER RICE 2, HOUGHTON 2: Host Houghton soared to a 2-0 lead and Brother Rice rallied for the next two goals to earn the tie Dec. 8. The teams played a scoreless eight-minute overtime period. Garrett Moore (Nick Dippire and Connor Cadieux) and Ethan Nystrom (Dippire) were Rice's goal scorers. Pierce Cadieux was Rice's goalie.

CRANBROOK KINGSWOOD 3, HARTLAND 2: On Dec. 8, Cranbrook scored the game's first two goals and the last one to sink Hartland. Cranbrook had only two shots in the first period but scored on both of them. Hugh Lambert (power play) and Case Kantgias gave the host Cranes a 2-0 lead after the opening period. Hartland mustered the second period's lone goal and tied the game early in the third. However, Cranbrook's Tyler Lee netted the eventual game-winner at 6:43 of the third on assists from Mac Brice and Andrew Gunlock. The Cranes outshot Hartland, 25-24.

'Hat' tip for Stevenson defenseman Beaune

Livonia Stevenson senior defenseman Jake Beaune went on the offensive in his team's Dec. 1 game against Northville.

Beaune went off with his three-goal outing at Novi Ice Arena as the Spartans took down the Mustangs 6-3 in a key early season match-up of KLAA Gold Division rivals.

In addition to helping his team bag two points in the Kensington Lakes Activities Association standings, the big game enabled Beaune to win the Hometownlife Sports Athlete of the Week Poll for the week ending Dec. 2.

"It was great, I never really had anything like that before," said Beaune about winning the weekly poll. "And having that opportunity was great, it was unreal."

Beaune was a hit on the ice that night and with voters. He collected 11,229 votes —nearly 49 percent of the 23,055 votes cast.

He easily topped the field, with Farmington hockey player Tanner Neill in second place with 5,649 votes (24.5 percent). The third-place finisher was Birmingham Groves girls basketball player Sha Carter (4,590, 19.9 percent).

According to Beaune, a 6-3 blueliner who notched his second career hat trick, the key to the award was working hard and cashing in around the Northville cage.

"I thought I earned it, I had a great game and good things happen after that," Beaune said. "Definitely getting a hat trick was the reason why I got that."

"It was hard to get that (hat trick) but I fought through, opportunity came and I finished."

The Spartans are starting to gain some early season momentum, and Beaune is looking forward to the MIHL-KLAA Showcase set for Saturday at Eddie Edgar Arena in Livonia. Stevenson will face Orchard Lake St. Mary at 5:30 p.m.

"I think we're pretty solid right now, we're getting pumped for it (showcase)," he continued. "We're going hard at practice and getting ready for the weekend."

PREP ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BASKETBALL
SOUTH LYON LIONS

South Lyon's boys basketball team, thanks to a superb start from senior Noah Grimes, began the season with a pair of impressive non-conference victories.

The Lions opened with a 64-61 triumph over Temperance Bedford where Grimes registered 27 points and 11 rebounds -- a career high in points and the first time he can remember hitting for a double-double. The combo guard-forward also dished out four assists.

In the 43-35 victory over Plymouth Salem, Grimes poured in 15 points to lead the South Lyon scoring charts for the second straight game. In addition, he grabbed five rebounds.

As a result of those efforts, Grimes was voted the Hometown Life Prep Athlete of the Week. He collected 8,300 votes in three days (56 percent) to get past North Farmington girls basketball standout Sam Cherny who was runner-up with 4,687 votes (32 percent of the votes).

Grimes thanked his coaches and teammates for his season-opening performances which led to the Athlete of the Week honor.

"I'm very honored (to be named Athlete of the Week) and to be representing the South Lyon community," said Grimes. "It's a cool thing. I know a couple of my buddies heard about it and they were giving me a lot of support in the voting."

"I kind of like to think it's about my teammates too. The last two games they just put me in good spots where I could capitalize on things," he said.

"It's really as much about them as it is about me. It's kind of an honor for all of us. I'm very thankful to be in a position to do this."

South Lyon's first-year head coach Troy Weidman said Grimes, who was recently selected as a team tri-captain, earned the honor with his strong off-season.

"I'm very proud of Noah," said Weidman, who previously served as the program's junior varsity and varsity assistant coach. "Noah earned this opportunity in the off-season by putting up a ton of game-speed shots and adding speed and muscle through his dedication to the weight room."

"Noah also went above and beyond by doing things like attending back-to-back four-man skill development sessions which helped equip him to play both the guard and forward positions," he said. "I'm most proud of the teammate and leader Noah is to our Lion basketball family. Our staff is blessed to be this young man's coach."

Cranbrook Kingswood defeated Detroit Mumford to bring home the school's first district championship trophy this season. MARTY BUDNER

McConnell leads Cranbrook to record-setting season

Marty Budner

hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

Cranbrook King-swood's seniors knew they had the opportunity to do something special in 2017.

They achieved those preseason expectations with impassioned determination, setting extraordinary new gridiron standards. The Cranes made history this season in a number of ways.

For the first time in program history, Cranbrook Kingswood played an unprecedented three straight postseason home games at the Thompson Oval.

The Cranes opened with a convincing Division 4 pre-district win over Madison Heights Lamphere (35-0), then defeated Detroit Mumford (7-0) in the district championship game before falling to highly-touted River Rouge (21-14) in the regional title game.

Cranbrook Kingswood not only captured its first district championship, but won two playoff games for the first time. The Cranes had never reached the regional round in eight previous playoff appearances.

Head coach Joe D'Angelo's team won its second straight Catholic League Intersectional crown and repeated as the Catholic League C-D Division champion. It had never won a Catholic League title until last year.

The Cranes finished with an 8-1 regular-season record and added two more playoff wins for a school-record 10-victory campaign. They had won nine games three times before.

"We were in uncharted territory. We had never gone this far (in the playoffs)," D'Angelo said. "I really believed that this was a team of destiny. I really thought this team could do it. I didn't tell (the team), but I thought if we could get by (River Rouge), we could get to the finals. I give them a lot of credit."

Seniors carve out niche

While it was tough ending the year with a respectable seven-point loss as a decided underdog to River Rouge, the seniors will always remember a four-year journey during which they brought the Cranbrook Kingswood football program back to the forefront.

Cranbrook King-swood's four-year varsity players finished with 32 wins and four straight state playoff berths. It matches the four-year period from 2002-05, when the Cranes achieved those same lofty numbers.

As a senior captain and four-year varsity veteran, quarterback Trevor McConnell's leadership was invaluable during this record-breaking season.

Senior quarterback Trevor McConnell was a four-year varsity veteran for Cranbrook Kingswood head coach Joe D'Angelo. MARTY BUDNER

The other four-year seniors who played key roles in the team's success were Christopher Smith (T/DE), Tim Hauxwell (T/DE) and Aaron Wiggins (RB). Seniors Marquis Stokes, Andrew Mertz and Adam Samet were two-year starters.

"These guys, this year, put so much into it and it was an amazing experience just to be out there with them and to be able to lead them," an emotional McConnell said after the season-ending defeat. "What we did for this program over these past four years means so much to us. It's all of us — Mertz, myself, Wiggins, Stokes, Pierson, Chris Timmy, the senior class. You just can't say enough about them."

"Then the underclassmen, they stepped in and bought in in June, when we said we could make history here. They bought into us and they knew what we could do and it was an incredible ride. I was lucky enough to be a part of it and one of the leaders of it."

"We had an amazing coaching staff that I can't say thank you to them enough," he added. "It's an emotional time because we are so close. We are just such a family. It was quite the team and I enjoyed being on it. I couldn't be prouder of this team."

McConnell excels

McConnell, also a pitcher on the baseball team, finished the season with a 55-percent completion average (89-of-161) for 1,561 yards and 24 touchdowns. He played in all 10 games last year, starting four of them when starting signal-caller Tyler Santangelo got injured, completing 50 percent of his passes for 574 yards and six touchdowns.

McConnell's signature win was against perennial Catholic League power Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes. He passed for 286 yards and three TDs in leading the Cranes to their first victory over Lakes.

He would have liked to lead the Cranes to at least one more monumental victory against River Rouge, but it just wasn't to be.

"We thought this was the state title (game) in the regional round," McConnell said. "We knew we had the ability to compete with them, even though quite a few of the news articles said the opposite."

"We were ready and I couldn't have been prouder of the way we played," he added. "Everybody counted us out. We knew it was going to be a fight and we were ready for it. It's the character of this team. We knew we could compete with these guys."

Since D'Angelo took over the program five years ago, his teams have compiled an excellent 34-18 record. The Cranes had a losing record in 2013, his first year, but have not had a losing season since with four straight playoff appearances.

Keep the momentum going

The Cranes will return a number of key people, including juniors Kobi Russell, Danny Files, Abhi Thakur and Chris Williams and sophomores Will Kerr and Jack Fairman, to name a few. They will all be counted on to keep the momentum going from this year's historic run.

"I've had more people call, a lot of the alumni, and they see what's out there," D'Angelo said. "We are playing some real football now. We are physical and it's rewarding to get this far in the state tournament."

"It hurts to lose, but we'll be better and we'll build on this. We will be better. I think this will be an incentive for us to work hard in the off-season. They know how to win now. We'll see how they come back."

"Our goal at the beginning of the year was to win the Catholic League championship and to move on in the playoffs farther than we ever did," he added. "We didn't accomplish that (in the playoffs) — we didn't get to the state finals, obviously. But I predict we'll be there in the future."

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

WITH DASHBOARD MARKETPLACE ON LATE-MODEL VEHICLES, GM AIMS FOR COMMERCIALIZED, CUSTOMIZED COMMUTE

By Dale Buss

There are many ways for brands to create loyalty as the driving and riding experience undergoes vast changes. General Motors is taking a further plunge into this new era of mobility by creating what it calls "the industry's first commerce platform for on-demand reservations and purchases of goods and services."

Dubbed "GM Marketplace," it allows customers to buy coffee, order take-out food or make dinner reservations by tapping an icon on the vehicle's dashboard touchscreen. Brands that have already signed up for Marketplace include Starbucks, Dunkin' Donuts, Applebee's and Shell.

In a nod to consumers' demand for personalization, GM's on-board analytics will use information from consumers' established digital relationships with those brands as well as location-based data from the vehicle to shape and customize experiences.

If your favorite Starbucks order is a grande Cinnamon Dolce Latte, for example, a driver with Marketplace can make that preferred order—and pay for it—just by pushing the Starbucks icon on his or her car's screen.

"The beauty of this platform is that it is designed from the get-go to be used while driving," said Santiago Chamorro, GM's VP for global connected customer experience, in a press release. And because the simple (and distraction-free) user interface integrates a clear UI with driver preferences and machine learning, "it's an even faster and simpler interaction the more you use it."

More than two million GM vehicles on the road—the late-model ones that are embedded with 4G LTE connectivity—are now equipped with this service, which makes car ownership (in a time of sharing) even more relevant and useful.

In addition to branded dashboard buttons, Marketplace also features a "Shop" section dedicated to offers specific to GM vehicles, such as purchasing Wi-Fi data, discounts for an oil change or deals on GM accessories.

Given that the average U.S. driver spends 46 minutes a day behind the wheel, GM figures Marketplace could "make this time more productive, more enjoyable and safer."

At the same time, brands get a big opportunity to cater to consumers when previously the only time to reach them safely on the road was with a radio ad.

Shell, for instance, is tapping into Marketplace for easy notification of drivers of its more than 14,000 stations, representing the largest refueling network in the U.S.

Shell's Marketplace presence also offers discounts through its loyalty program as well as seamless digital payments.

GM's Marketplace move is a win-win as a brand partner, says Dan Little, head of North America marketing for Shell, and "a testament to both brands' leadership in their respective fields and our shared commitment to quality and mobility innovation."

The first brands accessible through Marketplace include:

- GM lets customers buy 4G LTE Data packages, extend their OnStar subscription or receive offers for certified service, parts and accessories for their specific vehicle.

- Starbucks offers another convenient way for customers to order ahead and enjoy their favorite handcrafted beverage or food item. And as part of the Starbucks Rewards™ program, members enjoy more value by earning Rewards towards free food and drink. (Early 2018)

- Dunkin' Donuts will help customers start their day off right through an experience that allows DD Perks members to preorder and pay onscreen for their favorite coffee and donut, at their preferred pickup location.

- Wingstop will allow you to skip the wait by re-ordering your favorites and paying ahead, so you can get home in time for the big game.

- TGI Fridays will let customers schedule a table reservation for them and their closest friends and family when they need a break from the week.

- Shell will enable the exceptional driver experience, providing ease of payment and savings with INSTANT GOLD STATUS in the Fuel Rewards® program. Customers' closest Shell station will be identified and station amenities showcased among the largest fuel station network in the U.S., with the ability to pay in-dash coming soon.

- ExxonMobil will quickly locate Exxon and Mobil fuel stations with details of what they offer, route you there and get you back on the road faster.

- IHOP makes it easy for guests to enjoy hot, fresh all-day breakfast favorites like fluffy buttermilk pancakes on the go, thanks to safe and secure on-dash ordering and location service capabilities that help search and find the nearest restaurant for pick up.

- delivery.com empowers the neighborhood economy by enabling customers to order online from their favorite local restaurants, wine and spirits shops, grocery stores and laundry and dry-cleaning providers.
